Naval Powers in the Indian Ocean and the Western Pacific Howard M. Hensel, Amit Gupta, 2018-05-11 A vital component of the interdependent global economy maritime transit routes are nowhere more critical than those traversing the Indian Ocean and the Western Pacific Previously areas of the Indian Ocean and Western Pacific have been viewed as separate and discrete political economic and military regions In recent years however a variety of economic political and military forces have created a new understanding of these maritime expanses as one zone of global interaction This book complements the material presented in its companion volume Maritime Security in the Indian Ocean and the Western Pacific by analysing the perceptions interests objectives maritime capabilities and policies of the major maritime powers operating in the Indian Ocean and the Western Pacific In addition the book also assesses the contemporary maritime challenges and opportunities that confront the global community within what is rapidly becoming recognised as an integrated zone of global interaction A valuable study for researchers and policymakers working in the fields of maritime security military security and peace studies conflict resolution and Asian affairs

Precise Chemical Application Technology for Horticultural Crops Xiaolan Lv, Andreas Herbst, Jianli Song, Xue Li, 2024-06-03 Plant chemical protection uses professional spraying machines to transport chemicals such as pesticides and herbicides to the target sites for pest disease and weed control in crop production Such practices play a vital role in ensuring the supply of food fruits and vegetables for human beings However traditional plant chemical application methods suffer from excessive pesticide use low utilization rate and high labor intensity due to the backwardness of the existing sprayers the single atomization technology etc In order to boost the progress of modern agriculture plant chemical protection should be oriented toward efficient accurate and intelligent application technologies and equipment Smart chemical application technology and efficient equipment can effectively reduce pesticide usage mitigate the harm of chemicals to the environment and lower labor intensity realizing the sustainable development of disease and pest control of horticultural crops ensuring food safety and maintaining crop yield and quality

Microbial BioTechnology for Sustainable Agriculture Volume 1 Naveen Kumar Arora, Brahim Bouizgarne, 2022-05-03 This volume explains the recent findings on the mutualistic plant microbe interactions and how they can be utilized for sustainable agriculture practices including land reclamation The book covers mainly plant growth promoting microorganisms PGPMs including both the symbiotic bacteria and fungi and their role in mobilization of nutrients providing protection to the crops from phytopathogens and abiotic stresses PGPMs play important roles in survival and health of the plant These useful microorganisms provide plants with nutrients protect them from pathogens and help them combat abiotic stresses It is important that these mutualistic interactions between plant and soil microbes are well understood so as to develop reliable products in the form of biostimulants and biopesticides as well as managing biotic and abiotic stresses in crops Apart from enhancing crop productivity plant microbe interactions can also perform activities such as reclamation of degraded lands degradation of pollutants and remediation of saline or marginal lands This book is of interest to teachers researchers plant scientists and microbiologists Also the book serves as additional reading material for undergraduate and graduate students of agriculture microbiology biotechnology ecology soil science and environmental sciences

Capacity Building for Maritime Security Christian Bueger,Timothy Edmunds,Robert McCabe,2020-10-09 This book studies recent attempts to restructure maritime security sectors through capacity building It innovates both theoretically and empirically It proposes a new framework for understanding maritime capacity building drawing on work in peacebuilding and security sector reform The framework is then applied across empirical case studies from the Western Indian Ocean WIO region written by scholars from the Global South The WIO region is a paradigmatic case to study maritime security and capacity building in action Countries in the region face the full gamut of maritime security challenges while their indigenous capacities to deal with these are often weak In consequence the region functions as an engine of innovation for maritime capacity building more widely The lessons and best practices from the region have importance consequences for addressing maritime security across the globe

