Wired to Run Scoop Skupien,2009-01-01 Over 35 million people will go running this year in the United States alone For some of us it s more than just a hobby over 11 million of us are runaholics Runners and addicts Addicts and runners The two hardly seem to go together unless you re one of those people who periodically put a couple of miles on your running shoes and then think things like Boy this feels good I could go all day long Then you do Or at least try to Running and addiction as in running addiction do indeed go together like chocolate and peanut butter as Wired to Run makes so perfectly clear Written by Scoop Skupien a habitual runner for the past 30 years and the founder of Runaholics Anonymous Wired to Run is a humorous trip through the world of runaholics and a host of issues that the running obsessed can't quite leave in their dust. It's a good natured satire of healing groups that will keep readers whether they're runners or run enablers laughing page after breathless page. Central to the book and the whole online Runaholics Anonymous organization is Skupien's 12 Step program for recognizing and dealing with this mental and very physical disorder. From 'We admit that we are powerless over running' to 'We reach the Pinnacle the ability to run in moderation' the self-help style mixes laughs with actual training tips and other helpful advice. The combination along with hilarious analysis of six different running types that encompass just about anyone who's ever broken a sweat pokes great fun at runners, their odd habits and their running rituals. It's definitely fun on the run. Run to Live Greg Spagna, 2014-09-30

All that we see or seem is but a dream within a dream. Edgar Allan Poe. I've learned to run on the high road. If I come to a puddle I do my best to go around it. If I can't I jump in with both feet. I've learned to notice and appreciate the beauty I see as I go down the road. I've learned to live in the positive but I've learned how to live with the negative. I run for my body. I run for my mind. But most of all I RUN to LIVE. It is Never too Late to Mend Charles Reade, 1902 Running Rewired Jay Dicharry, 2017-12-13. In Running Rewired America's leading endurance sports physical therapist and coach shares a program for runners to become stronger, faster and more durable. Jay Dicharry distills cutting edge biomechanical research into 15 workouts any runner can slot into their training program to begin seeing real results in about 6 weeks. For better or worse your body drives your running form. Running Rewired will show you how to shed old injuries, mobility problems, weaknesses and imbalances and rewire your body's brain movement patterns. You'll rebuild your movement and transform your running within one season. Through his work with athletes at REP Lab and top university sports performance clinics, Dicharry has found that strength training alone is inadequate for runners. To develop the four essential movement skills required for faster, safer running, runners must practice better movement as they build strength. In Running Rewired you'll use 11 self-tests for joint mobility, posture, stability, rotation and alignment, 83 exercises to fix blocks, move with precision, build strength and improve power, 15 rewire workouts to amplify any training plan from 5K to ultramarathon. Dicharry's Running Rewired combines the best of real world coaching and a physical therapy approach to strength and mobility for better running. You'll find your personal best running form and become a faster, more durable runner.
