

The background of the slide is a faded, high-angle photograph of a person wearing a white shirt and dark pants, working on a large, complex mechanical assembly. The person is positioned in the center-left, leaning over a large, circular component that resembles a gear or a large wheel. The overall scene is brightly lit, with a yellowish tint, suggesting an outdoor or well-lit industrial environment. The mechanical parts are metallic and have various bolts and structural elements visible.
