A Distant and Beautiful Place Kwija Yang, 2002-10-31 Somewhere on the periphery of Seoul between the modern metropolis and the traditional farming communities lies a distant and beautiful place the neighborhood of Wonmi dong Here a young couple from the city struggles to make a home for themselves a hapless salary man is forced into door to door sales after losing his job a precocious seven year old questions the meaning of friendship and community Everyone seems to be chasing the intangible dream of a better life Set against the backdrop of South Korea's breakneck drive for industrialization and economic development in the 1980s these compassionate and often humorous stories capture the essence of modern South Korean life including the ubiquitous atmosphere of violence and fear that clouded the country prior to democratization in 1987 They also depict the Korean people's unflinching optimism and love of life A Distant and Beautiful Place first appeared as a series of linked stories in literary journals between 1985 and 1987 It was published as the collection Wonmi dong saramdul in 1987 and quickly became a best seller Yang Kwija one of South Korea's most respected and popular authors has since published dozens of novels and shorter pieces

Lost in Translation Martin Dockery, 2009-02-19 In September 1962 when Martin Dockery landed in Saigon he was a young determined idealistic U S Army first lieutenant convinced of America's imminent victory in Vietnam While most of the twelve thousand U S military advisors in country at the time filled support positions in Saigon and other major cities Dockery was one of a handful of advisors assigned to Army of the Republic of Vietnam ARVN combat units For eight months Dockery lived and fought in the heart of the Mekong Delta with an ARVN infantry battalion on missions and operations that often lasted several days And for most of that time whether tramping through the steaming leech infested jungle hiking across canals or engaging in sudden firefights Dockery was the only American soldier with the unit Dockery's solitary assignment with ARVN during the infancy of U S involvement in Southeast Asia afforded him an understanding of Vietnam far more profound than most other Americans Lost in Translation is his riveting account of the largely overlooked role of American combat advisors in the war As he vividly evokes the sounds smells and vistas of the country and its people Dockery depicts an army poorly trained incompetent and unwilling to fight for a government every bit as corrupt as that of the French colonial empire it replaced Yet even worse than his daily fare of isolation frustration and danger was Dockery's growing conviction that the advisory program was doomed Though these dedicated highly motivated advisors would do their best and persevere under the most trying circumstances they would not succeed The author's eyewitness testimony provides inescapable evidence that as early as 1962 the writing was already on the wall concerning the outcome of the Vietnam War Although it would take U S leaders more than a decade to divine what the young officer learned in a single year Dockery's personal and penetrating analysis of the war which he presented in a lecture at a Special Forces facility in Germany one week after his tour in Vietnam ended proved chillingly accurate Those who send soldiers to war should consider the realities and truths within these pages Beautiful Girl Fleur Philips,2025-07-30 Seventeen year old Melanie Kennicut is beautiful Her entire life revolves around this beauty because her overly controlling mother has been dragging her to casting calls and auditions since she was four years old According to Joanne Kennicut Melanie was born to follow in her footsteps But Melanie never wanted this life When a freak car accident leaves her with facial lacerations that will require plastic surgery she can't help but wonder if this is the answer to her prayers For the first time in her life she has a chance to live like a normal teenager at least for a little while away from the photo shoots and movie sets that have dominated her entire existence But after Melanie allows her best friend to come to the house to see her Joanne decides to hide her daughter in Montana for the remainder of the summer There Melanie won't be seen by anyone they know and her face will heal in time for the scheduled surgery in late August Joanne's plan backfires however when Melanie meets Sam a Native American boy hired by the home's owner to tend to the property Sam is nothing like the Hollywood boys Melanie knows he's poor his father's a drunk who possesses a bizarre gift inherited from a Kootenai Shaman and his only brother disappeared into the mountains after the death of their mother eight years before What transpires over a mere 36 hours after Sam and Melanie meet changes both of their lives in ways they never thought possible
