China's Global Rebalancing and the New Silk Road B. R. Deepak, 2018-01-10 This collaborative volume discusses the One Belt One Road or the New Silk Road initiative of Chinese President Xi Jinping from the perspectives of the Belt and Road countries This initiative has been viewed as a re globalization drive by China in the backdrop of financial crisis of the West and the latter's increasingly protectionist tendencies of late Rather than rebalancing towards a certain region this is supposed to be China's global rebalancing aimed at inclusiveness and a win win partnership The initiative has raised hopes as well as suspicions about China's goals and intentions that is whether this is in sync with China's foreign policy goals such as multipolarity no hegemonic aspirations and common security or if this is an antidote to the U.S. foreign policy goals in the region and China's ambition to realizing its long term vision for Asian regional and global order In this volume a galaxy of eminent academics from India China Pakistan Uzbekistan Germany and Southeast Asia have critically analysed every aspect of this mammoth project including the six major economic corridors identified by China for policy coordination infrastructure connectivity unimpeded trade monetary circulation and people to people exchanges The authors have interpreted China's peripheral regional as well as global diplomacy both over land and sea This topical volume is of interest to scholars and students of Asian studies China studies Asian history development studies international relations and international trade

The China-Pakistan Economic Corridor of the Belt and Road Initiative Siegfried O. Wolf, 2019-06-20 This book focuses on the implementation of the China Pakistan Economic Corridor CPEC a multi billion dollar infrastructure development project intended to connect Asia with Europe the Middle East and Africa By introducing a new analytical approach to the study of economic corridors it gauges the anticipated economic and geopolitical impacts on the region and discusses whether the CPEC will serve as a pioneer project for future regional cooperation between and integration of sub national regions such as Balochistan Khyber Pakhtunkhwa the Federally Administered Tribal Areas and Gilgit Baltistan Further it explores the interests expectations and policy approaches of both Chinese and Pakistani local and central governments with regard to the CPEC's implementation Given its scope the book will appeal to regional and spatial sciences scholars as well as social scientists interested in the regional impacts of economic corridors It also offers valuable information for policymakers in countries participating in the Belt and Road Initiative or other Chinese supported development projects Ex-Combatants' Voices John D. Brewer, Azrini Wahidin, 2021-02-02 This book develops the discourse on the experiences of ex combatants and their transition from war to peace from the perspective of scholars across disciplines Ex combatants are often overlooked and ignored in the post conflict search for memory and understanding resulting in their voice being excluded or distorted This collection seeks to disclose something of the lived experience of ex combatants who have made the transition from war to peace to help to understand some of the difficulties they have encountered in social and emotional reintegration in the wake of combat These include motivations and mobilizations to participation in military struggle the material difficulties experienced in social reintegration after the war the emotional legacies of conflict the discourses they utilize to reconcile their past in a society moving forward from conflict toward peace and ex combatants subsequent engagement or not in peacebuilding It also examines the contributions that former combatants have made to post conflict compromise reconciliation and peacebuilding It focusses on male non state actors women child soldiers and unusually state veterans and complements previous volumes which captured the voices of victims in Northern Ireland South Africa and Sri Lanka This volume speaks to those working in the areas of sociology criminology security studies politics and international relations and professionals working in social justice and human rights NGOs Forging New Partnerships, Breaching New Frontiers Rejaul Karim Laskar, 2023-02-06 The ten years of UPA rule has been a crucial passage in the evolution of India's foreign policy and yet this period has been until now curiously understudied This book bridges this puzzling gap in the literature

Rethinking Humanitarian Intervention in the 21st Century Aiden Warren, 2017-06-02 Since the end of the Cold War humanitarian interventions have continued to evolve and respond to a wide range of political crises These insightful essays focus on the challenges associated with interventions when facing conflict and human rights violations unmitigated systematic violence state re building human mobility and dislocation Each chapter is linked to the rest through three defining themes that permeate the book the evolution of humanitarian interventions in a global era the limits of sovereignty and the ethics of interventions and the politics of post intervention re building and humanitarian engagement The authors incorporate a variety of case studies including Kosovo Timor Leste Syria Libya and Iraq and examine the complexity of interventions across their different dimensions including relevant doctrines such as R2P Use of Force and Human Security

