Basic Personal Counselling: A Training Manual for Counsellors David Geldard, Kathryn Geldard, Rebecca Yin

Foo, 2017-01-01 Basic Personal Counselling is an easy to read introduction to counselling that reflects current best practice It teaches core interviewing skills and provides a framework of practical examples and training group exercises to enable students to progressively build a skill repertoire The book is designed to prepare students for field placement and therefore has a strong vocational focus Introduces counselling skills in a logical sequence and provides practical examples of the skills in action Discusses the process of change involved in counselling Provides approaches for counselling people with specific problems such as anger depression grief suicidal ideation Discusses professional issues including confidentiality ethics Stop Spinning Your Wheels James M. Montagnes, Suzanne C. Kranz, 2006 record keeping Theoretical Models of Counseling and Psychotherapy Kevin A. Fall, Janice Miner Holden, Andre Marguis, 2023-04-25 The fourth edition of Theoretical Models of Counseling and Psychotherapy provides a comprehensive overview of a variety of major counseling theories and focuses on the integration of different theoretical models With new information on multiculturalism and diversity the book offers a detailed description of the philosophical basis for each theory as well as historical context and biographical information on each theory s founder Chapters include new case excerpts and clinical examples and each chapter follows a consistent structure in its exploration of each theory s features including its approach to and ideas on personality development human nature the role of environment the change process in therapy and contributions to the mental health field Theory specific information on diagnosis psychopharmacology spirituality and gender issues is also discussed and there is an added emphasis on diversity and social justice issues The book is accompanied by instructor and student resources where professors and students will find exercises and course material that will further deepen their understanding of counseling theory and allow them to easily bridge classroom study to future practice Available for free download for each chapter PowerPoint slides and guizzes for each chapter with multiple choice guestions Therapy: Theory & Practice Leon Lojk, Bosiljka Boba Lojk, Besides Scientific Argument of Reality Therapy written by Leon Lojk reality therapy has never actually been presented in a broader theoretical context In addition to deepening understanding of total behaviour or understanding of the organism as an operationally closed self regulating system understanding of personality the relationship between the individual and their environment understanding the concept of relationships in light of choice theory the beliefs about human behaviour that underlie our actions and understanding mental health Theory and the Practice of Reality Therapy by Leon and Boba Lojk presents reality therapy in relation to other psychotherapeutic approaches through some similarities and differences between them Group reality therapy was presented in a similar way With regard to the reality therapy theory of practice so far only structured procedural reality therapy has been available in the literature Glasser called it the old reality therapy and advocated therapy using choice theory which he called the new reality therapy This is the authentic approach of the therapist who himself lives in accordance with choice theory beliefs which requires profound changes in the understanding of human behaviour Until now it has not been possible to find a description in the literature of how the process of new reality therapy flows except for the author's practical presentation of working with clients These pages present for the first time the new reality therapy theory of practice through formulation the relationship between therapist and client and the theory of change in reality therapy How reality therapy looks in practice is evident from practical examples of working with clients The offered reading is certainly welcome to participants in reality therapy training and to reality therapists practitioners and those who want to learn more about this Treatment Planning from a Reality Therapy Perspective Michael H. Fulkerson, LPCC, 2015-01-13 Designed to be a primer for mental health practitioners desiring to write treatment plans from a reality therapy perspective Treatment Planning from a Reality Therapy Perspective by author Michael H Fulkerson provides an explanation of how reality therapy treatment planning differs from traditional treatment planning models which are usually based on the medical model and or external control psychology Fulkerson offers a synopsis of his experience and research using reality therapy as a treatment modality presents a review of different treatment models and compares them to reality therapy provides examples of how to write treatment goals and objectives from a public health model rather than from a medical model that are precise and measurable covers documentation of progress notes and discusses cases studies A helpful resource for professionals wishing to incorporate reality therapy into treatment planning for their clients this second edition of Treatment Planning from a Reality Therapy Perspective offers treatment plans from a reality therapy perspective that have been field tested by a clinician who has received numerous successful reviews from health care organizations Handbook of Military Social Work Allen Rubin, Eugenia L.
