    For folkeoplysning , 1918      Were We Ever Protestants? Sivert Angel, Hallgeir Elstad, Eivor Andersen Oftestad, 2019-09-23 This anthology discusses different aspects of Protestantism past and present Professor Tarald Rasmussen has written both on medieval and modern theologians but his primary interest has remained the reformation and 16th century church history In stead of a traditional Festschrift honouring the different fields of research he has contributed to this will be a focused anthology treating a specific theme related to Rasmussen's research profile One of Professor

Rasmussen's most recent publications a little popularized book in Norwegian titled What is Protestantism reveals a central aspect research interest namely the Weberian interest for Protestantism's cultural significance Despite difficulties he finds the concept useful as a Weberian Idealtypus enabling research on a phenomenon combining theological historical and sociological dimensions Thus he employs the Protestantism as an integrative concept to trace the makeup of today's secular societies This profiled approach is a point of departure for this anthology discussing important aspects of historiography in reformation history Continuity and breaks surrounding the reformation contemporary significance of reformation history research traces of the reformation in today's society The book relates to current discussions on Protestantism and is relevant to everyone who want to keep up to date with the latest research in the field
