Integrating Health-Related Quality of Life in Neuro-Oncology Maria Teresa Pedro, Peter Hau, Carolin Weiss Lucas, Christine Jungk, Martina Messing-Jünger, 2025-04-25 Health Related Quality of Life HRQoL in neuro oncological patients is a complex and multifaceted area of study that intersects medicine and health It is influenced by a range of factors including physical emotional and cognitive aspects Despite the growing interest in this field driven by the concept of precision medicine the integration of HRQoL principles into everyday clinical decision making remains a challenge This is particularly true in the context of neuro oncological diseases and other life changing neurological impairments The need for a paradigm shift in clinical practice is evident as the current approach often overlooks the importance of maintaining patients general well being as emphasized in the revised Geneva Declaration of 2017 The primary objective of this research topic is to provide an integrative up to date overview of HRQoL in adult and pediatric patients with neuro oncological diseases This includes diseases affecting both the central and peripheral nervous system The research aims to shed light on the significant impact of diagnosis prognosis and potential toxicity of therapies on patients HRQoL and daily living activities It also seeks to explore the uneven integration of advances in radiation oncology immuno and chemotherapy advanced neuroimaging and neuromodulation into clinical practice The research will focus on the specific challenges of HRQoL in neuro oncological populations which have often been marginalized within the broader context of cancer

Needy Media Stephen Monteiro, 2025-10-16 What makes our portable networked personal media devices smartphones tablets smartwatches so irresistible Reacting to our touch voice or gaze seizing and keeping our attention with sounds vibrations and screen prompts these objects construct an animated intimacy that builds trust and emotional dependence Needy Media explores how features such as face recognition awareness sensors and touchscreens have developed and intersected tying them to key concepts of psychology language and the body Surveying products and practices across a half century Stephen Monteiro argues that the appeal is as much about how media devices behave as it is about the information they convey Monteiro traces a symbiotic overreliance a neediness between users and devices fostered by personalized aspects of digital materiality The physical and emotional bonds that emerge he argues not only cast our devices as loyal companions adaptable to our needs and idiosyncrasies they also facilitate the corporate harvesting of massive amounts of personal data in the name of making technology more friendly intuitive and individualized Raising important questions about privacy and power Needy Media seeks answers in the complex and sensitive relationship between interface and body a coupling that makes the networked object both an essential psychological presence and a lingering concern for our sense of self
