Hunting Nature Thomas P. Hodge, 2020-10-15 In Hunting Nature Thomas P Hodge explores Ivan Turgenev's relationship to nature through his conception description and practice of hunting the most unquenchable passion of his life Informed by an ecocritical perspective Hodge takes an approach that is equal parts interpretive and documentarian grounding his observations thoroughly in Russian cultural and linguistic context and a wide range of Turgenev's fiction poetry correspondence and other writings Included within the book are some of Turgenev's important writings on nature never previously translated into English Turgenev who is traditionally identified as a chronicler of Russia's ideological struggles is presented in Hunting Nature as an expert naturalist whose intimate knowledge of flora and fauna deeply informed his view of philosophy politics and the role of literature in society Ultimately Hodge argues that we stand to learn a great deal about Turgenev's thought and complex literary technique when we read him in both cultural and environmental contexts Hodge details how Turgenev remains mindful of the way textual detail is wedded to the organic world the priroda that he observed and ached for more keenly than perhaps any other Russian writer

Following the Animal Ann-Sofie Lönngren, 2015-09-10 Literary transformations from human to animal have occurred in myths folklore fairy tales and narratives from all over the world since ancient times and have always provided a narrative space for depictions of power agency and the radical nature of change In Following the Animal these transformations are analysed with regards to their use in modern literature from northern most Europe with specific attention being paid to the insights they provide regarding the human animal relationship both generally in the industrialized West and against the background of more specific circumstances in the Nordic area In three analytic chapters focusing respectively on Swedish author August Strindberg s novel Tschandala 1887 Finnish author Aino Kallas s novel The Wolf s Bride 1928 and Danish author Karen Blixen Isak Dinesen s short story The Monkey 1934 along with discussions of a range of other authors and texts the reader is introduced to several traditions of literary production that both connect to and differ from Anglophone and other literature in fascinating ways In addition to the insights it provides concerning the uses of human animal transformations in modern Nordic literature and their significance in relation to the question of the animal Following the Animal also offers literary scholars and students alike a series of useable and transferable strategies for approaching texts from a more than anthropocentric human animal studies perspective In phrasing and employing the interpretational method of following the animal over the text s surface up metaphorical elevations down material wormholes and in constant dialogue with previous research this book contributes greatly to both human animal literary studies specifically and to the field of literary scholarship generally in both an international and northern European context

Cat People: Human-Cat Interrelatedness in the Cat Fancy Emily Stone, 2022-07-31 This book examines the social world of the cat fancy or the leisure activity of breeding and exhibiting pedigree cats Based on multispecies ethnographic fieldwork and interviews in the United Kingdom it explores the process and performance of exhibiting cats at shows the breeding practices and discourses integral to the creation of pedigree breeds and the relations that these practices generate between human guardians the pedigree cat population and non pedigree cats Through observation with cat fanciers and their interactions with their cats the author investigates the social dynamics and relationships that form within the fancy considering the interconnections between biopower and eugenics in pedigree breeding the practices of pet keeping and the complexities of more than human care and the implications of involvement for the cats themselves As such Cat People: Human Cat Interrelatedness in the Cat Fancy will appeal to scholars from across the social sciences and humanities interested in human animal interactions multispecies leisure anthrozoology and more than human care

