Legal Reasoning LA LR Prostitution, Women and Misuse of the Law Helen J. Self, 2004-08-02 This is an examination from a feminist historian's standpoint of the background to the present system of regulating prostitution in Britain which is generally admitted to be not only unjust and discriminatory but ineffective even in achieving its stated aims Concentrating on the 1950s and especially on the Wolfenden Report and the 1959 Street Offences Act it is a thorough exposure of the sexual double standard and general misogynist assumptions underlying legislation relating to prostitution In addition to the detailed analysis of the 1950s legislation and the background to it there is an exposition of the subsequent workings of the Act and of attempts to amend or repeal it The Phoenix and the Flame Henry Kamen, 1993-01-01 It is commonly assumed that the Counter Reformation touched Spain only lightly affecting the religious institutions but not the ordinary Spaniards Henry Kamen now challenges this view by providing an intimate look at what life was like in one small but distinctive rural Spanish community from the mid sixteenth to mid seventeenth centuries By examining the Catalan village of Mediona as a microcosm of Spanish society Kamen shows that in fact the Counter Reformation led to powerful changes in the daily lives beliefs and customs of the common people of Catalonia and Spain Kamen portrays the popular culture of Mediona studying the shifting habits revealed by its administrative reforms during the Counter Reformation the place of religious belief within the community the attempts to change popular festivities and celebrations the far reaching innovations in marriage and sexuality the role of the Inquisition and of the Jesuits the problem of witchcraft and the impact of books from the expanding presses of France Italy and the Netherlands on local language and ideas Kamen concludes that the Counter Reformation was in some instances liberating rather than repressive in Mediona and the broader Mediterranean society of which it was part By contemplating popular religion and culture as it was practiced by ordinary citizens he offers new insights into an epoch normally studied only in the light of great political events and he presents a wholly original vision of culture and society in Spain's Golden Age "A" Dictionary of the English Language Robert Gordon Latham, 1876 Hydroelectric Regulation Under the Federal Power Act United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Energy and Natural Resources. Subcommittee on Water and Power, 1990 The Malayan Law Journal Bashir Ahmad Mallal, 2003 Corporatocracy Ciara Torres-Spelliscy, 2024-11-05 Reveals how corporate greed led to scandal corruption and the January 6th insurrection and how we can stop it from happening again Donald Trump's false claims of election fraud and the violence of the Capitol riot have made it unavoidably clear that the future of American democracy is in peril Unseen political actors and untraceable dark money influence our elections while anti democratic rhetoric threatens a tilt towards authoritarianism In Corporatocracy Ciara Torres Spelliscy reveals the role corporations play in this dire state of political affairs and explains why and how they should be held accountable by the courts their shareholders and citizens themselves Drawing on key Supreme Court cases Torres Spelliscy explores how corporations have more often than not been on the wrong side of history by working to undermine democratic norms practices and laws From bankrolling regressive politicians to funding ghost candidates with dark money she shows us how corporations subvert the will of the American people and how courts struggle to hold them and corrupt politicians accountable Corporations have existed far longer than democracies have If voters consumers and investors are not careful corporations may well outlive democracy Corporatocracy brings all of these shadowy tactics to light and offers meaningful legal reforms that can strengthen and protect American democracy

The Second Birth Tilo Schabert,2015-11-20 This book inquires anew into the question whence originates the political Gestalt of human life and what does it entail In pursuit of this question the book attempts to undertake a transcultural and transhistorical grounding of political theory The material for it has accordingly been taken from classical works of different cultural spheres Ancient Greek Jewish and Christian Chinese Arabic ancient Egyptian and Indian texts have been examined with regard to their fundamental claims Analysis of these texts showed that the visions of the political existence of human beings that they entertain can be surprisingly similar In this way a body of knowledge that had largely fallen into oblivion owing to the advent of modernity could be recovered and made available for contemporary political theory It is precisely this knowledge that has the potential for providing the foundation for transcultural commonalities in our own times Preface The Saturday Evening Post ,1924 National Message and Banner ,1929 Careers in Law: A Guide for Students, Graduates and Professionals Manda Raz,Erwin Loh,John Devereux,2020-09-07 This book addresses the difficult decisions in the life of law students graduates and young law professionals in deciding the area of legal practice to pursue as a career The number of legal fields and subfields is over one hundred making it virtually impossible for an upcoming lawyer to explore all of these career avenues Many students finish law school with little understanding of what specific law careers involve for example or what sports or space lawyers routinely do This book highlights the time consuming nature of law education and training that causes a lack of experience in legal fields as being able to successfully determine the right legal profession for the student Finding a law career that is a significant source of satisfaction is a function of serious thinking and active research which the current university to legal practice does not facilitate This book is a practical guide for any student or current lawyer who is deciding and evaluating their future legal profession
