Metapolitics, Algorithms and Violence Ico Maly,2023-11-01 Metapolitics Algorithms and Violence argues that we need a more finegrained approach to understand contemporary far right violence an approach that takes language and cultural production in a digital economy seriously This book underlines the importance of socio political economic historical and technological context in understanding the rise of the new right More concretely based on a digital ethnographic approach it argues that we should understand this violence and the contemporary rise of new far right practices and actors in relation to the theoretical renewal of La Nouvelle Droite in the 20th century the democratization of new right metapolitics in the 21st century as a result of the rise of digital media and the development of a layered transnational and polycentric new right cultural niche in which far right activists and terrorists produce identity discourse digital cultures and practices This work will be an engaging and necessary read for researchers interested in social media digital culture far right politics extremism and terrorism

Magic Jamie Sutcliffe, 2021-12-14 The first accessible reader on magic's generative relationship with contemporary art practice From the hexing of presidents to a renewed interest in herbalism and atavistic forms of self care magic has furnished the contemporary imagination with mysterious and often disorienting bodies of arcane thought and practice This volume brings together writings by artists magicians historians and theorists that illuminate the vibrant correspondences animating contemporary art's varied encounters with magical culture inspiring a reconsideration of the relationship between the symbolic and the pragmatic Dispensing with simple narratives of reenchantment Magic illustrates the intricate ways in which we have to some extent always been captivated by the allure of the numinous It demonstrates how magical culture's tendencies toward secrecy occlusion and encryption might provide contemporary artists with strategies of remedial communality a renewed faith in the invocational power of personal testimony and a poetics of practice that could boldly question our political circumstances from the crisis of climate collapse to the strictures of socially sanctioned techniques of medical and psychiatric care Tracing its various emergences through the shadows of modernity the circuitries of ritual media and declarations of psychic self defence Magic deciphers the evolution of a magical critical thinking that productively complicates contradicts and expands the boundaries of our increasingly weird present
