

Guided reading worksheet

Chapter 19

Issues

Give each of the following statements a score from 0 (I totally disagree) to 5 (I agree 100%). Think about why you have chosen your score and note down the main reasons.

- 1 The typical listening exercises which we see in most coursebooks are simple tests of comprehension and do little to improve the ability of the learners to really listen to other human beings. ☐
- 2 We shouldn't read through transcripts of listening exercises because this builds in the learners the false belief that they need to understand every word when listening. ☐
- 3 We shouldn't use song lyrics which contain examples of grammatically incorrect usage in class. ☐
- 4 Extensive listening practice always leads to improvements in the students' ability to understand spoken English. ☐
- 5 Teachers must be careful not to overuse their own voice as a source of listening for students; instead, they should ensure that their students are exposed to a wide variety of Englishes. ☐

Discuss

If you have someone to discuss these issues with, find out what scores they have chosen. If they are different from yours, talk about why this is and find out where you agree and disagree. Look at Chapter 19 again and see how far your opinions and arguments are supported.

Check

- 1 Match the phrases in the box to the descriptions of different types of listening activity.

narrow listening extensive listening live listening multiple listening pictureless listening (language) micro listening

- 1 Listening to small phrases and/or short aspects of language can help learners to overcome difficulties they might have in discriminating specific language. _____
- 2 Exposing the students to the same audio excerpt repeatedly. This can be useful to help them get deeper understanding during a listening activity. It can also be used, as with repeated listening to a song, to help the students learn, almost parrot-fashion, phrases from the lyrics. _____
- 3 Giving the students listening activities on the same theme, using a variety of inputs. Useful for listening per se, but also for building up an awareness of the vocabulary which might regularly appear in discussions on a particular topic. _____
- 4 Students listen in their own time to forms of input which they find motivating and useful for their language learning. _____
- 5 The use of a real speaker, visitor to the class or just the teacher, talking to the students as the basis of a listening exercise. _____
- 6 An activity whereby the students first listen to a video with the screen covered and try to form an understanding of the characters and their situation before watching the video and seeing them in action. _____
