Evil in Modern Myth and Ritual Richard Stivers,2020-04-28 Richard Stivers concern is with the social construction of evil that is with how modern societies in a partly unconscious way create evil as a category of the sacred and how symbols myths and rituals of evil are related to this He is interested moreover in how modern societies provoke individuals to commit evil actions This fascinating and stimulating book is the first attempt to work out in detail how the concepts of the sacred symbol myth and ritual form a cultural configuration in modern technological societies and not just in traditional societies

Peace Anatol Rapoport,2025-10-01 In Peace An Idea Whose Time Has Come noted mathematician and peace researcher Anatol Rapoport explores the evolution of the idea of peace and explains why it is displacing war as a viable institution Professor Rapoport ventures into uncharted philosophical territory by drawing on both the natural and the social sciences to trace the development of the ideas of war and peace He argues that the theory of evolution and processes analogous to natural selection can explain not only biological events but also the development of the institution of war Thus the clashes of armed hordes at the dawn of history were the ancestors of our present battles using automated weapons while Isaiah s prophecy of total disarmament And they shall beat their swords into ploughshares anticipates the resolutions of the United Nations Rapoport explains that although the institution of war enjoys a long history and continues to be a policy option today it may soon fall into disuse either by losing its relevance to modern life or by destroying the civilizations that practice it He then calls attention to ideas that lie dormant until people s ideational environment becomes receptive to their germination peace Anatol Rapoport believes is one such idea Peace
