In 1948, free elections joined the American, French, and British zones of Berlin and the western German zones also wanted to merge. The Soviets tried to block the merger of West Germany by cutting off all land access to West Berlin. With land access off, West Berliners were in danger of running out of food and other necessary supplies. For 11 months Western allies airlifted supplies to the people of West Berlin.

In May 1949, the Soviets ended the blockade. In the fall of 1949, the Federal Republic of Germany (West Germany) was created with its capital at Bonn and the Soviet Union created German Democratic Republic (East Germany) with its capital at East Berlin.
