Rooms English Edition:

Ada's Room Sharon Dodua Otoo, 2023-03-28 A kaleidoscopic novel spanning generations and continents that reveals the connections between four women in their struggle for survival A woman in 15th century West Africa named Ada buries her child and confronts a Portuguese enslaver A woman in Victorian England named Ada Lovelace a mathematical genius and computer programming pioneer tries to hide her affair with Charles Dickens from her husband A woman named Ada imprisoned in a concentration camp at Mittelbau Dora in 1945 will survive one more day in enforced prostitution Connected by an unknown but sentient spirit and a bracelet of fertility beads that each Ada encounters at a pivotal moment in her life these women share a name and a purpose As their interwoven narratives converge on a modern day Ada a young Ghanaian woman who finds herself pregnant alone in Berlin searching for a home before her baby arrives their shared spirit will find a way to help her break the vicious cycle of injustice This novel is a feat of imagination and breaks down simplistic notions of history as a straight line one woman's experience matters to another's 400 years later on a different continent In this deeply moving at times mordantly funny ultimately hopeful book there is a connection between all those fighting for love for family for justice for a home
