Illustrated throughout with ideas and practical examples of how to update your curriculum easily and effectively, key topics covered include: Understanding curriculum theory and development; Auditing and developing your own dynamic interactive curriculum; Critiquing textbooks and resources to ensure relevance; Constructing and analysing schemes of work; Incorporating the latest developments in the field into your teaching; How to create innovative, enduring curricula for human, physical, and environmental geographies; Providing insights into the latest thinking in geography in a concise and accessible manner. Effective Innovation in the Secondary Geography Curriculum will ensure motivating, lively, and successful geography teaching and learning.

Social Work and the Environment Michael Kim Zapf, 2009 This ground-breaking new work provides a detailed and extensive comparison of how the physical environment has been conceptualized in social work and other professions and offers a new and attractive foundational metaphor for social work. The author acknowledges the need for greater awareness and action regarding environmental impacts and the book promotes more comprehensive notions of responsibility identity and stewardship that lead to a dynamic metaphor of people as place as the foundation for relevant social work practice in the early 21st century Why is that a profession with a declared focus on person in environment has been so silent on the environmental crisis Mainstream social work theory has narrowed the understanding of environment to include merely the social environment but this approach is no longer sufficient for participation in multi disciplinary efforts to tackle urgent environmental issues Transformative notions of responsibility identity and stewardship have been developed on the fringes of our professional community rural remote social workers Aboriginal social workers and international and spiritual social workers They must now move to the core of the profession The Pearson General Studies Manual 2009, 1/e Showick Thorpe Edgar Thorpe,2009 This latest edition of The Pearson General Studies Manual continues to provide exhaustive study material for the General Studies paper of the UPSC Civil Services Preliminary Examination This student friendly book has been completely revised thoroughly updated and carefully streamlined and is strictly exam centric In this new edition a large number of new boxes and marginalia with additional and relevant information have been added to provide cutting edge information to the aspirant Readers will find that important facts and information have been presented in the form of well structured tables and lists Current Literature ,1921 Ireland's Heritages Mark McCarthy,2017-09-29 This book is the first sustained attempt to incorporate critical scholarship and thought at the cutting edge of contemporary geography history and archaeology into the burgeoning field of Irish heritage studies It seeks to illustrate the validity of multiple depictions of the Irish past showing how scrutiny of heritage practices and meanings is so essential for illuminating our understanding of the present Examining Ireland s heritages from a critical perspective that celebrates notions of heterogeneity and uniqueness the distinguished contributors to this book scrutinise the multiplicity of complex relations between heritage history memory commemoration economy and cultural identity within various historical geographical and archaeological contexts Using several examples and case studies this book raises issues not only from a uniquely Irish perspective but also investigates the memorialisation and marketing of the Irish past in overseas locations such as the USA and Australia Automated and Autonomous Spatial Mobilities Aharon Kellerman,2018-02-23 This ground breaking book explores a rapidly developing aspect of contemporary life automated and autonomous spatial mobilities and their social and urban implications Presenting a wide ranging discussion on autonomous vehicle AV development and its future adoption this highly topical book points to the emergence of autonomously mobile cities and the new mobility landscapes they will present Academics as well as practitioners in the fields of mobility transportation urban planning geography and sociology will find this an essential read Housing in America Marijoan Bull,Alina Gross,2022-12-30 Housing is a fundamental need and universal part of human living that shapes our lives in profound ways that go far beyond basic sheltering Where we live can determine our self image social status health and safety quality of public services access to jobs and transportation options But the reality for many in America is that housing choices are constrained costs are unaffordable discriminatory practices remain and physical features do not align with needs We have made a national commitment to decent housing for all yet this promise remains unrealized Housing in America provides a broad overview of the field of housing The evolution of housing norms and policy is explored in a historical context while underscoring the human and cultural dimensions of housing program choices Specific topics covered include why housing matters housing and culture housing frameworks and political ideologies housing and opportunities housing and the economy housing discrimination housing affordability rental housing and housing and climate change Readers will gain an understanding of the basic debates within the field of housing consider the motivations and performance of various interventions and critically examine persistent patterns of racial and class inequality With short case studies primary source materials reflective exercises strong visuals and interviews with practitioners this introductory text explores improving housing choices in America
