the small country village of Toco in Trinidad W I at the age of fifteen He continues his theme of using humor as a way of communication with his readers Together with his mother Mrs Nathaniel his oldest brother John and his middle brother Hezekiah all relocated to San Juan This was a very difficult adjustment for his family to make Absence of his father and learning the new ways of city life were challenges to everyone After a period of moving from place to place things began to happen John graduated as a school teacher Gabriel started an apprenticeship with the Trinidad Guardian Newspaper and Hezekiah was doing alright as a house painter The best thing that happen to the Nathaniel family was they bought their new house Gabriel completed his apprenticeship and decided to branch out on his own leaving his family and headed for London England

Police and the Policed Danielle Watson, 2018-10-11 This book examines communication between police and residents of a designated crime hotspot community in the Global South It looks at communicative realities within a marginalised community in the twin island republic of Trinidad and Tobago and explores how police and the individuals that they police purposefully assign categories to each other before during and after interactions It also examines the relations between the police and the community and how power is manifested through authored or assigned labels stigmas and stereotypes Overall it suggests alternative strategies to address problematic police and community relations and provides another standpoint from which communicative redress between police and residents of marginalized communities in the Global South can be approached

Trinidad Carnival Garth L. Green, Philip W. Scher, 2007-03-28 Like many Caribbean nations Trinidad has felt the effects of globalization on its economy politics and expressive culture Even Carnival once a clandestine folk celebration has been transformed into a major transnational festival In Trinidad Carnival Garth L Green Philip W Scher and an international group of scholars explore Carnival as a reflection of the nation and culture of Trinidad and Trinidadians worldwide The nine essays cover topics such as women in Carnival the politics and poetics of Carnival Carnival and cultural memory Carnival as a tourist enterprise the steelband music of Carnival Calypso music on the world stage Carnival and rap and Carnival as a global celebration For readers interested in the history and current expression of Carnival this volume offers a multidimensional and transnational view of Carnival as a representation of Trinidad and Caribbean culture everywhere Contributors are Robin Balliger Shannon Dudley Pamela R Franco Patricia A de Freitas Ray Funk Garth L Green Donald R Hill Lyndon Phillip Victoria Razak and Philip W Scher

The Trinidad Dougl Ferne Louanne Regis, 2016-08-17 In their search for personal identity Trinidad s Douglas the offspring of Indo African unions find themselves in a complex social cultural and linguistic situation This is reflected as much in their unclear and uncertain social positioning in a society of competing ethnic groups as in the linguistic possibilities open to them in their quotidian social interactions as they negotiate between their parent communities Trinidadian English Creole TEC the mother tongue or lingua franca of the majority of the population exhibits a lexical amalgam of donor varieties brought to the island during the period of its colonization The extent to which Trinidadians employ these lexical items is linked to their affinity to a particular donor group

As a consequence of this Douglas ethnicity and identity are hypothesized as being expressed chiefly through the use of lexical items available to them via their upbringing in specific communities This book describes and analyses specific lexical items in use by Douglas who reside in mixed race communities as well as communities stereotypically marked Indic and Afric by Trinidadians to determine the extent to which Douglas project a distinct identity a subsumed identity linked to an ancestral ethnic group or a shifting identity based on accommodative strategies employed during interaction within their social networks
