Rood rubber Daniël Vangroenweghe, 2020 Rood rubber Daniel Vangroenweghe, 2004 Rood rubber Daniel Vangroenweghe, 1985 Rood rubber Daniel Vangroenweghe, 2020-09-08 In Rood rubber bracht Daniel Vangroenweghe vijftig jaar geleden de wandaden van de Belgische vorst aan het licht Na jarenlang onderzoek onthulde hij hoe de exploitatie van rubber en ivoor in Congo stelselmatig gepaard ging met gruweldaden dwangarbeid en terreur Een genadeloos systeem van uitbuiting waar Leopold II volledig van op de hoogte was en waarvan de gevolgen voelbaar zijn tot op de dag van vandaag Belgium and the Congo, 1885-1980 Guy Vanthemsche, 2012-04-30 This book explains how and why Belgium a small but influential European country was changed through its colonial activities in the Congo from the first expeditions in 1880 to the Mobutu regime in the 1980s Belgian politics diplomacy economic activity and culture were influenced by the imperial experience Belgium and the Congo 1885 1980 yields a better understanding of the Congo s past and present

Commodity Frontiers and Global Capitalist Expansion Sabrina Joseph, 2019-06-19 This interdisciplinary edited collection explores the dynamics of global capitalist expansion through the concept of the commodity frontier Applying an inductive approach rather than starting at the global level as most meta narratives have done this book sheds light on how local dynamics have shaped the process of capitalist expansion into uncommodified spaces Contributors demonstrate that ultimately the evolution of frontier zones and their reconfiguration over time have transformed human ecology labour relations and social economic and political structures across the globe Chapters examine agricultural and pastoral frontiers natural habitats and commodity frontiers with fossil fuels and mineral resources located in various regions of the world including South America Asia Africa and the Arabian Gulf The Postcolonial Low Countries Elleke Boehmer, Sarah De Mul, 2012-06-01 The Postcolonial Low Countries is the first book to bring together critical and comparative approaches to the emergent field of neerlandophone postcolonial studies The collection of essays ranges across the cultures and literatures of the Netherlands and Belgium and establishes an encounter between postcolonial theoretical discourses from both within and without the region Each one of the contributions puts under pressure the definitive concepts of postcolonial studies in its more conventional anglophone or francophone formation as well as perceptions of the Low Countries Belgium and the Netherlands as lying outside or to the side of the postcolonial domain In the Low Countries local and regional issues concerning multiculturalism and colonial belatedness have raised important questions about the possible grounds on which postcolonial critical concepts might be not only translated but also generated afresh to suit these paradoxically new contexts As The Postcolonial Low Countries incisively demonstrates the Low Countries demand a careful rearticulation of such postcolonial readymades as hybridity accommodation and creolization Gathering together contributions from both internationally renowned scholars and newly established researchers in the field The Postcolonial Low Countries maps previously underexplored national and transnational literary critical trajectories The book challenges in boundary shifting ways current readings of the so described multicultural and postcolonial Netherlands and Belgium The Leopard, the Lion, and the Cock Matthew Stanard, 2019-04-15 Thought provoking reflection on culture colonialism and the remainders of empire in Belgium after 1960 The degree to which the late colonial era affected Europe has been long underappreciated and only recently have European countries started to acknowledge not having come to terms with decolonisation In Belgium the past two decades have witnessed a growing awareness of the controversial episodes in the country s colonial past This volume examines the long term effects and legacies of the colonial era on Belgium after 1960 the year the Congo gained its independence and calls into question memories of the colonial past by focusing on the meaning and place of colonial monuments in public space The book foregrounds the enduring presence of empire in everyday Belgian life in the form of permanent colonial markers in bronze and stone lieux de m moire of the country s history of overseas expansion By means of photographs and explanations of major pro colonial memorials as well as several obscure ones the book reveals the surprising degree to which Belgium became infused with a colonialist spirit during the colonial era Another key component of the analysis is an account of the varied ways in which both Dutch and French speaking Belgians approached the colonial past after 1960 treating memorials variously as objects of veneration with indifference or as symbols to be attacked or torn down The book provides a thought provoking reflection on culture colonialism and the remainders of empire in Belgium after 1960

