Agency and Knowledge in Northeast India Michael Heneise, 2018-08-06 The Nagas of Northeast India give great importance to dreams as sources of divine knowledge especially knowledge about the future Although British colonialism Christian missions and political conflict have resulted in sweeping cultural and political transformations in the Indo Myanmar borderlands dream sharing and interpretation remain important avenues for negotiating everyday uncertainty and unpredictability This book explores the relationship between dreams and agency through ethnographic fieldwork among the Angami Nagas It tackles questions such as What is dreaming What does it mean to say I had a dream And how do night time dreams relate to political and social actions in waking moments Michael Heneise shows how the Angami glean knowledge from signs gain insight from ancestors and potentially obtain divine blessing Advancing the notion that dreams and dreaming can be studied as indices of relational devotional and political subjectivities the author demonstrates that their examination can illuminate the ways in which as forms of authoritative knowledge they influence daily life and also how they figure in the negotiation of day to day domestic and public interactions Moreover dream narration itself can involve techniques of interference in which the dreamer seeks to limit or encourage the powerful influence of social others encountered in dreams such as ancestors spirits or the divine Based on extensive ethnographic research this book advances research on dreams by conceptualising how the social encompasses the broader co extensive set of relations and experiences especially with spirit entities reflected in the ethnography of dreams It will be of interest to those studying Northeast India indigenous religion and culture indigenous cosmopolitics in tribal India more generally and the anthropology of dreams and dreaming

Resurrection Initiation Midas Mantra, 2011-09-01 Is there life after death What are the pyramids for What is The Process and the Joy mans destiny on Earth In 2001 I died and became the god of resurrection In this divine state I promised to teach of the process and of the joy before returning to my body finding myself in a world of strange auras and weird synchronicity My hedonistic life of travel crumbled as I struggled to cope with the enormity of this experience and my new found view of the world Just as I was finding my feet I died again and travelled to the Godhead Through meditation I experienced the breathless state of Samadhi and travelled the corridors of the cosmic temple of the wheel of time Through books I found confirmation as to the nature of the resurrection initiation and its use by ancient shaman Egyptian Mayan and Indian kings as well as by Jesus and Plato This book is an attempt to fulfill my souls promise and unveil the great mystery

The God Debaters Adrian Rosenfeldt, 2022-05-04 This book examines the post 9 11 God debate in the West Through a close study of prominent English God debaters Richard Dawkins Karen Armstrong Christopher Hitchens and Terry Eagleton Adrian Rosenfeldt demonstrates that New Atheist and religious apologist ideas and arguments about God science and identity are driven by mythic autobiographical narratives and Protestant or Catholic cultural heritage This study is informed by criticism of the New Atheist polemic as being positivistic and the religious apologists as propagating sophisticated theology In both cases the God debaters are perceived as disassociating themselves from human lived experience It is through reconnecting the God debaters intellectual ideas to their cultural and social background that the God debate can be grounded in a recognisable human reality that eludes reductive distinctions and disembodied abstractions
