Bellinzoni,2018-02-16 This volume provides enough information about each story in the Gospel of Mark and about the gospel as a whole in order to afford an informed understanding of the gospel The evangelist was not writing a book for submission to a committee for inclusion in the Christian Bible Rather he was collecting existing oral and written tradition into a coherent narrative to promote for his own Christian community an understanding of the good news of Jesus the Messiah The church to which the evangelist was writing probably in Antioch of Syria was likely already familiar with many of the stories from the church s evolving liturgy Christians gathered in people s homes there were no churches as we understand that word as a specific building for Christian worship It was in such gatherings in homes that stories were told perhaps as the basis for a message delivered by an elder of the church Such stories illustrated some truth about Jesus or addressed an issue of importance to the church In other words these individual stories were developed to serve the needs of the Christian community Historical accuracy was not a concern of the evangelist Proclaiming Jesus as Messiah was his primary purpose

Essential Bible Study Tools for Ministry Professor David R. Bauer,2014-03-18 This up to date highly selective bibliography is designed to acquaint students and ministers with major works significant publishers and prominent scholars in biblical studies It is the perfect guide for beginning a research project or building a ministerial library References are included based on the following considerations 1 usefulness for the theological interpretation of the Bible within the context of the faith of the church 2 significance in the history of interpretation and 3 representation of evangelical and especially evangelical Wesleyan scholarship The Gospels and Jesus Graham Stanton,2002-03-07 This book provides a clear scholarly introduction to study of the life of Jesus and of the four New Testament gospels In the second edition special attention is given to ways of assessing the relevant literary and archaeological evidence Current scholarly debates are considered but the main emphasis is on thorough study of key passages in the gospels
