Helming,2015-09-08     British Books in Print ,1980     Kurdish Armour Against ISIS Ed Nash,Alaric Searle,2021-09-16

One of the most remarkable mechanized campaigns of recent years pitted the brutal and heavily armed jihadis of Islamic State against an improvised force belonging to the Kurdish YPG later the SDF While some Kurdish vehicles were originally from Syrian Army stocks or captured from ISIS many others were extraordinary homemade AFVs based on truck or digger mechanicals or duskas the Kurds version of the technical Before US air power was sent to Syria these were the Kurds most powerful and mobile weapons Co written by a British volunteer who fought with the Kurds and an academic expert on armoured warfare this study explains how the Kurds built and used their AFVs in the war against Daesh and identifies as far as possible which vehicles took part in major battles such as Kobane Manbij and Raqqa With detailed new artwork depicting the Kurds range of armour and many previously unpublished photos this is an original and fascinating look at modern improvised mechanized warfare     The Tourism-Disaster-Conflict Nexus Andreas Neef,Jesse Hession

Grayman,2018-11-12 Tourism is often seen as the world s peace industry Yet while tourism may play a major role in post conflict and post disaster recovery the sector can also be a trigger of crisis and disaster This book examines the complex linkages between tourism disaster and conflict through a series of case studies drawn mainly from the Asia Pacific region

Struberville: The Consequences of Isolation Monte Dwyer,2013-01-01 On a remote cattle station in Far North Queensland four gold prospectors push their luck and pay the price Venturing too close to the homestead they attract the attention of the landholders who arrive armed and dangerous Only three of the prospectors make it out alive This is the story of Bruce Schuler s murder at Palmerville Station on the 9th of July 2012 His murderers Stephen Struber and his wife Dianne Wilson had for decades been a law unto themselves terrorising all who dared cross their land Or as Struber saw it playing Cowboys and Indians and chasing them off the property Using real bullets Struberville is also a look at the darker side of isolation and what happens to the civilising influence of society when nobody s watching out there     Walter Kaufmann Stanley

Corngold,2018-12-11 The first complete account of the ideas and writings of a major figure in twentieth century intellectual life Walter Kaufmann 1921 1980 was a charismatic philosopher critic translator and poet who fled Nazi Germany at the age of eighteen emigrating alone to the United States He was astonishingly prolific until his untimely death at age fifty nine writing some dozen major books all marked by breathtaking erudition and a provocative essayistic style He single handedly rehabilitated Nietzsche s reputation after World War II and was enormously influential in introducing postwar American readers to existentialism Until now no book has examined his intellectual legacy Stanley Corngold provides the first in depth study of Kaufmann s thought covering all his major works He shows how Kaufmann speaks to many issues that concern us today such as the good of philosophy the effects of religion the persistence of tragedy and the crisis of the humanities in an age of technology Few scholars in modern times can match Kaufmann's range of interests from philosophy and literature to intellectual history and comparative religion from psychology and photography to art and architecture Corngold provides a heartfelt portrait of a man who to an extraordinary extent transfigured his personal experience in the pages of his books This original study both appreciative and critical is the definitive intellectual life of one of the twentieth century's most engaging yet neglected thinkers It will introduce Kaufmann to a new generation of readers and serves as a fitting tribute to a scholar's incomparable libido sciendi or lust for knowledge CHANGE! M. Hijazi,2020-02-08 In 2015 more than one million people came to Europe as refugees Germany got the largest share of them The reason was that the German Chancellor Angela Merkel opened the borders stating everyone was welcome When the critics asked her why she is quoted in the media as saying Wir schaffen das which means We can do this Mrs Merkel added It is a national duty DW 04 09 2017 Many small German cities were unable to deal with this massive influx of refugees Some people blamed Mrs Merkel and considered it to be a mistake It was truly a catastrophe and until today Germany has suffered from this disaster Said Mansoor was a wealthy TV presenter of a political show in Iraq He was threatened with death because he had apparently crossed a red line in his show by opening cases against people in the Iraqi government He fled Iraq in search of a safe place Europe Germany During his journey he faced many difficulties and challenges He also met some important influential people with connections Those who have a significant influence on our lives These people helped Said to achieve his aim in his journey Was the help for free or did Said have to give something in return This fictional story is based on a true story However there are many events scenes name of people and cities which have been changed for privacy protection and security CHANGE It has never been easy Village Gone Viral Marit Tolo Østebø,2021-02-16 In 2001 Ethiopian Television aired a documentary about a small rural village called Awra Amba where women ploughed men worked in the kitchen and so called harmful traditional practices did not exist The documentary radically challenged prevailing images of Ethiopia as a gender conservative and aid dependent place and Awra Amba became a symbol of gender equality and sustainable development in Ethiopia and beyond Village Gone Viral uses the example of Awra Amba to consider the widespread circulation and use of modeling practices in an increasingly transnational and digital policy world With a particular focus on traveling models policy models that become viral through various vectors ranging from NGOs and multilateral organizations to the Internet Marit Tolo Østebø critically examines the hidden dimensions of models and model making While a policy model may be presented as a best practice one that can be scaled up and successfully applied to other places the local impacts of the model paradigm are far more ambivalent potentially increasing social inequalities reinforcing social stratification and concealing injustice With this book Østebø ultimately calls for a reflexive critical anthropology of the production circulation and use of models as instruments for social change The Hirsch Institute of Tropical Medicine Dieter Häussinger,2019-04-15 In 2013 the Hirsch Institute of Tropical Medicine HITM was officially inaugurated as a branch of the Department of Gastroenterology Hepatology and Infectious

