Peace Skills Manual For Community Mediators:

Peace Skills Ronald S. Kraybill, 2001-03-02 Part of the Peace Skills Set this Manual is designed as a take home resource to support workshop participants as they return to their communities and both apply their mediation skills and share their insights with others. It covers conflict analysis, the role of mediation, the stages of mediation, communication skills, and working with group conflicts and in cross cultural settings.

The Church-as-family and Ethnocentrism in Sub-Saharan Africa Gerald K. Tanye, 2010 Ethnocentrism is one of the greatest obstacles to peace on the African continent. Taking the Church as Family of God as a model of evangelization, this work explores means of inculturating the Gospel message in African cultures in order to transform them, make them blossom, and enable Africans to live as authentic Christians in their cultures. It examines the values of African extended families and the prospects of interreligious dialogue as means through which the various religious bodies can effectively work together to overcome ethnocentrism and its evil effects and thus establish a wholesome African society where every human person is at home irrespective of family orientation or tribal background.

Love Letter to a Conflicted Church Richard P. Olson, 2010-01-01 The book is organized into three divisions and as the title implies, there is a brief letter in the form of a New Testament epistle to the contemporary church, a portion of which begins each chapter. The first division reexamines the gifts and redemptive possibilities of anger and conflict. The barriers to healthy anger conflict are considered and addressed. In the second, attention is given to conflicts surrounding the Bible. There is a chapter on conflict and reconciliation in the Bible followed by suggestions on how people who read the Bible differently from each other can resolve some of those differences. Consideration is also given to discovering biblical priorities for the contemporary church. The third division offers vistas of change and reconciliation. Parables of hope and promise are provided. Insights from the studies of persons and communities as well as ethics and theology are summarized. There is reflection on those unresolved conflicts that continue in spite of our best efforts. Then moral imagination is engaged to visualize the opportunities for a church that moves beyond its present stalemates.

Brief Dramas for Worship Brenda M. Newman, Karen F. Miller, 2005-09-01 Brief Dramas for Worship provides dramas that are suitable for both contemporary and traditional worship services. They are appropriate for use instead of a sermon or as the sermon. Included are questions and comments to use in a discussion following the service so that key insights from the biblical drama can be emphasized. The scripts do NOT require memorization. Each drama includes extensive helps which identify possible sets, simple costumes, and a detailed worship outline including hymn and praise song suggestions, original prayers, etc. These production notes provide effective professional presentation instructions. Permission is granted to reproduce scripts for use in congregational settings. Most of these biblically based dramas offer a woman's point of view about a scripture story or a scripture message. Some of the main characters are biblical people and others are contemporary people. Dramas include: The Bethlehem Child, Margaret a Grieving Mother Yearns for Her Wayward Son, Hosea 11:1, Bath Sheba and David, Lydia, Pilate's Wife, Martha, Prescription for

