The Body and the Screen Kate Ince, 2017-01-12 Winner of the British Association of Film Television and Screen Studies Best Book Prize 2018 Since the 1980s the number of women regularly directing films has increased significantly in most Western countries in France Claire Denis and Catherine Breillat have joined Agnès Varda in gaining international renown while British directors Lynne Ramsay and Andrea Arnold have forged award winning careers in feature film This new volume in the Thinking Cinema series draws on feminist philosophers and theorists from Simone de Beauvoir on to offer readings of a range of the most important and memorable of these films from the 1990s and 2000s focusing as it does so on how the films convey women's lives and identities Mainstream entertainment cinema traditionally distorts the representation of women objectifying their bodies minimizing their agency and avoiding the most important questions about how cinema can do justice to female subjectivity Kate Ince suggests that the films of independent women directors are progressively redressing the balance reinvigorating both the narratives and the formal ambitions of European cinema Ince uses feminist philosophers to interpret such films as Sex Is Comedy Morvern Callar White Material and Fish Tank anew suggesting that a philosophical understanding of female subjectivity as embodied and ethical should underpin future feminist film study The Bookman, 1898 Bret Easton Ellis Naomi Mandel, 2011-01-20 Collection of new critical essays on Bret Easton Ellis focusing on his later novels American Psycho 1991 Glamorama 1999 and Lunar Park 2005 New York Magazine, 1985-02-18 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Literature's Children Louise Joy, 2019-02-21 Literature's Children offers a new way of thinking about how literature for children functions didactically It analyzes the nature of the practical critical activity which the child reader carries out emphasizing what the child does to the text rather than what he or she receives from it Through close readings of a range of works for children which have shaped our understanding of what children's literature entails including works by Isaac Watts John Newbery Kate Greenaway E Nesbit Kenneth Grahame J R R Tolkien and Malcolm Saville it demonstrates how the critical child resists the processes of idealization in operation in and through such texts Bringing into dialogue ideas from literary theory and the philosophy of education drawing in particular on the work of the philosopher John Dewey it provides a compelling new account of the complex relations between literary aesthetics and literary didacticism Publisher and Bookseller, 1893 Vols for 1871 76 1913 14 include an extra number The Christmas bookseller separately paged and not included in the consecutive numbering of the regular series Editor & Publisher, 1929 Cop Doc Daniel M Rudofossi, 2017-03-03 Cop Doc delivers a unique map of police psychology Retired NYPD sergeant Daniel Rudofossi delivers compelling inside scoops the first grade detective
