Discipleship that Fits Bobby Harrington, Alex Absalom, 2016-02-09 For far too long the church has tried to make disciples using a one size fits all approach Some churches advocate 1 on 1 discipling others try getting everyone into a small group while still others training through mission trips or service projects Yet others focus all their efforts on attracting people to a large group gathering to hear biblical teaching and preaching But does one size really fit everyone Based on careful biblical study and years of experience making disciples in the local church Bobby Harrington and Alex Absalom have identified five key relationships where discipleship happens in our lives In each relational context we need to understand how discipleship occurs and we need to set appropriate expectations for each context Discipleship That Fits shows you the five key ways discipleship occurs It looks at how Jesus made disciples and how disciples were formed in the early church Each of the contexts is necessary at different times and in different ways as a person grows toward maturity in Christ Public Relationships The church gathering corporately for worship Social Relationships Networks of smaller relationships where we engage in mission and live out our faith in community Personal Relationships Small groups of six to sixteen people where we challenge and encourage one another on a regular basis Transparent Relationships Close relationships of three to four where we share intimate details of our lives for accountability The Divine Relationship Our relationship with Jesus Christ where we grow through the empowering presence of the Holy Spirit Filled with examples and stories Alex and Bobby show you how to develop discipleship practices in each relational context by sharing how Jesus did it how the early church practiced it and how churches are discipling people today Going Full Circle Mark Powers, 2013-07-03 In the grip of serious numerical best be described as Spiritual Mentoring Why are discipleship and mentoring so important How does discipleship connect to the struggles men face today Discipleship is a relational process that requires people to become actively involved in their faith Devoted and active men can change the direction of our culture Most importantly God has commanded men to be the leaders in the home church and community Authentic discipleship is about developing a caring concern and a genuine love for others through modeling Christ like attitudes and behavior in the context of relational environments A fresh approach is needed to define implement and equip men with a passion to make disciples It starts with relationship Because it all starts with the individual we must see one on one discipleship as the primary objective to begin the revolution The Spiritual Mentor will explain how men can rescue their faith and how spiritual mentors must play a critical role in bringing the church back to its original purpose Features include Metaphors anecdotes and practical applications Practical tools for becoming a spiritual mentor Discussion questions Dr Jim Grassi has captured the essence of what is happening today with men in the church and defined logical and practical steps to get back on course of men gaining a closer relationship with God in the mentoring and discipleship process Dr Grassi illustrates the how to thru practical examples of situations we all know and can relate Dr Grassi sets the tone for a modern day Haggai in being strong and staying courageous putting in the effort by serving and working at the process and lastly knowing that God never leaves your side and is always with you This book is a must read and must have for reference of every men s ministry leader Darrel Billups NCMM Executive Director Our men s small group just finished reading and discussing The Spiritual Mentor We found the book to be challenging informative and very practical The stories and illustrations are captivating giving insight into principles and techniques of discipleship As fathers and grandfathers we want to first be a positive influence on our families and then on others with whom we come in contact This book has raised the level of our awareness of the responsibility and opportunity to serve God in fulfilling the most important directive given us by our Lord to make disciples Thank you for sharing your insight and experiences with us Norman Thomas Administrative Pastor Valley Assembly

A Philosophy of Pastoral Preaching David A. Christensen, 2023-05-26 I am a pastor I preach Doesn t that make me a pastoral preacher Not necessarily Many preach missional rather than pastoral sermons designed to appeal to the unchurched not the church The popularity of regional churches and the global reach of the internet allow preachers to focus their sermons on people they do not know and market a message to an audience they never see Evangelical leaders produce many resources on attractional preaching but who is developing a vision for pastoral preaching David Christensen draws on years of experience to develop a philosophy of pastoral preaching He writes Social media changes the way we preach More and more pastors are preaching clickbait sermons These are sermons designed to get clicks or attract interest rather than teach truth We want catchy titles and clever analogies that will grab people s attention because the digital world is built on attention whatever will get likes or drive outrage However pastoral preaching builds community It is rooted in local soil to the people we know in the place we live We need a philosophy of preaching that shepherds a community of disciples who worship together in one place Matthew, Disciple and Scribe Patrick Schreiner, 2019-09-03 This fresh look at the Gospel of Matthew highlights the unique contribution that Matthew's rich and multilayered portrait of Jesus makes to understanding the connection between the Old and New Testaments Patrick Schreiner argues that Matthew obeyed the Great Commission by acting as scribe to his teacher Jesus in order to share Jesus's life and work with the world thereby making disciples of future generations The First Gospel presents Jesus's life as the fulfillment of the Old Testament story of Israel and shows how Jesus brings new life in the New Testament Beyond Self-Help: The True Path to Harnessing God's Wisdom, Realizing Life's Potential and Living the Abundant Life By Rev. Ron Kelly Senior Pastor Village Seventh day Adventist Church Berrien Springs Michigan United States of America Seeking the Lost Keeping Them Making Them Disciples by Dr Benoit Petit Homme is a handy Christ based discipleship resource that will contribute to the mission of training and equipping church ministry leaders in the evangelistic work of reaping retaining and nurturing new believing Christians This is a must read for church officers pastors and ministry directors in the Christian church Ron C Smith PhD D Min President Southern Union Conference of SDA Every year many thousands of people hear the Good News of Jesus Christ and choose to be baptized and join a church community Unfortunately it is also true that every year many new converts leave a church relatively shortly after joining The specific reasons that each person leaves the church could fill a book by themselves but they all boil down to one thing a lack of focus on the part of the church community on turning converts into disciples of our Savior A disciple of Christ does more than attend church services A disciple is an active member of the church community A disciple is a witness to others A disciple seeks to grow the church by seeking to lead everyone they meet to Christ Dr Benoit Petit Homme is a committed disciple of Christ and after extensive study of exactly why new converts leave the church he has developed a process by which any church can make disciples All it takes is a little extra work a bit of encouragement and an unwavering faith in the Lord The Drama of Discipleship Gregory R. Perry, 2022-04-21 How do Christ s followers reach across the dividing lines of our culture to offer hospitality and hope How do local congregations worship God faithfully on Sunday and bear witness to their neighbors with fitting words and deeds during the week Christ has called his people to follow the ways of his kingdom in their homes workplaces schools churches and neighborhoods The Drama of Discipleship is a resource for being and making disciples of Jesus in the everyday tasks of being human Each episode offers at least one group activity that is designed to catalyze group action on your local stage and build your congregation s practice of taking off the old ways of being human and putting on the true image of God Christ The Drama concludes with additional tools for those who lead small groups in the heartwork of discipleship as well as a neighborhood survey for those who lead congregations in the fieldwork of discipling the nations Making Disciples, Making Leaders Steven P. Eason, 2004-01-01 This book offers a model for selecting and training church officers that is grounded in spiritual discernment and development The book begins with a biblical understanding of leadership moves into consideration for how to train a Nominating Committee to select leaders according to the biblical vision and then offers a step by step plan for a training event with three components The training plan is designed to build up the church leaders spiritually and to set their work in the context of discipleship as well as to teach them some of the fundamentals of the rules of governance of their denomination The book concludes with concrete suggestions for how future work of the church board can be structured to reflect the emphasis highlighted in the training session Discipleship Defined Eric Russ, 2010-11 DON T read this book if you want to remain comfortable Eric challenges us to consider what Biblical discipleship looks like based on what Jesus did Eric writes this book with the integrity of a man who is not merely theorizing about the way things ought to
