Back to the Fifties Michael D. Dwyer,2015-06-10 Throughout the 1970s and 1980s Hollywood studios and record companies churned out films albums music videos and promotional materials that sought to recapture revise and re imagine the 1950s Breaking from dominant wisdom that casts the trend as wholly defined by Ronald Reagan s politics or the rise of postmodernism Back to the Fifties reveals how Fifties nostalgia from 1973 to 1988 was utilized by a range of audiences for diverse and often competing agendas Films from American Graffiti to Hairspray and popular music from Sha Na Na to Michael Jackson shaped and were shaped by the complex social political and cultural conditions of the Reagan Era By closely examining the ways that the Fifties was remade and recalled Back to the Fifties explores how cultural memories were fostered for a generation of teenagers trained by popular culture to rewind record recycle and replay Instructional Supervision Sally J. Zepeda,2003 Playing the Waves Jan Simons,2007 Dogma 95 the avant garde filmmaking movement founded by the Danish director Lars von Trier and three of his fellow directors was launched in 1995 at an elite cinema conference in Paris when von Trier was called upon to speak about the future of film but instead showered the audience with pamphlets announcing the new movement and its manifesto A refreshingly original critical commentary on the director and his practice Playing the Waves is a paramount addition to one of new media s most provocative genres games and gaming Playing the Waves cleverly puns on the title of one of von Trier s most famous features and argues that Dogma 95 like much of the director s low budget realist productions is a game that takes cinema beyond the traditional confines of film aesthetics and dramatic rules Simons articulates the ways in which von Trier redefines the practice of filmmaking as a rule bound activity and stipulates the forms and structures of games von Trier brings to bear on his films as well as the sobering lessons he draws from economic and evolutionary game theory Much like the director s films this fascinating volume takes the traditional point of view of film theory and film aesthetics to the next level and demonstrates we have much to learn from the perspective of game studies and game theory Cinemas of Boyhood Timothy Shary,2021-01-13 Drawing from political sociology pop psychology and film studies Cinemas of Boyhood explores the important yet often overlooked subject of boys and boyhood in film This collected volume features an eclectic range of films from British and Indian cinemas to silent Hollywood and the new Hollywood of the 1980s culminating in a comprehensive overview of the diverse concerns surrounding representations of boyhood in film International Fisheries Law Bjørn Kunoy,Tomas Heidar,Constantinos Yiallourides,2024-10-14 Offering a practical exploration of persistent and new challenges relating to contemporary international fisheries law this book examines emerging and unresolved issues in international fisheries law Covering a wide range of international legal aspects related to fisheries governance it offers practical perspectives that go beyond the existing debates in this field An expert team of contributors offers a comprehensive study of current challenges in fisheries governance institutional law frameworks procedural aspects and trade and enforcement issues The book enriches fisheries law scholarship outlining the capacity of international law to address challenges in international fisheries law and policy highlighting the critical importance of fisheries to many states coastal communities and economies globally The book's chapters have been meticulously selected focusing on policy and practical considerations The result is a comprehensive edited collection covering the main persistent challenges in international fisheries law making it an essential reading for all those interested in the conservation integrated management and sustainable use of living resources globally Candles and Mirrors Albert B.
