highlands environmental NGOs valorize customary objects and practices to suppress swidden and support forest conservation while evangelical missionaries regulate Pala wan beliefs health and hygiene Bridging material studies and biopolitics For the Sake of Forests and Gods explores how these nonstate actors use customary objects for comprehensive reforms of Pala wan bodies and souls centering on how the unique properties of the Tingkep basket mediate nonstate biopower These reforms impact highlanders differently some adopt biopolitical ideals willingly others for political and economic gain Yet others resist interventions prioritizing family livelihoods Ultimately Dressler argues that Indigenous sovereignty matters more than ever as nonstate biopower intensifies in Southeast Asia s uplands The Wiley Handbook of School Choice Robert A. The Uselessness of Grace Peter Wiah, 2018-06-04 Where there is no law there is no sin. Where there is no sin there is no need for grace. Therefore in the absence of the law, grace is futile. Judah in the Biblical Period Oded

Lipschits, 2024-03-18 The collection of essays in this book represents more than twenty years of research on the history and archeology of Judah as well as the study of the Biblical literature written in and about the period that might be called the Age of Empires. This 600 year long period when Judah was a vassal Assyrian, Egyptian and Babylonian kingdom and then a province under the consecutive rule of the Babylonian, Persian, Ptolemaic and Seleucid empires was the longest and the most influential in Judean history and historiography. The administration that was shaped and developed during this period, the rural economy, the settlement pattern and the place of Jerusalem as a small temple surrounded by a small settlement of mainly priests, Levites and other temple servants characterize Judah during most of its history. This is the formative period when most of the Hebrew Bible was written and edited when the main features of Judaism were shaped and when Judean culture and theology were created and developed. The 36 papers contained in this book present a broad picture of the Hebrew Bible against the background of the Biblical history and the archeology of Judah throughout the six centuries of the Age of Empires.

Presbyterian Survey, 1925 Joy in the Night Don R. West, 2014-04-01 Sometimes life breaks us. Sometimes we find ourselves lost in all the hurt and confusion we have to live with every day. Sometimes it feels as though we cannot possibly endure another moment. And sometimes we find ourselves so low that we literally weep through the night. King David was familiar with and spoke often of this pain. However, he also knew of a greater hope, a hope that has the ability to lift our spirits as we wait for the coming joy in the morning. Joy in the Night shares ten of Don Rodney West's most popular sermons which he has presented around the world. From Jamaica to Mexico to New York, Pastor West provides the background information as to the location of his sermon and the reason for choosing each topic before diving into the sermon. Written with humor and compassion yet not lacking in seriousness and truth, Pastor West delves into ten different concepts, all of which reflect not only the joy we may experience in the morning but also the joy we can find in the night in the midst of our trials. The Civil War in Southern Appalachian Methodism Durwood Dunn, 2014-02-01 The Civil War in Southern Appalachian Methodism addresses a much neglected topic in both Appalachian and Civil War history: the role of organized religion in the sectional strife and the war itself Meticulously researched well written and full of fresh facts this new book brings an original perspective to the study of the conflict and the region In many important respects the actual Civil War that began in 1861 unveiled an internal civil war within the Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South comprising churches in southwestern Virginia eastern Tennessee western North Carolina and a small portion of northern Georgia that had been waged surreptitiously for the previous five decades This work examines the split within the Methodist Church that occurred with mounting tensions over the slavery question and the rise of the Confederacy Specifically it looks at how the church was changing from its early roots as a reform movement grounded in a strong local pastoral ministry to a church with a more intellectual professionalized clergy that often identified with Southern secessionists The author has mined an exhaustive trove of primary sources especially the extensive yet often overlooked minutes from frequent local and regional Methodist gatherings He has also explored East Tennessee newspapers and other published works on the topic The author s deep research into obscure church records and other resources results not only in a surprising interpretation of the division within the Methodist Church but also new insights into the roles of African Americans women and especially lay people and local clergy in the decades prior to the war and through its aftermath In addition Dunn presents important information about what the inner Civil War was like in East Tennessee an area deeply divided between Union and Confederate sympathizers Students and scholars of religious history southern history and Appalachian studies will be enlightened by this volume and its bold new way of looking at the history of the Methodist Church and this part of the nation Catalogue of the Library of the Boston Athenaeum Boston Athenaeum,1878
