

THE QUEEN'S COMMONWEALTH ESSAY COMPETITION 2022

Our Commonwealth

In 2022, on the occasion of her Platinum Jubilee year, Her Majesty The Queen will celebrate 70 years as Head of the Commonwealth.

The Queen's seven decades of service to the Commonwealth are an inspiring example of the steadfast commitment and important contribution we can all make to our societies.

The Queen's Commonwealth Essay Competition 2022 will ask entrants to explore the positive impact that can be achieved through dedication and selfless commitment to our Commonwealth.

TOP PRIZE

The top two winners from each category will be awarded with a trip to London for a week of educational and cultural events, culminating in a special Awards Ceremony at a royal palace.

AWARDS

All successful entries will receive a Certificate of Participation and a number of entrants will receive Gold, Silver and Bronze Awards for excellence in writing.

ROYAL COMMONWEALTH SOCIETY

The Queen's Commonwealth Essay Competition is supported by the Lagos State Government.

Commonwealth Air Forces Journal ,1942 The Empire's New Clothes Philip Murphy,2018-08-01 In the wake of Brexit the Commonwealth has been identified as an important body for future British trade and diplomacy but few know what it actually does How is it organized and what has held it together for so long How important is the Queen s role as Head of the Commonwealth Most importantly why has it had such a troubled recent past and is it realistic to imagine that its fortunes might be reversed In The Empire s New Clothes Murphy strips away the gilded self image of the Commonwealth to reveal an irrelevant institution afflicted by imperial amnesia He offers a personal perspective on this complex and poorly understood institution and asks if it can ever escape from the shadow of the British Empire to become an organization based on shared values rather than a shared history Peace and Democratic Society Amartya Sen,2011 Civil Paths to Peace contains the analyses and findings of the Commonwealth Commission on Respect and Understanding established in response to the 2005 request of Commonwealth Head of Government for the Commonwealth Secretary General to explore initiatives to promote mutual understanding and respect among all faiths and communities in the Commonwealth This report focuses particularly on the issues of terrorism extremism conflict and violence which are much in ascendancy and afflict Commonwealth countries as well as the rest of the world It argues that cultivating respect and understanding is both important in itself and consequential in reducing violence and terrorism It further argues that cultivated violence is generated through fomenting disrespect and fostering confrontational misunderstandings The report looks at the mechanisms through which violence is cultivated through advocacy and recruitment and the pre existing inequalities deprivations and humiliations on which those advocacies draw These diagnoses also clear the way for methods of countering disaffection and violence In various chapters the different connections are explored and examined to yield general policy recommendations Accepting diversity respecting all human beings and understanding the richness of perspectives that people have are of great relevance for all Commonwealth countries and for its 1.8 billion people They are also important for the rest of the world The civil paths to peace are presented here for use both inside the Commonwealth and beyond its boundaries The Commonwealth has survived and flourished despite the hostilities associated with past colonial history through the use of a number of far sighted guiding principles The Commission argues that those principles have continuing relevance today for the future of the Commonwealth and also for the world at large