Diseases at Heinrich Heine University Düsseldorf under the direction of Professor Dieter Hüssinger The HITM serves as a place of scientific medical knowledge transfer postgraduate medical training and of conducting scientific projects relating to tropical medicine and infectious diseases The publication relates the past activities of the institute its history and perspectives Moreover it permits a look behind the scenes during the construction of the institute in Africa and describes the living conditions and impressions of the staff Dieter Hüssinger Director of the HITM and the Department of Gastroenterology Hepatology and Infectious Diseases and Professor of Internal Medicine at Heinrich Heine University Düsseldorf focuses on the areas of clinical and experimental hepatology and gastroenterology he is committed to the expansion and further development of the field of infectious diseases He encouraged the certification of his department as a Center of Infectious Diseases the addition of a tropical medicine and an infectious diseases outpatient clinic the building of the Liver and Infectious Diseases Center which houses the only treatment unit in North Rhine Westphalia for highly infectious patients and the founding of the Hirsch Institute of Tropical Medicine

The Caravan Delhi Press,2017-11-11 Salman Khan has appeared in some of the biggest blockbusters in Hindi film history But his career has been blighted by allegations of involvement in crimes of poaching domestic violence and culpable homicide In the last decade the star has tried to reform his image If he has succeeded to some extent Anna MM Vetticad reports it has been not just through his own efforts but also the willingness of his fans and many around him to accept or justify even his most disturbing behaviour Also in this issue How Malayalam cinema's only female superstar got back to work The cinematic myth making of Louis Mountbatten Why Indian films box office figures do not add up Nepali politics sees a major reconfiguration in time for a watershed election Unsafe abortions through the ages Old Delhi's subversive love letter manuals

The Alaskan Retreater's Notebook Ray Ordorica,2016-01-19 In the fall of 1978 Ray Ordorica packed everything he thought he would need into his Toyota LandCruiser and drove north to Alaska He came to a land he had never seen to find something he wasn't even sure existed a wilderness cabin he could use for a year or more to live think relax read and write Ordorica found his cabin fixed it up and although it was just an uninsulated 12 by 16 foot one room log structure he spent three winters in it in relative comfort Ordorica's life in that cabin fulfilled a dream he had had for more than ten years During his long winters in Alaska it occurred to him that there must be many others who have put off an extended wilderness visit to out of ignorance or fear They have as many questions about Alaska as he had before he arrived How do you cope with 40 below How do you get water Is it totally dark in mid winter These questions and many more gave Ordorica the idea to write the Alaskan Retreater's Notebook an epic memoir about one man's journey into the Alaskan wilderness With his wisdom you will learn how to live with the country and not against it

Tribes David Lammy,2020-03-05 A superb book about the tribalism gripping British politics Tribes is measured searching pitilessly self scrutinising and would probably amaze anyone who knows its author only from his Twitter persona Decca Aitkenhead Sunday Times David was the first black Briton to study at Harvard Law School and practised as a barrister before entering politics He has served as the Member of Parliament for Tottenham since 2000 Today David is one of