Animals and Greek Cinema Nikitas Fessas, 2025-05-02 This book offers a non anthropocentric account of a national cinema Drawing on cutting edge developments in Animal film studies the book gathers a wide range of species and genres to discuss the Greek cinematic animal This entails recalibrating the readers viewers gazes to include particular nonhumans often displaced in the frame s margins While acknowledging the cost paid in animal suffering for Greek cinema to rise the book features instances of animal human bonding Combining close readings with interviews with directors human actors screenwriters cinematographers producers special effects artists and animal wranglers this book proposes a paradigm of human animal praxis arguing that revisiting nonhuman images can lead to renewed ethical relations and to less speciesist cinemas film industries and societies Queer Ecopedagogies Joshua Russell, 2021-04-09 This volume builds on the momentum surrounding queer work within environmental education while also encouraging new connections between environmental education research and the growing bodies of literature dedicated to queer deconstructions of categories such as nature environment and animal The book is composed of submissions that engage with existing literature from queer ecology queer theory and various explorations of sexuality and gender within the context of human animal nature relationships The book deepens and diversifies environmental education by providing new theoretical and methodological insights for scholarship and practice across a variety of educational contexts Queer pedagogies provide important critical points of view for educators who seek broader goals centred around social and ecological justice by encouraging counter hegemonic views of bodies nature and community The scope of this book is multi or interdisciplinary in order to cast a wide net around what kinds of spaces relationships and practices are considered educational pedagogical or curricular The volume includes chapters that are conceptual theoretical and empirical Animals in International Law Anne Peters, 2021-05-25 The plight of animal individuals and species inflicted on them by human activity is a global problem with detrimental repercussions for all humans and for the entire planet This book gives an overview of the most important international legal regimes that directly address and indirectly affect animals It covers species conservation treaties notably the international whaling regime the farm animal protection rules of the EU international trade law and the international law of armed conflict It also analyses the potential for an international regime of animal rights Finding that international law creates more harm than good for animals the author suggests progressive treaty interpretation treaty making and animal interest representation to close the animal welfare gap in international law A body of global animal law needs to be developed accompanied by critical global animal studies Animal Genocide and its Aftermath Nicholas Chare, 2025-09-01 In this exacting assessment of the bounty policies enacted against the Tasmanian Tiger and the Newfoundland Wolf Animal Genocide and its Aftermath provides a much needed reappraisal of the legal political and social definition of animal killing Analyzing natural history collections and cultural representations this book advances a compelling case for viewing the bounty schemes as a form of genocide that requires its own historical reckoning Ethical issues regarding the evocation of animal genocide in film literature photography and museum exhibitions are also explored Animal Life and the Moving Image Michael Lawrence, Laura McMahon, 2019-07-25 From the proto cinematic sequencing of animal motion in the nineteenth century to the ubiquity of animal videos online the histories of animal life and the moving image are enigmatically interlocked Animal Life and the Moving Image is the first collection of essays to offer a sustained focus on the relations between screen cultures and non human animals The volume brings together some of the most important and influential writers working on the non human animal s significance for cultures and theories of the moving image It offers innovative analyses of the representation of animals across a wide range of documentary fiction mainstream and avant garde practices from early cinema to contemporary user generated media Individual chapters consider King Kong The Birds The Misfits The Cove Grizzly Man and Microcosmos the work of Sergei Eisenstein Robert Bresson Malcolm Le Grice Peter Greenaway Carolee Schneemann and Isabella Rossellini and YouTube stars Christian the lion and Maru the cat

Undoing Human Supremacy Simon Springer, Jennifer Mateer, Martin Locret-Collet, Maleea Acker, 2021-10-15 The Earth is in crisis We know this We have known this for a long time In the throes of the unfolding nightmare we call capitalism it is not hard to see and hear the violence that is being enacted against the planet If we are to move beyond the idea that humanity is tasked with expressing our dominion over nature and towards a renewed integral understanding of humanity as firmly located within the biosphere as an anarchist political ecology demands then we have to start interrogating the privileges hierarchies and human centric frames that guide our ways of knowing and being in the world This volume centers around the idea that anarchism as a conceptual framework encourages us to contend with the multiple lines of difference the various iterations of privilege and the manifold set of archies that undergird our understandings of the world and crucially our place within it

Mourning Animals Margo DeMello, 2016-08-01 We live more intimately with nonhuman animals than ever before in history The change in the way we cohabitate with animals can be seen in the way we treat them when they die There is an almost infinite variety of ways to help us cope with the loss of our nonhuman friends from burial cremation and taxidermy to wearing or displaying the remains ashes fur or other parts of our deceased animals in jewelry tattoos or other artwork to counselors who specialize in helping people mourn pets to classes for veterinarians to tips to help the surviving animals who are grieving their animal friends to pet psychics and memorial websites But the reality is that these practices and related beliefs about animal souls or animal afterlife generally only extend with very few exceptions to certain kinds of animals pets Most animals in most cultures are not mourned and the question of an animal afterlife is not contemplated at all Mourning Animals investigates how we mourn animal deaths which animals are grievable and what the implications are for all animals

Murdering Animals Piers Beirne, 2018-03-12 Murdering Animals confronts the speciesism underlying the disparate social censures of homicide and theriocide the killing of animals by humans and as such is a plea to take animal rights seriously Its substantive topics include the criminal prosecution and execution of justiciable animals in early modern Europe images of hunters put on trial by their prey in the upside down world of the Dutch Golden Age the artist William Hogarth s patriotic depictions of animals in 18th Century London and the playwright J M Synge s representation of parricide in fin de si cle Ireland Combining insights from intellectual history the history of the fine and performing arts and what is known about today s invisibilised sites of animal killing Murdering Animals inevitably asks should theriocide be considered murder With its strong multi and interdisciplinary approach this work of collaboration will appeal to scholars of social and species justice in animal studies criminology sociology and law