Terrorism Revisited Paulo Casaca, Siegfried O. Wolf, 2017-06-24 This book develops a conceptual approach to understanding the face of contemporary terrorism as manifested in the recent attacks in Mumbai and Paris By analyzing the historical evolution of terrorism and by offering case studies on different forms of terrorism in South Asia and elsewhere the authors shed new light on the political strategies behind terrorist attacks as well as on the motivations of terrorists The case studies explore the redefinition of terrorism by the Iranian Islamic revolution the spread of terrorism in Sunni Islam the national jihadism in Pakistan anti-Semitism as a main factor behind fanatical terrorist ideologies and the case of the Tamil Tigers Redefining terrorism is a dynamic story that provides readers with intrigue and clarity to the ever evolving threats that we face as a nation and as a global community The authors masterfully navigate through the intricate maze of global terrorism bringing an overwhelming dose of reality through his usage of real life gripping experiences Through this book military and intelligence analysts and policy makers alike will gain first hand knowledge about not only what the world looks like today but a glimpse into the future US Congressman Pete Sessions The Handbook of African Defence and Armed Forces

Evert Kleynhans, Marco Wyss, 2025-03-01 The Handbook of African Defence and Armed Forces provides the first in depth and multifaceted analysis of the evolution and current state of national defence policies strategies doctrines capabilities security challenges and strategic responses of African states and their armed forces Geographically these aspects are investigated at the national sub regional and regional levels Chronologically they are analysed against the backdrop of the superpower withdrawal from the continent in the 1990s and the so called New Scramble for Africa which has seen a crescendo of renewed great power interest in the continent's resources as well as its strategic role location and relevance since the 2000s The book takes a bottom up and African centric approach and is organized around five key themes i the differing security outlooks and defence policies of African powers within the region and the different sub regions ii the strategies doctrines transformation and employment of African armed forces iii the relationship between African armed forces with sub regional regional and international organizations iv the challenges that African states and their armed forces have been facing and their strategic responses and v the position of African perspectives and agency in the context of continental and international security and defence Understanding African security and defence especially in terms of each individual nation s ability to contribute to peacekeeping operations counterterrorism border security and internal security requires a focus on the national level of armed forces and defence policies this in turns sheds light on sub regional and regional divergences challenges and cooperation Based on this framework the chapters in this volume offer comprehensive African perspectives on African and international security and defence and in doing so show the agency of the continent s countries and armed forces in International Security and Relations In Different Times Ian van der Waag,Albert Grundlingh,2019-11-15 This is the first attempt to bring together diverse scholars using different lenses to study South Africa s Border War As a book it is critical in approach provides deeper reflection and focuses specifically on the SADF experience of the war The result is a more complex picture of the war s dynamics and its legacies Although South Africa is a vastly different country today the study of the Border War opens a range of questions also relevant to contemporary deployments such as in Lesotho 1998 and the Central African Republic 2013 It includes the debate on participation in foreign conflicts on the deployment design and preparation of appropriate modern armed forces and their use as foreign policy instruments in far off theatres on military planning and as the historical controversies regarding the battles at Cuito Cuanavale and Bangui illustrate on the interface between foreign campaigning and domestic politics Koevoet Steve Crump,2023-01-19 Koevoet Afrikaans for Crowbar tells of the origination and deployment of the South West African Police s elite counter insurgency capability during the South African Border War of 1978 1989 Drawing upon previously unpublished sources and from interviews with a number of key personalities including former members of Koevoet this volume the first of two documents the formation of Koevoet and its early operations up to 1984 Koevoet examines the background and context to the South West African conflict and details the early experiences of the South African Police in seeking to counter SWAPO PLAN activities It outlines the tasking assigned to Colonel Hans Dreyer of the South African Police to establish Ops K and to develop a counter insurgency unit as part of the South West African Police response to the developing conflict a unit that was to become both respected and feared and is today considered as one of the most effective counter insurgency forces of modern times Koevoet describes the recruitment of trackers from the local population the integration of black and white Koevoet operators into a single entity their training organization and deployment across the Operational Area The author examines Koevoet tactics in the field including all arms co operation with the South African Defence Force and the South African Air Force and the practice of turning captured SWAPO PLAN fighters and their employment across the Zulu teams The design and evolution of the iconic Casspir and Wolf Mine Protected Vehicles MPVs is covered as is their practical use on operations alongside the development of other specialized weapons and equipment utilized by Koevoet In documenting Koevoet operations in Kavnago Kaokoland and Owamboland Volume 1 of Koevoet seeks to examine SWAPOL COIN s effectiveness and to assess how the lessons learned between 1979 1984 shaped future Koevoet doctrine and thinking to afford the reader a truly inclusive perspective on counter insurgency today as police and armed forces globally move to a greater reliance on cutting edge digital technology including artificial intelligence Color profiles detail a range Mine Protected Vehicles MPVs used by Koevoet including the iconic Casspir and Wolf along with SADF and SAAF helicopters used to support these operations Uniforms and insignia of Koevoet are presented in specially commissioned full color artworks

