Migrant Mother Don Nardo, 2011 Explores and analyzes the historical context and significance of the iconic Dorothea Lange photograph of a migrant mother during the Great Depression These Vivid American Documents Joseph R. Millichap, 2024-10-18 The story behind the most iconic American photobooks of the twentieth century In the late 1930s and early 1940s the Farm Security Administration FSA funded a now famous photography project to document and highlight American rural life and its economic challenges In time the project launched a genre of works that incorporated photographic evidence and artistic documentation of rural poverty highlighting the struggles and resilience of the American people during this period Nearly a century later these photographs have become largely synonymous with the Great Depression In These Vivid American Documents Joseph R. Millichap presents an illuminating examination of four photobooks born of this FSA project Archibald MacLeish and Dorothea Lange's Land of the Free Walker Evans and Lincoln Kirstein's American Photographs Dorothea Lange and Paul Taylor's An American Exodus and James Agee and Walker Evans's Let Us Now Praise Famous Men Millichap includes in his analysis a curated selection of thirty-two photographs from these four photobooks showcasing the realities of the social individual political artistic and economic aspects of that time Through Millichap's thorough and insightful study readers will gain a deeper understanding of the significant cultural and historical impact of this photographic project Examining what are now historical American icons like Walker Evans's portrait of Allie Mae Burroughs and Dorothea Lange's Migrant Mother Millichap leans into the intersections tensions and meanings that this particular era and medium encapsulate His close comparison of the documentary and artistic purposes of the photobooks both analyzes how they balance text and imagery and offers a thoughtful study of the photographers and writers who produced them These Vivid American Documents is an illuminating volume for scholars and general readers alike Ain't Got No Home Erin Royston Battat, 2014 Ain't Got No Home America's Great Migrations and the Making of an Interracial Left Research Handbook on Migration and Employment Guglielmo Meardi, 2024-07-05 This insightful Research Handbook presents a comprehensive overview of the core issues concerning the integration of migration and employment studies highlighting the interdisciplinary and global perspectives required to understand the complexity of labour migration The Real Thing Miles Orvell, 2014-08-25 In this classic study of the relationship between technology and culture Miles Orvell demonstrates that the roots of contemporary popular culture reach back to the Victorian era when mechanical replications of familiar objects reigned supreme and realism dominated artistic representation Reacting against this genteel culture of imitation a number of artists and intellectuals at the turn of the century were inspired by the machine to create more authentic works of art that were themselves real things The resulting tension between a culture of imitation and a culture of authenticity argues Orvell has become a defining category in our culture The twenty-fifth anniversary edition includes a new preface by the author looking back on the late twentieth century and assessing tensions between imitation and authenticity

in the context of our digital age Considering material culture photography and literature the book touches on influential figures such as writers Walt Whitman Henry James John Dos Passos and James Agee photographers Alfred Stieglitz Walker Evans and Margaret Bourke White and architect designers Gustav Stickley and Frank Lloyd Wright

Death in American Texts and Performances Mark

Pizzato,2016-05-13 How do twentieth and twenty first century artists bring forth the powerful reality of death when it exists in memory and lived experience as something that happens only to others Death in American Texts and Performances takes up this question to explore the modern and postmodern aesthetics of death Working between and across genres the contributors examine literary texts and performance media including Robert Lowell s For the Union Dead Luis Valdez Dark Root of a Scream Amiri Baraka s Dutchman Thornton Wilder s Our Town John Edgar Wideman s The Cattle Killing Toni Morrison s Sula and Song of Solomon Don DeLillo s White Noise and Falling Man and HBO s Six Feet Under As the contributors struggle to convey the artist s crisis of representation they often locate the dilemma in the gap between artifice and nature where loss is performed and where re membering is sometimes literally reenacted through the bodily gesture While artists confront the impossibility of total recovery or transformation so must the contributors explore the gulf between real corpses and their literary or performative reconstructions Ultimately the volume shows both artist and critic grappling with the dilemma of showing how the aesthetics of death as absence is made meaningful in and by language

Maternal Fictions Indrani Karmakar, 2022-05-19 This book constitutes a feminist literary analysis of motherhood as presented in selected Indian women's fictions across a diverse range of geographical linguistic class and caste contexts Situated at the crossroads of motherhood studies and literary studies this book offers a rigorous examination of the prosody and politics of motherhood in this corpus In its five thematically focused chapters the book scrutinises in depth such key concerns as maternal ambivalence maternal agency and caste mother daughter relationships motherhood and diaspora and non biological motherhood It attempts to understand the literary ramifications of these issues in order to identify the ways in which fiction writers reconceive of the notion of motherhood and maternal identities from and against multiple perspectives

Another pressing concern is whether these Indian women writers' visions furnish readers with any different understandings of motherhood as compared to dominant Western feminist discourses. Maternal Fictions advances feminist literary criticism in the specific area of Indian women's writing and the overarching areas of motherhood and literature by acting as a launchpad into a complex constellation of ideas concerning motherhood. The fictional universe is at once ambivalent, diverse, contingent, grounded in a specific location and yet well placed to converse with discourses emanating from other times and places.
