Campbell, Stephanie Wellman, 2023-12-19 Justice Indigenous Peoples and Canada A History of Courage and Resilience brings together the work of a number of leading researchers to provide a broad overview of criminal justice issues that Indigenous people in Canada have faced historically and continue to face today Both Indigenous and Canadian scholars situate current issues of justice for Indigenous peoples broadly defined within the context of historical realities and ongoing developments By examining how justice is defined both from within Indigenous communities and outside of them this volume examines the force of Constitutional reform and subsequent case law on Indigenous rights historically and in contemporary contexts It then expands the discussion to include theoretical considerations particularly settler colonialism that help explain how ongoing oppressive and assimilationist agendas continue to affect how so called justice is administered From a critical perspective the book examines the operation of the criminal justice system through bail specialized courts policing sentencing incarceration and release It explores legal frameworks as well as current issues that have significantly affected Indigenous peoples such as the Truth and Reconciliation Commission the Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls human rights resurgence and identity This unique collection of perspectives exposes the disconcerting agenda of historical and modern day Canadian federal government policy and the continued denial of Indigenous rights to self determination It is essential reading for those interested in the struggles of the Indigenous peoples in Canada as well as anyone studying race crime and justice Handbook of Restorative Justice Gerry Johnstone, Daniel Van Ness, 2013-01-11 Discusses the key concepts and principles of restorative justice explains how the campaign for restorative justice arose and developed into an influential social movement describes the variety of restorative justice practices and identifies and examines key issues within the restorative justice movement Justice and Security Reform Lisa Denney, 2014-01-10 Justice and Security Reform Development Agencies and Informal Institutions in Sierra Leone undertakes a deep contextual analysis of the reform of the country's security and justice sectors since the end of the civil war in 2002 Arguing that the political and bureaucratic nature of development agencies leads to a lack of engagement with informal institutions this book examines the challenges of sustainably transforming security and justice in fragile states Through the analysis of a post conflict context often held up as an example of successful peacebuilding Lisa Denney reveals how the politics of development agencies is an often forgotten constraint in security and justice reform and development efforts more broadly Particularly suited to upper level undergraduates and postgraduate students as well as practitioners this book is relevant to those interested in security and justice reform and statebuilding as well Sierra Leone's post conflict recovery Global Justice and Desire Nikita Dhawan, Antke Engel, Christoph Holzhey, Volker Woltersdorff, 2015-05-15 Employing feminist queer and postcolonial perspectives Global Justice and Desire addresses economy as a key ingredient in the dynamic interplay between modes of subjectivity signification and governance Bringing together a range of international contributors the book proposes that both analyzing justice through the lens of desire and considering desire through the lens of justice are vital for exploring economic processes A variety of approaches for capturing the complex and dynamic interplay of justice and desire in socioeconomic processes are taken up But acknowledging a complexity of forces and relations of power domination and violence sometimes cohering and sometimes contradictory it is the relationship between hierarchical gender arrangements relations of exploitation and their colonial histories that is stressed Therefore queer feminist and postcolonial perspectives intersect as Global Justice and Desire explores their capacity to contribute to more just and more desirable economies

Kyprianides, Ben Bradford, Jonathan Jackson, 2024-02-29 The pandemic has significantly impacted people's engagement with the administrative justice system AJS As we navigate the post pandemic era the siloed landscape of tribunals ombuds advice services and NGOs face the challenge of maintaining trust in the justice system's fairness efficacy and inclusivity Examining the journeys individuals undertake to seek justice in housing and special educational needs and disabilities SEND this book sheds light on how these institutions adapted to remote service provision Written by key names in the field this important contribution uncovers valuable insights for digitalization efforts and offers concrete recommendations for improving pathways to justice Building Justice in Post-transition Europe Kay Eileen Goodall, Margaret S. Malloch, Bill

Munro, 2013 Since democracies are relatively new in Eastern Europe and little has been written much can be learned from looking at the distinctive developments in both legal transitions and the process of criminalization This book brings together recent work from researchers and academics engaged in theory policy and practice and offers a significant contribution to the study of transition in the fields of criminology law philosophy and political science and a critical analysis of future directions in criminalisation in the emerging democratic states of Eastern Europe Vulnerable Consumers and the Law

Christine Riefa, Severine Saintier, 2020-10-27 This book charts the difficulties encountered by vulnerable consumers in their access to justice through the contributions of prominent authors academic practitioners and consultants in the field of consumer law and access to justice It demonstrates that despite the development of ADR access to justice is still severely lacking for the vulnerable consumer The book highlights that a broad understanding of access to justice which encompasses good regulation and its public enforcement is an essential ingredient alongside access to the mechanisms of traditional private justice courts and ADR to protect the vulnerable consumer Indeed many of the difficulties are linked to normative obstacles and lack of access to justice is primarily a vulnerability in itself that can exacerbate existing ones In addition because it may contribute to pushing already vulnerable consumers into social exclusion it is not simply about economic justice but also about social justice The book shows that lack of access to justice is not irreversible nor is it necessarily linked to consumer apathy New technologies could provide solutions The book concludes with a plea for developing inclusive justice systems with more emphasis on public enforcement alongside effective courts systems to offer the vulnerable with adequate means to defend themselves This book will be suitable for both students and practitioners and all those with an interest in the justice system Seeking Justice M A Comley, 2018-04-09 Time is of the essence to find a missing young mother DI