Parliament's most prominent and successful campaigners for social justice. He led the campaign for Windrush British citizens to be granted British citizenship and has been at the forefront of the fight for justice for the families affected by the Grenfell Tower fire. In 2007 inspired by the bicentenary of the Abolition of the Slave Trade Act and looking to explore his own African roots, David Lammy took a DNA test. Ostensibly he was a middle-aged husband, father, MP for Tottenham and a die-hard Spurs fan. But his nucleic acids revealed that he was 25% Tuareg tribe, Niger; 25% Temne tribe, Sierra Leone; 25% Bantu tribe, South Africa; with 5% traces of Celtic Scotland and a mishmash of other unidentified groups. Both memoir and call to arms, Tribes explores both the benign and malign effects of our need to belong. How this need, genetically programmed and socially acquired, can manifest itself in positive ways collaboratively achieving great things that individuals alone cannot. And yet how in recent years globalisation and digitisation have led to new, more pernicious kinds of tribalism. This book is a fascinating and perceptive analysis of not only the way the world works but also the way we really are. Not the Type Camilla Thurlow, 2020-08-20. You can reinvent yourself, you can change, you can grow, you can regress, you can be any number of things at any particular time. Please give yourself permission to do that and be equally as open-minded to others who choose to do the same. Because perhaps with just a little more compassion and acceptance, we won't need to fit in or feel that we belong. Camilla Thurlow came second on Love Island in 2017. More recently she impressed viewers in Celebrity SAS: Who Dares Wins. But that's not the most interesting part. Camilla can do something that none of her fellow contestants can do: find, neutralise and destroy the landmines that threaten the lives and livelihoods of so many people in the world's former war zones and which make their land too dangerous to be worked. This is at once a memoir of an extraordinary life and a script for living one's life to the full. Camilla Thurlow is a highly independent woman whose thoughts and experience will resonate with anyone seeking meaning in a world where women are too often discounted or who frequently feel alienated amid the frenzy of contemporary life. This is a book about courage, not just the courage to go out and deal with a lethal threat in some of the world's most dangerous and inhospitable places but the courage to confront one's own fears and anxieties and to be oneself in what too often seems an inhospitable world. Not the Type will inspire a whole generation to dare the seemingly impossible. Although often an engaging reflection on life, landmines and Love Island, this is also a book about learning to confront one's own anxieties in a world dominated by celebrity culture and social media and on being a woman in what is still too often a man's world. The Dragon's Voice Buntty Avieson, 2015-04-01. This is a fascinating account of ancient culture colliding with modern media. Tucked between Tibet and India in the Himalayas, the kingdom of Bhutan is one of the most isolated and beautiful countries in the world. In The Dragon's Voice, Australian journalist Buntty Avieson provides a glimpse of life beyond the country's exotic exterior. As a consultant to local newspaper Bhutan Observer, she admires the paper's strong social conscience but finds her expectations challenged in a country where spirituality and personal happiness are prioritized over work. Avieson also witnesses the tensions that arise as a Buddhist kingdom makes the transition to democracy. The courtship ritual of night hunting and the nation's first public demonstration become controversial news items while journalists must overcome traditional social hierarchies to keep politicians accountable With a unique blend of memoir and reportage The Dragon's Voice is both a deeply personal story and a vivid portrait of a nation on the cusp of revolutionary change

Stalemate Andrew Ong, 2023-06-15 Stalemate reveals the history and contemporary politics of the United Wa State Army UWSA Asia's strongest insurgent army on Myanmar's border with China This ethnographic tale recounts how a highland group often dismissed as rebels or narcotraffickers maintains a relational autonomy between two powerful lowland states The Wa polity engages rather than evades these surrounding states yet struggles to fit into their registers of sovereignty and statehood Andrew Ong examines political culture among Wa elites and people UWSA external relations and capital flows with neighboring China showing how Wa autonomy is enacted through careful navigation of complex borderland geopolitics and the shadow economy He analyzes the seeming stalemate between the Myanmar state and the UWSA as one of tactical dissonance adopting simultaneous postures of authority and subordination and creating disruptions and connections Stalemate illuminates how seemingly ambiguous and disorderly practices of political signaling economic regulation and military governance produce relative stability challenging our assumptions about state-like processes at the peripheries

The Lives of Lepidopterists Lee A. Dyer, Matthew L. Forister, 2015-12-01 Inchworms tiger moths underwings owl moths silkworms sphinx moths grass moths and butterflies Collectively these and many others are the Lepidoptera one of the most diverse groups of animals on the planet Lepidoptera can be found in the highest tropical canopies the driest deserts and at the leading edge of science The adults include some of the most beautiful insects that have inspired artists and have sailed through the dreams of human cultures for millennia The immature stages caterpillars like the underwing depicted on the cover link together vital processes in diverse terrestrial ecosystems that are only barely documented let alone understood The people that study these animals are lepidopterists and the goal of this book is to introduce them with their own words In twenty chapters lepidopterists tell their stories and these tales mirror the diversity of nature in their range and depth You will find individuals that wrestle with the challenges of scientific careers stories of far-flung travel and close calls and historical perspectives on recent decades of scientific breakthroughs

The Para-State Aldo Civico, 2015-11-24 Since its independence in the nineteenth century the South American state of Colombia has been shaped by decades of bloody political violence In The Para State Aldo Civico draws on interviews with paramilitary death squads and drug lords to provide a cultural interpretation of the country's history of violence and state control Between 2003 and 2008 Civico gained unprecedented access to some of Colombia's most notorious leaders of the death squads He also conducted interviews with the victims of paramilitary with drug kingpins and with vocal public supporters of the paramilitary groups Drawing on the work of Deleuze and Guattari this riveting work demonstrates how the paramilitaries have in essence become a war machine deployed by the Colombian state to control and maintain its territory and political legitimacy
