Innovative Business School Teaching Elaine Doyle,Patrick Buckley,Conor Carroll,2014-02-05 Innovative Business School Teaching showcases the latest pedagogic innovations that actively engage the millennial generation in learning within the business domain In the context of the contemporary macro issues facing higher education this book presents the latest teaching practices and tools used in higher education business teaching clearly illustrating the practical ways in which business teachers can confront current pedagogic challenges All of the contributors to this edited book have outstanding track records in teaching having won national and international awards for teaching excellence as well as publishing widely on pedagogy Best practice teaching from multiple jurisdictions across a broad spectrum of business schools is represented Each contributor shares their innovative teaching tools and techniques in a manner that emphasises how these tools can be adapted to other contexts thus providing readers with an invaluable teaching resource      Techniques of Guidance Arthur Edwin Traxler,Robert Davidson North,1945      The End of Public Schools David W. Hursh,2015-10-16 The End of Public Schools analyzes the effect of foundations corporations and non governmental organizations on the rise of neoliberal principles in public education By first contextualizing the privatization of education within the context of a larger educational crisis and with particular emphasis on the Gates Foundation and influential state and national politicians it describes how specific policies that limit public control are advanced across all levels Informed by a thorough understanding of issues such as standardized testing teacher tenure and charter schools David Hursh provides a political and pedagogical critique of the current school reform movement as well details about the increasing resistance efforts on the part of parents teachers and the general public Neoliberalism and Early Childhood Education Guy Roberts-Holmes, Peter Moss, 2021-04-27

Neoliberalism with its worldview of competition choice and calculation its economisation of everything and its will to govern has sunk its roots deep into Early Childhood Education and Care This book considers its deeply detrimental impacts upon young children families settings and the workforce Through an exploration of possibilities for resistance and refusal and reflection on the significance of the coronavirus pandemic Roberts Holmes and Moss provide hope that neoliberalism s current hegemony can be successfully contested The book provides a critical introduction to neoliberalism and three closely related and influential concepts Human Capital theory Public Choice theory and New Public Management as well as an overview of the impact of neoliberalism on compulsory education in particular through the Global Education Reform Movement With its main focus on Early Childhood Education and Care this book argues that while neoliberalism is a very powerful force it is deeply problematic eminently resistible and eventually replaceable and that there are indeed alternatives Neoliberalism and Early Childhood Education is an insightful supplement to the studies of students and researchers in Early Childhood Education and Sociology of Education and is also highly relevant to policy makers