The age of internationalism and Belgium, 1880-1930 Daniel Laqua, 2015-07-01 Belgium was a major hub for transnational movements By taking this small and yet significant European country as a focal point the book critically examines major issues in modern history including nationalism colonial expansion debates on the nature of international relations and campaigns for political and social equality Now available in paperback this study explores an age in which many groups and communities from socialists to scientists organised themselves across national borders The timeframe covers the rise of international movements and associations before the First World War the conflagration of 1914 and the emergence of new actors such as the League of Nations The book acknowledges the changing framework for transnational activism including its interplay with domestic politics and international institutions By tracing international movements and ideas the book aims to reveal and explain the multifarious and sometimes contradictory nature of internationalism

Anatomy of a Fatal Fire Marc Coenen, 2024-02-09 In Anatomy of a Fatal Fire What Have I Done Wrong Marc Coenen explores the conscious and unconscious ways our brain processes information on a fireground Following a fatal fire in Beringen Coenen had to face the fire s lasting impact He began devouring works of philosophers of science historians geneticists molecular neurobiologists behavioral biologists and psychologists that deal with the various aspects of decision making under time pressure One way or the other this fire office had to make sense of that tragic fire and uncover its anatomy Understanding how our predictive brain operates in normal circumstances is important but knowing how it works under challenging conditions is critical for everyone as actions thoughts and feelings are directed by the unconscious more

Čeginskas, Sigrid Kaasik-Krogerus, Nina Sääskilahti, 2021-11-29 This book provides novel and critical insights into the complex relationship between politics of memory and oblivion in European countries in the 20th and early 21st centuries as well as the cultural political and institutional backgrounds against which they function It explores the uses of the past in terms of a conscious choice to either reactivate or overlook memories as selective reference points for the promotion and legitimation of contemporary political goals The chapters of this volume bring together theoretical discussions on the interrelationship between remembrance and purposeful oblivion as active processes that serve particular interests and ideologies in the present By addressing the diverse meanings given to practices of memory the contributions offer new perspectives on how institutions shape cultural memory power relations and identity projects Politics of Memory and Oblivion in the European Context Critical Perspectives will be of interest to scholars and graduate students from the fields of memory studies heritage studies cultural studies history and political science who engage with the legacies of violent and traumatic pasts post colonial contexts societal transition and reconciliation The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal European Politics and Society

Contemporary Approaches to Commemorative Public Art Brenda Schmahmann, 2025-06-12 In this collection a diverse range of international contributors examine commemorative monuments from the late twentieth and twenty first centuries The book reveals how those monuments enable new perspectives and understanding of histories as well as a heightened involvement of viewers through not simply their subject matter but also most crucially their actual form and design While some contributors explore new approaches to the art of commemoration that artists and designers have deployed in recent monuments others examine how artists have undertaken creative engagements with historical statuary and sites using these interventions to offer critique and commentary Additionally the contributions consider the impact of political change on ways in which an inherited commemorative landscape is interpreted and negotiated Questions considered by the contributions include How might new monuments be shaped and how might they function differently from those of the past Is there a place for portraiture in the contemporary commemorative landscape Should commemorative monuments be envisaged as permanent fixtures or are temporary approaches more viable How effectively have artists disrupted the meanings of historical monuments and sites through installation performance video and other media How has political change played out at historical sites affecting how commemorative monuments from prior dispensations are understood in the 2020s This collection will be of value to researchers in Art History Visual Studies and Heritage Studies as well as scholars in all disciplines and fields who are interested in public art public memory and the politics of commemoration Mijn 'waarheid' over Leopold II Marcel Yabili, 2020 De controversiële figuur van Leopold II werd gecreëerd door Angelsaksen die hem uit Congo weg wilden Een eeuw later verwijten Belgen hem dezelfde misdaden tegen de Congolezen In tegenstelling tot in Belgi

wordt Leopold II niet echt belaagd in Congo Lumumba sprak zelfs over hem als een geniale koning bouwheer Hoe valt dat te rijmen Deze paradox wekte de nieuwsgierigheid van een Congolees jurist die op onderzoek uitging V r hem had niemand zich over de officiële documenten gebogen Vrijstaat vacante gronden handelsmaatschappijen dwangarbeid chicotte afgehakte handen ontvolking rubber koninklijk fortuin Dat alles wordt stap voor stap ontrafeld in een onderzoek dat nepnieuws aan het licht brengt en de vooroordelen weerlegt De waarheid over Congo komt zoals het hoort uit Congo zelf

