Three Lives in One ,1863 Television Series as Mirrors of Contemporary Life Ion Piso,2019-05-16 This study sheds light on the impressive work done by writers of television series highlighting their sources of inspiration and their exceptional talent for maintaining interest and mirroring changes in mentalities in lifestyle It offers numerous original interpretations of various categories of such television shows and explores the ways in which older series have been developed and what has been maintained and changed in more modern TV series Mexico in Its Novel John S. Brushwood,2014-06-23 Mexico in Its Novel is a perceptive examination of the Mexican reality as revealed through the nation's novel The author presents the Mexican novel as a cultural phenomenon a manifestation of the impact of history upon the nation an attempt by a people to come to grips with and understand what has happened and is happening to them Written in a clear and graceful style this study examines the life of the novel as a genre against the background of Mexican chronology It begins with a survey of the mid twentieth century novel the Mexican novel which came of age in the period following the 1947 publication of Agustín Yez's The Edge of the Storm During this time the novel resolved some of its most complicated problems and as a result offered a wider and deeper view of reality Having established this circumstance John Brushwood goes back in time to the Conquest and then moves forward to the twentieth century novel Passing from the Colonial Period into the nineteenth century the author recognizes the relationship between Romanticism and the desire for logical social behavior and then views this relationship in the perspective of the Reform an attempt to bring order out of chaos The novel under the Díaz dictatorship is seen in three different phases and the last Díaz chapter actually moves into the Revolution itself The novel during the years of fighting is considered along with the first post Revolutionary fiction From that point the developing conflict within Mexican reality itself a conflict between introversion and extroversion nationalism and cosmopolitanism reaches out to seek its solution in the novels of the first chapter Rural Tradition in the English Novel, 1900-39 Glen Cavaliero,1977-06-17 Contemporary Law Pamphlets ,1939 Collage in Twenty-First-Century Literature in English Wojciech Drag,2019-11-12 Collage in Twenty First Century Literature in English Art of Crisis considers the phenomenon of the continued relevance of collage a form established over a hundred years ago to contemporary literature It argues that collage is a perfect artistic vehicle to represent the crisis ridden reality of the twenty first century Being a mixture of fragmentary incompatible voices collage embodies the chaos of the media dominated world Examining the artistic sociopolitical and personal crises addressed in contemporary collage literature the book argues that the 21st Century has brought a revival of collage like novels and essays Dark Humour and Social Satire in the Modern British Novel L. Colletta,2003-09-30 Colletta uses psychoanalytic theories of joke work and gallows humour to argue that dark humour is an important defining characteristic of Modernism She brings together the usual suspects alongside more often overlooked writers from the period and asks probing questions about the relationship between a dark humour that revels in the non rational the unstable and the fragmented and resists easy definition and political usefulness and the historical and social circumstances of the period Colletta makes a compelling argument that probing deeply into the nature of humour or satire that define these social comedies brings to light a more complex and more accurate understanding of the social changes and historical circumstances that define the modern era , Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle ,1863 (Inter)Cultural Dialogue and Identity in Lithuanian Literature Irena Ragaišienė, Adelheid Rundholz, 2023-10-09 This book illustrates that the idea of a national literature is profoundly problematic Chapters on boundaries and crisscrossing show how a nation and its writers works do not exist in isolation from their history Stressing migration and inter cultural dialogue authors explore how the characters in the texts establish a sense of belonging both within the context of migrations and within the context of Lithuania since its independence The final series of essays in this book discusses Lithuanian literature abroad that is in translation The Peerage and Baronetage of the British Empire as at Present Existing Edmund Lodge, 1869
