

There was a massive building and expansion by all countries except Britain. Germany had the most powerful army and Britain had the most powerful navy. The race between Germany and Britain began after the launch of a new battleship, "Dreadnought". Germany's plan sought to send a war on two fronts by invading Belgium through Belgium, then attacking France. But this was defeated although it failed.

Europe divided into two armed camps involving all major powers. The Triple Entente was made up of Austria-Hungary, Italy, and the Triple Alliance was made up of France, and Great Britain.

Neutrality

Strong neutrality (neither military nor economic) was created in Central Europe when independence from Austria-Hungary, France, and Germany from the Triple Alliance-Lorraine to Germany in Franco-Prussian War in 1871.

Imperialism

There was a goal for colonies, "sphere of influence." Countries wanted colonies—France and Germany were part of the dominance of the Empire, and Germany started its empire late. The region Bulgaria, Romania, Albania were also unstable and considered the "powder keg of Europe" First Balkan War 1912, Second Balkan War 1913 with disputes over territory and independence.

Austro-Hungary, June 28, 1914

Anarchist Ferdinand was the first to the Austrian Emperor and was killed by a Serbian terrorist. This was the spark that ignited the war. Austria declared war on Serbia, backed by Germany, supported by France, and Britain through Belgium, (Russia, Italy, Britain supports)

As the war started it became quite apparent that the Southern Plan didn't work. Germany invaded Belgium and France, but did not make it very far into France due to Britain and France.

Front

Both sides dug in and a long war of attrition continued for 4 years. There was tremendous destruction and massive casualties along the western front. Guns killed hundreds, easily, and millions of artillery shells fired. Gas was also used and tanks and aeroplanes throughout the war.

Eastern Front

There was blood in the soil between the Germans, Austrians, and Russians until removed itself from the war effort. The Russians in 1917 led to the signing of Treaty of Brest-Litovsk giving up huge amounts of land to Germany in exchange for peace, allowing all German troops to withdraw to the Western Front.

United States

The USA was neutral for most of the war but joined the war in 1917. French American Bridges ensured a victory for the allies.
