American Education ,1979 Source Book of Projects ,1981 Annual Report of the Board of Education of the City of Newark Newark (N.J.). Board of Education,1900 Resources in Education ,1998 Reports of City Officers of the City of Newark, N.J. ... Newark (N.J.),1899 Teaching the Tough Issues Jacqueline Darvin,2015 Teaching the Tough Issues introduces a groundbreaking teaching method intended to help English social studies and humanities teachers address difficult or controversial topics in their secondary classrooms Because these issues are rarely addressed in teacher preparation programs few teachers feel confident facilitating conversations around culturally and politically sensitive issues in ways that honor their diverse students voices and lead to critical transformative thinking The author describes a four step method to help teachers structure discussions and written assignments while concurrently assisting them in addressing Common Core State Standards Designed to aid students in both developing their own viewpoints on contentious issues and in actively critiquing those of their teachers and peers these practices will enhance any humanities curriculum Book Features Offers guidance for exploring difficult and or controversial aspects of course content Provides an excellent means of differentiating instruction and promoting critical literacy Helps teachers to foster positive behavior and decision making with their students Enables students to improve their reading writing speaking listening and observation skills Assists teachers in attaining the CCSS and other curricular mandates in their secondary humanities classrooms Darvin has provided us all with a powerful tool for guiding students as they explore their identity unafraid to explore what it means to be human From the Foreword by Douglas Fisher professor of educational leadership San Diego State University Darvin takes on the big important issues in adolescents lives that often go unaddressed in most classrooms With an equal balance of sensitivity and directness she exhorts teachers to name deconstruct and think curricularly about the cultural and political forces influencing and being influenced by today s youth William Brozo professor of literacy George Mason University author of Wham Teaching with Graphic Novels Across the Curriculum Keep Tab on the Lab ,1960 Rethinking Schooling Ian Westbury,Geoff Milburn,2006-11-22 Taking a collection of seminal articles from the Journal of Curriculum Studies this book offers readers a vantage point for thinking about the worlds of schools and curricula focusing in particular on the concept of seeing schools curricula and teaching in new ways Each of the chapters sheds fresh light on the ways of thinking the aforementioned Themes include classrooms and teaching pedagogy science and history education school and curriculum development students lives in schools Written by an international group of distinguished scholars from Britain North America Sweden and Germany the chapters draw on the perspectives offered by curriculum and pedagogical theory history ethnography sociology psychology and organisational studies and experiences in curriculum making Together they invite many questions about why teaching and curricula must be as they are Rethinking Schooling provides new futures for education and alternative ways of seeing them Faith and Politics in South Asia Astha Chadha,2024-11-18 This book explores the role of faith and politics in shaping the international relations of South Asia Adopting a neo classical realist framework and a discourse historical approach to analyze how religious actors construct their political identities and interests through the interpretation of sacred texts or exegesis the book makes several key contributions to the field of international relations It introduces the concept of exegesis as a novel analytical tool to understand the role of religion in world politics The book argues that exegesis is not only a theological exercise but also a political one as it shapes the worldviews values norms and interests of religious actors The author applies exegesis to three case studies of South Asia the partition of India and Pakistan the rise of Hindu nationalism in India and the emergence of Islamic radicalism in Pakistan and resurging signs of the same in Bangladesh The research then challenges the conventional assumptions of IR such as the secularization thesis the clash of civilizations and the rational actor model by showing how religious actors are not monolithic homogeneous or irrational but rather diverse heterogeneous and strategic The book offers a nuanced and comprehensive understanding of the role of religion in world politics especially in the context of South Asia Highlighting the diversity and complexity of the religious landscape in South Asia which is home to various faiths sects movements and ideologies this book will be of interest to academics studying global politics international relations Asian Studies and studies on religion and foreign policy Christian Home