Illusions of Location Theory: Consequences for Blue Economy in Africa Francis Onditi, Douglas Yates, 2021-01-05 Illusions of Location Theory Consequences for Blue Economy in Africa questions the relevance of location theory in explaining the coastal hinterland continuum and the implications for the utilization of blue economy ecosystem in such a contested space in Africa It pays more attention to territorial contestations maritime disputes vulnerabilities of landlocked states and expansionist policies as displayed through spatial organizational regimes These areas of investigation have previously been largely studied from the narrow perspective of location unduly focusing on comparative advantages of distance while neglecting the influence of forces such as technology ideology and the power of mental mapping in spatial decision making This volume puts forward the argument that the harmonious relationship between states and efficient exploitation of the blue economy ecosystem in ways that promote peace between states lies not only in the structural transformation of markets but also in bridging the spatial and social divide between the coastal and hinterland societies Thus this work proffers possibilities for a holistic regime for managing Africa s coastal hinterland continuum through innovative strategies such as SMART blue economies and the infusion of the geopolitical dimension into the management of maritime and territorial diplomacy The combination of theoretical and empirical analysis buttressed by in depth case studies of what works in the management of blue economy ecosystem and what does not work make this volume ideal for researchers students and practitioners interested in African regional studies African political economy political geography strategic military studies governance of seas and oceans and maritime science diplomacy Sustainable Utilization of Natural Resources Prasenjit Mondal, Ajay K. Dalai, 2017-03-16 Increased research is going on to explore the new cleaner options for the utilization of natural resources This book aims to provide the scientific knowhow and orientation in the area of the emerging technologies for utilization of natural resources for sustainable development to the readers The book includes production of energy and lifesaving drugs using natural resources as well as reduction of wastage of resources like water and energy for sustainable development in both technological as well as modeling aspects Salinity Responses and Tolerance in Plants, Volume 1 Vinay Kumar, Shabir Hussain Wani, Penna Suprasanna, Lam-Son Phan Tran, 2018-04-05 Soil salinity is a key abiotic stress and poses serious threats to crop yields and quality of produce Owing to the underlying complexity conventional breeding programs have met with limited success Even genetic engineering approaches via transferring overexpressing a single direct action gene per event did not yield optimal results Nevertheless the biotechnological advents in last decade coupled with the availability of genomic sequences of major crops and model plants have opened new vistas for understanding salinity responses and improving salinity tolerance in important glycophytic crops Our goal is to summarize these findings for those who wish to understand and target the molecular mechanisms for producing salt tolerant and high yielding crops Through this 2 volume book series we critically assess the potential venues for imparting salt stress tolerance to major crops in the post genomic era Accordingly perspectives on improving crop salinity tolerance by targeting the sensory ion transport and signaling mechanisms are presented here in volume 1 Volume 2 will focus on the potency of post genomic era tools that include RNAi genomic intervention genome editing and systems biology approaches for producing salt tolerant crops Physiology of Soybean Plant P Basuchaudhuri, 2020-11-01 The book provides in depth knowledge on the physiology of soybean It is written lucidly systematically and in depth The book provides recent information and findings explained with illustrations to express the ideas and concepts vividly to university students and researchers and provides a better understanding of the improvement of the productivity of soybean to cope with the future demand It describes the physiology of growth development flowering pod development and seed yield as well as C O N and Oil metabolisms their hormonal regulations under normal and stress environmental conditions Molecular approaches are also described Disaster Risk Reduction in Agriculture Mukhtar Ahmed, Shakeel Ahmad, 2023-11-02 This book is related to disaster risk reduction in agriculture particularly under changing climate Climate change refers to significant long term changes in the global climate There is unequivocal evidence that Earth is warming at an unprecedented rate Human activity is the principal cause The planets average surface temperature has risen to about 1oC since the late 19th century and most of the warming occurred in the past 40 years The years 2016 and 2020 are tied for the warmest year on the record Similarly other evidence of rapid climate change includes warming of oceans shrinking of ice sheets retreating glaciers decreasing snow cover rising of sea level declining arctic sea ice increased frequency of extreme events ocean acidification and loss of biodiversity Hence climate change impacts both extreme weather and slow onset events have impacted several sectors of the national economies and activities in particular agriculture and food production augmented by other challenges be it geopolitical cost of finance or supply chain related and in a time of increased food insecurity Without CO₂ fertilization effective adaptation and genetic improvement each degree Celsius increase in global mean temperature would on average reduce global yields of wheat by 60% rice by 32% maize by 74% and soybean by 31% Hence this book is useful as a study material to teach in the field of agriculture and climate change The book is useful for instructors and postgraduate as well as undergraduate students involved in the study of climate change The book also provide guidance to multiple stakeholders to design mitigation and adaptation efforts to climate change and ensure food security in the developing world
