Re: Peach Blossom Cologne Company

Dear Sir or Madam:

By letter dated January 4, 2010, Mr. Lawrence Lancaster of Peach Blossom Cologne Company (The "Company") has requested us to furnish you with certain information in connection with your examination of the accounts of the Company as of December 31, 2009. While this firm represents the Company on a regular basis, our engagement has been limited to specific matters as to which we were consulted by the Company.

Subject to the foregoing and to the last paragraph of this letter we advise you that since January 1, 2009 we have not been engaged to give substantive attention to, or represent the Company in connection with material loss contingencies coming within the scope of clause (a) of Paragraph 5 of the Statement of Policy referred to in the last paragraph of this letter.

We are responding to an action that has been initiated against Peach Blossom Cologne Company alleging injury due to defective products. The action, Ersham v. Peach Blossom Cologne Company, is not in litigation. Investigation, preparation, including development of the factual data and legal research and progress of the matter have reached a stage whereby an assessment can be made, taking all relevant factors into account that may affect the outcome. Although the litigation is being defended vigorously and the Company has meritorious defenses, we are of the opinion that the plaintiff will likely prevail in this action, and it is extremely doubtful that the Company will prevail. As to the amount of potential loss, total costs and damages that might ultimately be assessed against the Company will be much less than the $100,000 damages claimed by the plaintiff. However, at this time the amount is not susceptible of reasonable estimation.
