The Status of Student Involvement in University Governance in Kenya Mulinge, Munyae M., Arasa, Josephine N., 2017-05-05 This book examines the concept of the democratization of governance in universities in Kenya with particular emphasis on students involvement in governance processes and decision making Data were collected from members of the student community utilizing a structured self administered questionnaire and from purposively selected key informants and focus group discussants drawn from Kenyatta University representing the public sector and the United States International University representing the private sector The guiding argument for the study was that shared governance one of the principles of good governance is critical in enabling the universities to deliver their visions and the missions effectively The results revealed that while in principle Kenyan universities have embraced democratic governance in which all stakeholders including students have a role to play in practice they continue to violate the core principles of good governance particularly shared governance Specifically students who are major stakeholders in university education are largely excluded from significant structures of governance thereby limiting their influence and participation Although their representation is mainly provided via student self governance organs unions associations and or councils their effectiveness is undermined considerably by the lack of trust and confidence of the student body and the unending manipulation by top university administrators and external political actors Student active involvement in decision making is mainly confined to lower levels such as the school faculty and departmental programme The authors call for a paradigm shift in the involvement of students in the governance of universities in ways that discourage the current culture of tokenism and political correctness that characterizes public and private universities in Kenya The New Zealand University Calendar University of New Zealand, 1905 Quality Education and International Partnership for Textile and Fashion Xinfeng Yan, Lihong Chen, Hafeezullah Memon, 2023-07-02 This book mainly focuses on SDG4 Quality Education and aims to understand the past present and future of textile fashion apparel and related study majors of East African countries Professors and field experts in textile engineering of selected countries describe the potential and prospects of textile education and how it can lead to internationalization in the various chapters It also discusses the textile university alliance and the potential for international education related to textiles in the developing region With updated illustrations images data graphs and tables this book serves as a reference book for universities with textile engineering major in countries throughout the world Kenya Gazette, 2012-03-02 The Kenya Gazette is an official publication of the government of the Republic of Kenya It contains notices of new legislation notices required to be published by law or policy as well as other announcements that are published for general public information It is published every week usually on Friday with occasional releases of special or supplementary editions within the week Expanding Tertiary Education for Well-Paid Jobs Andreas Blom, Reehana Raza, Crispus Kiamba, Himdat Bayusuf, Mariam Adil, 2016-06-02 Expanding Tertiary education with quality relevance and equity is one of the most decisive challenges for Kenya's future including the achievement of the ideals of the 2010 Constitution and especially its 2030 vision which aims at transforming Kenya into a newly industrializing middle income globally competitive and prosperous country That is because tertiary education can contribute in a critical manner to successfully overcome several of the country's challenges This book provides analysis and policy recommendations to Government of Kenya tertiary education leaders and the many stakeholders on managing the massive tertiary education expansion facing the country This book first discusses the motivation for the analysis and its choice of three critical topics quality and relevance governance and student financing Secondly it reviews findings on each area and third it ends with a set of policy recommendations