Peace Caroline A Waitress Receives the Living Water Eli s Wife A Husband s Tale Brings Hope for Peace and Mattie May A Mountain Woman s Tale of Gracious Plenty The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser,2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story Justpeace Ethics Jarem Sawatsky,2009-01-01 People too often enter into conflict with an eye on how to resolve manage or transform it thereby losing sight of the people involved and the end desired Justice and peace too often serve as abstract ideals or distant shores We have not yet learned enough about how these ends can also be the means of conflict resolution Drawing on the imaginations of some leading peace and restorative justice practitioners Justpeace Ethics identifies components of a justpeace imagination the basis of an alternative ethics where the end is touched with each step In this simple companion to justpeace ethics Jarem Sawatsky helps those struggling with how to respond to conflict and violence in both just and peaceful ways He offers practical examples of how analysis intervention and evaluation can be rooted in a justpeace imagination Conflict Transformation and Religion Ellen Ott Marshall,2016-08-08 Writing from a variety of contexts the contributors to this volume describe the ways that conflict and their efforts to engage it constructively shape their work in classrooms and communities Each chapter begins with a different experience of conflict a physical confrontation shooting and killing ethnic violence a hate crime overt and covert racism structural violence interpersonal conflict in a family and the marginalization of youth The authors employ a variety of theoretical and practical responses to conflict highlighting the role that faith power and relationships play in processes of transformation As these teachers and ministers engage conflict constructively they put forward novel approaches toward teaching training care solidarity and advocacy Their stories demonstrate how conflict can serve as a site for positive change and transformation Spiritual Being and Becoming Eric J Kyle,2017-05-25 As many as 100 billion neurons make up the human nervous system a system that is incredibly complex and a fundamental part of what makes us who we are But there is far more to human beings than biology Many academic disciplines study the human condition and there are many schools of thought within that study We must also appreciate that the study of human nature did not begin in contemporary times History is full of texts that offer detailed explorations of the human condition However no consensus has yet emerged Consensus or not those working towards religious and spiritual formation pursue the transformation of their communities This book offers a fuller understanding of some of the common views of human nature and also insights into how we might utilise this knowledge in our ministries ministries that strive towards the spiritual being and becoming of our world Brave Talk Melody Stanford Martin,2020-09-22 When we disagree about fundamental issues especially issues such as politics or religion it can be incredibly difficult to maintain close interpersonal relationships These differences have ended friendships and caused rifts in families We need a tool to help us build more resilient relationships despite real and present differences In Brave Talk communications expert Melody Stanford Martin offers just such a tool impasse By learning to treat every conflict as if it s an impasse and temporarily suspend our desire to resolve differences we make space for deeper understanding and stronger ties Brave Talk offers hands on skill building in critical thinking power sharing and rhetoric Combining real life storytelling engaging illustrations and rigorous academic sources this book blends humor creativity and interactive learning to help everyday people develop better skills for navigating conflict in order to build stronger relationships and healthier communities Introduction to Christian Ethics Ellen Ott Marshall,2018-10-30 All Christians read the Bible differently pray differently value their traditions differently and give different weight to individual and corporate judgment These differences are the basis of conflict The question Christian ethics must answer then is What does the good life look like in the context of conflict In this new introductory text Ellen Ott Marshall uses the inevitable reality of difference to center and organize her exploration of the system of Christian morality What can we learn from Jesus creative use of conflict in situations that were especially attuned to questions of power What does the image of God look like when we are trying to recognize the divine image within those with whom we are in conflict How can we better explore and understand the complicated work of reconciliation and justice This innovative approach to Christian ethics will benefit a new generation of students who wish to engage the perennial questions of what constitutes a faithful Christian life and a just society Leading Through Conflict Mark Gerzon,2006-05-08 As our world grows smaller opportunities for conflict multiply Ethnic religious political and personal differences drive people apart with potentially disastrous consequences and it s the task of perceptive leaders to bring them together again World renowned mediation expert Mark Gerzon argues that leaders have failed to rise to this challenge Our organisations schools and governments remain filled with divisive dictators and everyday managers instead of what he calls mediators leaders who transform conflict so that everyone can move forward together Through absorbing examples drawn from decades of work with organisational political and global conflicts of all kinds Leading Through Conflict provides a powerful new framework for the leader as mediator and outlines eight specific tools these leaders use to transform seemingly intractable differences into progress on deep seated problems Both practical and passionate this book makes the tools of cross border leaders accessible to anyone who wants to help create healthier companies communities and countries Violence, Religion, Peacemaking Douglas Irvin-Erickson,Peter C.

Phan,2016-09-09 This volume explores how religious leaders can contribute to cultures of peace around the world The essays are written by leading and emerging scholars and practitioners who have lived taught or worked in the areas of conflict about which they write Connecting the theory and practice of religious peacebuilding to illuminate key challenges facing interreligious dialogue and interreligious peace work the volume is explicitly interreligious intercultural and global in perspective The chapters approach religion and peace from the vantage point of security studies sociology ethics ecology theology and philosophy A foreword by David Smock the Vice President of Governance Law and Society and Director of the Religion and Peacebuilding Center at the United States Institute of Peace outlines the current state of the field Love at
