Weaving Europe, Crafting the Museum Magdalena Buchczyk, 2023-04-20 Weaving Europe Crafting the Museum delves into the history and the changing material culture in Europe through the stories of a basket a carpet a waistcoat a uniform and a dress The focus on the objects from the collection of the Museum of European Cultures in Berlin offers an innovative and challenging way of understanding textile culture and museums The book shows that textiles can be simultaneously used as the material object of research and as a lens through which we can view museums In doing so the book fills a major gap by placing textile knowledge back into the museum Each chapter focuses on one object story and can be read individually Swooping from 19th century wax figure cabinets Nazi era collections Cold War exhibitions in East and West Berlin and institutional reshuffling after German unification it reveals the dramatically changing story of the museum and its collection Based on research with museum curators makers and users of the textiles in Italy and Germany Poland and Romania the book provides intimate insights into how objects are mobilised to very different social and political effects It sheds new light on movements across borders political uses of textiles by fascist and communist regimes the objects fall into oblivion as well as their heritage and tourist afterlives Addressing this complex museum legacy the book suggests new pathways to prefigure the future Featuring new archival and ethnographic research evocative examples and images it is an essential read for students of textile and material culture museum and curatorial studies as well as anyone interested in history heritage and craft

Principles of Visual Anthropology Paul Hockings, 2009-12-23

This edition contains 27 articles written by scholars and filmmakers who are generally acknowledged as the international authorities in the field and a new preface by the editor. The book covers ethnographic filming and its relations to the cinema and television applications of filming to anthropological research, the uses of still photography, archives and videotape, subdisciplinary applications in ethnography, archeology, bio anthropology, museology and ethnohistory, and overcoming the funding problems of film production. Bulletin de la Commission D'anthropologie Visuelle, 1992. Critical Debates in Tourism. Tej Vir Singh, 2012-08-14. In this volume, tourism experts collectively discuss and debate some intriguing questions that the tourism industry poses, such as the relevance of mass tourism, the dilemma of authenticity, whether small tourism is beautiful, whether volunteer tourism is benign, whether tourism contributes to climate change, as well as many others. The book brings together the expertise of 35 renowned international scholars of tourism to examine these perplexing issues. Multidisciplinary in its content, it touches upon anthropology, sociology, geography, climatology, biosciences, and planning and development aspects of tourism. The book provides a dialogue for an academic discussion which challenges research conservatism and stereotypes in tourism studies. It will encourage scholars to test the consistency of critical notions whose heuristic value is often taken for granted. The book will benefit graduates, research scholars, and those involved in organizing the industry sustainably. Vizualna antropologija / Visual Anthropology.