Exploring Complicity Michael Neu, Robin Dunford, Afxentis Afxentiou, 2016-12-15 Questions of complicity emerge within a range of academic disciplines and everyday practices Using a wide range of case studies this book explores the concept of and cases of complicity in an interdisciplinary context It expands orthodox understandings of the concept by including the notion of structural complicity revealing seemingly inconsequential everyday forms of complicity examining different kinds and degrees of individual and collective complicity and introducing complicity as a lens through which to analyse and critically reflect upon social structures and relations It also explores complicity through a series of cases emerging from a variety of academic disciplines and professional practices Its various chapters reflect on amongst other things the complicity of politicians self proclaimed feminists health care workers fictional characters social movement activists and academic defenders of torture

Chinese Overseas Ports in Southeast and South Asia Jean-Marc F. Blanchard, 2024-11-15 This book examines PRC involved seaports overseas where involvement can take the form of PRC foreign direct investment FDI contracting and or terminal operations in countries such as Cambodia Pakistan and the Philippines Including country oriented chapters the book sheds light on inter alia the realization or not of Chinese seaports the effects of Chinese participation on port performance trade FDI employment and the environment and the wider economic political and other ramifications of China s role Importantly the case studies in the book clearly demonstrate that amongst these ports there are successes and failures positive or negative effects are not preordained and domestic and international political factors notably influence what occurs in these overseas ports The book also illuminates the critical role of 3rd parties including India in shaping the dynamics of China s participation in Southeast and South Asian ports and evaluate the potential for Chinese involved ports to become naval bases Presenting contributions from experts on Southeast and South Asia and utilising rich empirical data to reveal the factors that are driving China s participation overseas this book will appeal to students and scholars of Asian and Southeast Asian studies international relations particularly through the lens of economic relations

Media in Postapartheid South Africa Sean Jacobs, 2019-03-11 A study of mass media in twenty first century South Africa offering revelations about the nature of citizenship and public engagement in our media saturated age Daniel R Magaziner author of The Law and the Prophets Black Consciousness in South Africa 1968 1977 In Media in Postapartheid South Africa

Sean Jacobs turns to media politics and the consumption of media as a way to understand recent political developments in South Africa and their relations with the African continent and the world Jacobs looks at how mass media define the physical and human geography of the society and what it means for comprehending changing notions of citizenship in postapartheid South Africa Jacobs claims that the media have unprecedented control over the distribution of public goods rights claims and South Africa's integration into the global political economy in ways that were impossible under the state controlled media that dominated the apartheid years Jacobs takes a probing look at television commercials and the representation of South Africans reality television shows and South African continental expansion soap operas and postapartheid identity politics and the internet as a space for reassertions and reconfigurations of identity As South Africa becomes more integrated into the global economy Jacobs argues that local media have more weight in shaping how consumers view these products in unexpected and consequential ways

War of Intervention in Angola Adrien Fontanellaz, Tom Cooper, José Augusto Matos, 2023-06-30 Through late 1987 and early 1988 the battlefields of southern Angola moved ever further away from the border with South West Africa Namibia until the showdown between the Soviet and Cuban supported government in Luanda and South African supported insurgency of UNITA culminated in the controversial and still much disputed Battle of Cuito Cuanavale During this period Angolan and Cuban airpower slowly grew to a point where it outmatched the SAAF in turn limiting the freedom of movement of the SADF and UNITA ground forces and reducing their operations to attritional battles with little chance of achieving major victories on terms acceptable to the government in Pretoria As the changing political climate between East and West and in Africa began to bring about an end to the South African intervention in Angola and the occupation of South West Africa Namibia the government of Angola was able to switch its attentions to dealing with UNITA Volume 5 of War of Intervention in Angola examines in detail this final period of Cuban involvement in the long and tragic civil war that ruined Angola between 1975 and 1992 While the emphasis is upon the operations of the Angolan and Cuban air forces it also details how these impacted upon the ground operations of all parties This volume is richly illustrated with original photographs of the forces involved specially commissioned maps of the ground operations and a range of full color artworks

