10. Journal of American Studies is a leading interdisciplinary literature journal, covering contemporary American fiction and non-fiction from 1945 to the present, including those authors whose work is increasingly being covered by political scientists. Its pages feature as many novels, parts of novels, short stories, and essays by novelists, politicians, and literary commentators as they can accommodate. These first efforts, written at the same time and collected

*This survey and the participants in it were all under 18 years of age. All names, addresses, schools, dates, and places were removed, including telephone numbers, to protect privacy. It is not an "ethics waiver" in the sense that it does not allow us to release your name without permission. Your identity is not identifiable given the survey's anonymity, and even if your name were being collected, there is no harm in releasing it as the school is not identifiable to anyone.
