Urban Modernity in the Contemporary Gulf Roberto Fabbri, Sultan Sooud Al-Qassemi, 2021-09-27 Urban Modernity in the Contemporary Gulf offers a timely and engaging discussion on architectural production in the modernization era in the Arabian Peninsula Focusing on the 20th century as a starting point the book explores the display of transnational architectural practices resulting in different notions of locality cosmopolitanism and modernity Contextually with an eye on the present the book reflects on the initiatives that recently re engaged with the once ville moderne which meanwhile lost its pivotal function and meaning A city within a bigger city the urban fabric produced during the modernization era has the potential to narrate the social growth East West dynamics and citizens memories of the recent past Reading obsolescence as an opportunity the book looks into this topic from a cross country perspective It maps reads and analyses the notion of modern heritage in relation to the contemporary city and looks beyond physical transformations to embrace cultural practices and strategies of urban re appropriation It interrogates the value of modern architecture in the non West examining how academic research is expanding the debate on Gulf urbanism and describes how practices of reuse could foster rethinking neglected areas also addressing land consumption in the GCC Presenting a diverse and geographically inclusive authorship which combines established and up and coming researchers in the field this is an important reference for academics and upper level students interested in heritage studies post colonial urbanism and architecture in the non West The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Routledge Handbook on Tourism in the Middle East and North Africa Dallen Timothy, 2018-12-07 The Routledge Handbook on Tourism in the Middle East and North Africa examines the importance of tourism as a historical economic social environmental religious and political force in the Middle East and North Africa MENA It highlights the ecological and resource challenges related to water desert environments climate change and oil It provides an in depth analysis of the geopolitical conditions that have long determined the patterns of tourism demand and supply throughout the region and how these play out in the everyday lives of residents and destinations as they attempt to grow tourism or ignore it entirely While cultural heritage remains the primary tourism asset for the region as a whole many new types of tourism are emerging especially in the Arabian Gulf region where hyper development is closely associated with the increasingly prominent role of luxury real estate and shopping retail medical tourism cruises and transit tourism The growing phenomenon of an expatriate workforce and how its segregation from the citizenry creates a dual socio economic system in several countries is unmatched by other regions of the world Many indigenous people of MENA keep themselves apart from other dominant groups in the region although these social boundaries are becoming increasingly blurred as tourism being one socio economic force for change has inspired many nomadic peoples to settle into towns and villages and rely more on tourists for their livelihoods All of these issues and more shape the foundations of this book This Handbook is the first of its kind to examine tourism from a broad regional and inclusive perspective surveying a broad range of social cultural heritage ecological and political matters in a single volume With a wide range of contributors many of whom are natives of the Middle East and North Africa this Handbook is a vital resource for students and scholars interested in Tourism Middle East Studies and Geography