Church, State and Colonialism in Southeastern Congo, 1890-1962 Reuben A. Loffman, 2019-05-23 This book examines the relationship between Catholic missionaries and the colonial administration in southeastern Belgian Congo It challenges the perception that the Church and the state worked seamlessly together Instead using the territory of Kongolo as a case study the book reconfigures their relationship as one of competitive co dependency Based on extensive archival research and oral histories the book argues that both institutions retained distinct agendas that while coinciding during certain periods clashed on many occasions The study begins by outlining the pre colonial history of southeastern Congo The second chapter examines how the Church began its encounters with the peoples in Kongolo and the Tanganyika province of the Democratic Republic of the Congo Subsequent chapters highlight how missionaries exerted significant influence over the colonial construction of chieftainship and the politics of Congolese decolonization The book ends in 1962 with the massacre of a number of Holy Ghost Fathers in an event that signaled the beginning of a more Africanized Church in Kongolo The author gratefully acknowledges support from the Economic and Social Research Council in the completion of this project

Rethinking the History of Empire William Gallois, 2020-05-21 This book forms part of the scholarly rejection of the experts of empire and calls for us to centre our understanding of colonial praxis upon the lives of the colonised peoples of the past and the present Western publics are constantly being told by experts that they ought to rethink the history of empire They are told that their presumed guilt regarding their countries imperial pasts can be assuaged if people were only able to deploy a balanced scorecard they would then recognise that imperialists brought roads as well as death schools as well as national borders and hospitals as well as racialised forms of ethnic conflict Building around an essay by the Algerian writer Hosni Kitouni here translated into English for the first time this book shows how the genre and forms of imperial history mirror the actions of colonists and the documents they left behind erasing the suffering of indigenous people and the after effects of empire which last into the present and will continue into the future This book was originally published as a special issue of Rethinking History

Censorship of Historical Thought Antoon De Baets, 2001-12-30 History is an important dangerous and fragile subject Historical thought can be censored in widely diverging political and historiographical contexts as historians are well aware Yet the problems of censorship often thought to be obvious are rarely studied Filling a significant void this guide supplies information on the censorship of historical thought and the fate of persecuted historians in over 130 countries from Afghanistan to Zimbabwe and from 1945 to 2000 With each entry providing a chronological overview of cases and giving a full listing of sources the book is the first systematic effort to overview the repression of historical thought Aiming to encompass all countries in which censorship and persecution have taken place De Baets sketches a world map of repression that goes beyond the well known and well studied cases It assembles scattered data from three types of sources the works of censors and censored historical and biographical dictionaries and historiographical surveys and reports from international human rights organizations Showing the universality of historical censorship and its infinite variety in amount and degree the book also provides a basis for further comparative research

Death in the Congo Emmanuel Gerard, Bruce Kuklick, 2015-02-10 More than 50 years later the murky circumstances and tragic symbolism of Patrice Lumumba's assassination trouble people around the world Emmanuel Gerard and Bruce Kuklick reveal a tangled web of international politics in which many people black and white well meaning or ruthless African European and American bear responsibility for this crime

A Throne in Brussels Paul Belien, 2014-03-10 Offers a history of the monarchy of Belgium a country artificially created in 1817 This book argues that the pan European super state resembles a Greater Belgium rather than a Greater Switzerland

Activism across Borders since 1870 Daniel Laqua, 2023-08-10 From the Occupy protests to the Black Lives Matter movement and school strikes for climate action the twenty first century has been rife with activism Although very different from one another each of these movements has created alliances across borders with activists stressing that their concerns are not confined to individual nation states In this book Daniel Laqua shows that global efforts of this kind are not a recent phenomenon and that as long as there have been borders activists have sought to cross them Activism Across Borders since 1870 explores how individuals groups and organisations have fostered bonds in their quest for political and social change and considers the impact of national and ideological boundaries on their efforts Focusing on Europe but with a global outlook the book acknowledges the importance of imperial and postcolonial settings for groups and individuals that expressed far reaching ambitions From feminism and socialism to anti war campaigns and green politics this book approaches transnational activism with an emphasis on four features connectedness ambivalence transience and marginality In doing so it demonstrates the intertwined nature of different movements problematizes transnational action discusses the temporary nature of some alliances and shows how transnationalism has been used by those marginalized at the national level With a broad chronological perspective and thematic chapters it provides historical context clarifies terms and concepts and offers an alternative history of modern Europe through the lens of activists movements and campaigns
