Graphic Sports Joe Aggrey,1998-06-23     Place by the Sea Simon Clayton,2015-12-14 Carter Talbot has served Her Majesty s Government for all his adult life He needs a rest Nearly forty years in the Army and the FCO have taken him around the World s trouble spots and into loads of trouble His character and training have seen him through the worst of times Now it s time to share his stories He takes a pen name and hides away in the Outer Hebrides to write his memoirs His well deserved retirement is shattered when an unexpected element of the past catches up with him leading into a whirlpool of long dormant emotions A personal history of war lost love and regret looms large as he tries to come to terms with the different demands aimed in his direction and in defending his place by the sea In Simon Clayton s second novel he weaves together themes including genocide heartbreak family conflict soldiering and revenge through the looking glass of Talbot s experience and the people in his life This book will shock you make you laugh and make you cry     The Desert Wind Esa Kinnunen,2022-08-29 This book is an English translation of the author s the first published book Ruwais The Desert Wind focuses on leisure time as bachelor boy until he finds Filipino girl The stories are based on true events that author have handwritten daily in his notebooks Daily events are told as accurately as they are documented in his diaries At the same time author have mentioned excerpts from Islamic culture and world events that interest his Author also tells in this book how he fell in love with a Filipino girl and tell how they celebrate the weddings in Dubai and the Philippines and about the birth of their child     Loveworks Brian Sheehan,2013-05-28 In 2004 Kevin Roberts wrote Lovemarks the future beyond brands It was admired by many as a breakthrough in marketing thinking but was also controversial because of its surprisingly obvious thesis that emotional connections are at the heart of sustained relationships between producers retailers and consumers While many companies were using the language of war in their marketing target penetrate ambush Roberts was using the language of love mystery sensuality intimacy He explained in simple terms what people are often loath to admit we make decisions with our emotions over our reason Lovemarks described the journey by which brands could move from consumer respect based on intellect to consumer love based on emotion and in return gain loyalty beyond reason In 2010 Advertising Age magazine named Lovemarks one of their ideas of the decade while noting that the roadmap for brands to achieve Lovemark status was still not entirely clear Loveworks How the world s top marketers make emotional connections to win in the marketplace adds to the original Lovemarks by showcasing real world business examples and outlining the roadmaps followed by several world renowned brands to achieve Lovemark status Procter Gamble Toyota Visa General Mills Miller T Mobile and Lenovo are just a few examples of businesses winning in the marketplace through the application of the Lovemarks theory maintaining laser like focus on making and sustaining emotional connections with consumers Loveworks features 20 case stories from clients and markets worldwide in widely varying categories My book shows that Lovemarks thinking works anywhere anytime All it takes is having the brains to implement it the guts to see it through and an abiding faith in emotion as your compass says Brian Sheehan     When East Meets West Fran Blumberg,2008-12-18 The impetus for this book was a series of guest lectures for the Issues in Applied Cognition Institute sponsored by Fordham University s Graduate School of Education May 26 27 2005 and convened at Fordham University in New York City and May 30 June 7 2005 at The Beijing Center for Language and Culture in Beijing The book that has since emerged is designed to serve as a reference that brings together theoretical perspectives research findings and cultural practice in the examination of media from a primarily Sino American vantage point as commented upon by Chinese U S and U K researchers and practitioners The need for such a reference is prompted by China's status as a nascent superpower and the ramifications of that emerging status for collaborative ventures and exchange of information with the U S. Clearly one flourishing context in which this sharing will occur is media. The goal of this volume is to provide the basis for consideration of the theoretical and practical issues that both China and the United States media will encounter as they move toward greater economic and political interdependence. This discussion is approached through the lens of media practice research and education and includes the voices of media market researchers, journalists and editors, developers of children's educational programs and academicians. Collectively the chapters offer a select set of snapshots of how media in China and the U S look at one point in time. This moment is one that includes China preparing for the Beijing 2008 Olympics and the U S grappling with its involvement in an unpopular war. However, these images may capture what has been referred to in photojournalism as a decisive moment in the fledgling media interdependency between the U S and China.

Rosa Zielfa B. Maslin, 2013. To pursue her dream of a better future, Rosa sought work overseas. Leaving her husband and three children in the Philippines, she found out quickly that when it comes to domestic work abroad, one has to forget one's own needs and desires. She saw this as her fate, and God's will. Chores had to be completed to the satisfaction of her foreign employers, whilst her dedication in taking care of their children was second to none. The Philippines, Singapore, and England are vastly different worlds. Mastering her anxieties, she tackled unfamiliar tasks she never dreamt of using washing machines, cooking with spices and wine, and handling fragile wine and spirit glasses. For this, she was paid much more than what many teachers in the Philippines earned in a month. This is Rosa's story, the story of an individual person's drive to improve her lot in life in the context of the Philippine economic conditions.

Daily Graphic, Ransford Tetteh, 2014-04-09. In the Company of Cars, Sarah Redshaw, 2017-09-29. It has long been accepted that the social and cultural meanings of the car far exceed the practical need for mobility. This book marks the first attempt to contribute to road safety, considering in depth these meanings and the cultures of driving that are shaped by them. In the Company of Cars examines the perspectives that young people have on cars and explores the broader social and cultural meanings of the car, the potential it is supposed to fulfil, and the anticipated benefits it offers to young drivers. From focus group research conducted in Australia, the book takes up the views of young people on a range of topics from media to car use to gender performance. The author looks at the ways in which driving has been defined by articulations of the car that emphasize valued features of the car driver, such as gender, youthfulness, status, age, power, raciness, sexiness, ruggedness, and competitiveness. The book takes a global perspective on mobility, considering the impact of cars and road safety policy on quality of life and the value and significance of other modes of travel in a range of countries.
