Subcommittee on the Departments of Commerce, Justice, and State, the Judiciary, and Related Agencies, 1998 Management of Privatised Housing Vincent Gruis, Sasha Tsenkova, N. Nieboer, 2009-11-09 The sale of public and social housing has been a major aspect of housing policies in recent decades Privatisation and a general retreat by governments from the housing arena have pushed up sales this has been particularly evident within Eastern European countries and China but is also taking place in many Western European countries and Australia Wherever it occurs such privatisation has lead to new challenges for housing management Many estates are now a mix of public and private raising questions about the division of responsibilities between different owners Legislation to address this is not adequate and public managers are still hampered by the bureaucratic mechanisms within their organisations while the new owners are not used to their responsibilities for maintenance Added to this are the limited financial resources for renewal and maintenance among both public and private owners at a time when the need for investments is urgent especially within the massive housing estates dating from the communist era Experts from Australia France the Netherlands UK Switzerland China the Czech Republic Moldavia Russia Serbia and Slovenia present their county s context and the policies and practice for managing privatised housing together with case studies illustrating the issues described How privatised public housing is managed is of international concern which will benefit from an international exchange of knowledge and best practice The comparative analysis offered in Management of Privatised Housing International Policies Practice makes a significant contribution to the literature on this important topic Energy and Water Development Appropriations for 2010, Part 1, 111-1 Hearings, 2009 Department of Transportation and Related Agencies Appropriations for 2003 United States.