20 Battles Evert Kleynhans, David Brock Katz, 2023-07-28 Favouring manoeuvre over attrition and often punching above their weight South African soldiers have become known for their tenacity dash and ability to defy the odds Their unique directive command style has also helped them to excel in defining battles and operations from the campaign in German South West Africa in 1915 to the cross border operations in Angola during the Border War In 20 Battles military historians Evert Kleynhans and David Brock Katz investigate the evolution of South Africa's armed forces over a century from 1913 to 2013 They track the evolution of the doctrine and structure of the defence force uncovering historical continuity and the lessons learned from past battles and operations What is clear is that when South African soldiers have the freedom to operate according to their manoeuvre doctrine as they had in East Africa in 1916 and southern Ethiopia in 1941 they can achieve stunning results But when hemmed in by rigid doctrine and a top down command style as at Delville Wood in 1916 and Tobruk in 1942 the results can be tragic 20 Battles combines both battlefield drama and crisp analysis and in the process provides a much needed perspective on the South African way of war

Private Military and Security Contractors Gary Schaub, Jr., Ryan Keltz, 2016-06-16 In Private Military and Security Contractors PMSCs a multinational team of scholars and experts address a developing phenomenon controlling the use of privatized force by states in international politics Robust analyses of the evolving multi layered tapestry of formal and informal mechanisms of control address the microfoundations of the market such as the social and role identities of contract employees their acceptance by military personnel and potential tensions between them The extent and willingness of key states South Africa the United States Canada the United Kingdom and Israel to monitor and enforce discipline to structure their contractual relations with PMSCs on land and at sea is examined as is the ability of the industry to regulate itself Also discussed is the nascent international legal regime to reinforce state and industry efforts to encourage effective practices punish inappropriate behavior and shape the market to minimize the hazards of loosening states oligopolistic control over the means of legitimate organized violence The volume presents a theoretically informed synthesis of micro and macro levels of analysis offering new insights into the challenges of controlling the agents of organized violence used by states for scholars and practitioners alike

Counter-Insurgency in Nigeria Akali Omeni, 2017-09-08 This book offers a detailed examination of the counter insurgency operations undertaken by the Nigerian military against Boko Haram between 2011 and 2017 Based on extensive fieldwork conducted with military units in Nigeria Counter Insurgency in Nigeria has two main aims First it seeks to provide an understanding of the Nigerian military's internal role a role that today as a result of internal threats pivots towards counter insurgency The book illustrates how organizational culture historical experience institutions and doctrine are critical to understanding the Nigerian military and its attitudes and actions against the threat of civil disobedience today and in the past The second aim of the book is to examine the Nigerian military campaign against Boko Haram insurgents specifically plans and operations between June 2011 and April 2017 Within this second theme emphasis is placed on the idea of battlefield innovation and the reorganization within the Nigerian military since 2013 as the Nigerian Army and Air Force recalibrated themselves for COIN warfare A certain mystique has surrounded the technicalities of COIN operations by the Army against Boko Haram and this book aims to disperse that veil of secrecy Furthermore the work's analysis of the air force's role in counter insurgency is unprecedented within the literature on military warfare in Nigeria This book will be of great interest to students of military studies counter insurgency counter terrorism African politics and security studies in general

Apartheid's Black Soldiers Lennart Bolliger, 2021-10-01 New oral histories from Black Namibian and Angolan troops who fought in apartheid South Africa's security forces reveal their involvement and its impact on their lives to be far more complicated than most historical scholarship has acknowledged In anticolonial struggles across the African continent tens of thousands of African soldiers served in the militaries of colonial and settler states. In southern Africa they often made up the bulk of these militaries and in some contexts far outnumbered those who fought in the liberation movements' armed wings. Despite these soldiers' significant impact on the region's military and political history, this dimension of southern Africa's anticolonial struggles has been almost entirely ignored in previous scholarship. Black troops from Namibia and Angola spearheaded apartheid South Africa's military intervention in their countries' respective anticolonial war and postindependence civil war. Drawing from oral history interviews and archival sources, Lennart Bolliger challenges the common framing of these wars as struggles of national liberation fought by and for Africans against White colonial and settler state armies. Focusing on three case studies of predominantly Black units commanded by White officers, Bolliger investigates how and why these soldiers participated in South Africa's security forces and considers the legacies of that involvement. In tackling these questions, he rejects the common tendency to categorize the soldiers as collaborators and traitors and reveals the un-national facets of anticolonial struggles. Finally, the book's unique analysis of apartheid military culture shows how South Africa's military units were far from monolithic and instead developed distinctive institutional practices, mythologies, and concepts of militarized masculinity.
