Academic Language in Diverse Classrooms: English Language Arts, Grades 6-8 Margo Gottlieb, Gisela Ernst-Slavit, 2013-09-23

Make every student fluent in the language of learning. Language has always been the center of English Language Arts but with most states adopting CCSS the focus on language and literacy across the content areas is required. Today it's more essential than ever that English language learners and proficient English learners have the supports to access and achieve the language of school. The Common Core and ELD standards provide pathways to academic success through academic language. Using an integrated Curricular Framework districts, schools, and professional learning communities can design and implement thematic units for learning. Draw from content and language standards to set targets for all students. Examine standards centered materials for academic language. Collaborate in planning instruction and assessment within and across lessons. Consider linguistic and cultural resources of the students. Create differentiated content and language objectives. Delve deeply into instructional strategies involving academic language. Reflect on teaching and learning. With dynamic classrooms and units of learning, this book gives you a streamlined path for designing and implementing curriculum that leads to student mastery of academic language, the key to school success. These volumes are packed with practical ideas that will help all teachers attend to language within their classrooms from the discourse level to word phrase levels. This is a road map for teaching Common Core content in language rich classrooms and hence a resource every teacher needs within arm's reach. It's all here and clearly presented, this is pure gold for everyone who teaches students to speak, listen, read, and write in school with special attention to English language learners. Tim Boals, Executive Director of WIDA.

Transforming Talk into Text—Argument Writing, Inquiry, and Discussion, Grades 6-12 Thomas M. McCann, 2014-05-23 Author Thomas McCann invites readers to rethink their approach to teaching writing by capitalizing on students' instinctive desire to talk. Drawing on extensive classroom research, he shows teachers how to craft class discussions that build students' skills of analysis, problem solving, and argumentation as a means of improving student writing. McCann demonstrates how authentic discussions immerse learners in practices that become important when they write. Chapters feature portraits of teachers at work, including transcripts that reveal patterns of talk across a set of lessons. Interviews with the teachers and samples of student writing afford readers a deeper understanding of process. Students also report on how classroom discussions supported their effort to produce persuasive, argument-driven essays. Book Features: A focus on the thinking behind the practice, as opposed to a collection of lesson ideas; Connections to important elements from the Common Core State Standards, especially arguments writing; Examples of students at work with examples of the writing that emerges from their discussions; Portraits of skilled teachers as they promote inquiry and sequence and facilitate discussions; Appendices with problem-based scenarios, interview questions for students and teachers, samples of debatable cases in the news, and more. In this important book, Tom McCann has given us not only the admonition to change, but the details about what effective change must be and what it looks like: evidence that it works effectively and details about how to bring it to pass. From the Foreword by George Hillocks Jr., Professor Emeritus, Department of English, University of Chicago. For a professional book to have an impact on the field, it needs to address a perceived need. Writing arguments for Common Core performance assessments is a HUGE need right now, that this book helps address. Carol Jago, associate director, California Reading and Literature Project, UCLA.
