

To Our Coach, Name

*You've taught us the basics about how to play ball From running the bases to catching the ball
We learned about fielding and the love of the game From pop-ups to grounders your focus remained To enjoy ourselves
and have lots of fun
It didn't matter
if we lost or won As long as we played hard and perfected our swing And learned the lessons a good coach might bring Thank you for the many lessons that you've taught But mostly, for teaching us to be good sports...*

Love, Any Name Here

The Dad Report: Fathers, Sons, and Baseball Families Kevin Cook,2015-06-01

An unforgettable look at how baseball families share our national pastime Baseball honors legacies from cheering the home team to breaking in an old glove handed down from father to son In The Dad Report award winning sportswriter Kevin Cook weaves a tapestry of uplifting stories in which fathers and sons from the sport s superstars to Cook and his own ball playing father share the game Almost two hundred father son pairs have played in the big leagues Cook takes us inside the clubhouses homes and lives of many of the greats Aaron Boone follows grandfather Bob father Ray and brother Bret to the majors three generations of All Stars Barry Bonds and Ken Griffey Jr strive to outdo their famous dads Michael Jordan walks away from basketball to play minor league baseball to fulfill his father's dream. In visiting these legendary families Cook discovers that ball playing families are a lot like our own. Dan Haren regrets the long road trips that keep him from his kids. Ike Davis and his father debate whether Ike should pitch or play first base. Buddy Bell leads a generation of big leaguers determined to open their workplace the clubhouse to their kids. Framing The Dad Report is the story of Kevin Cook's own father Art Cook a minor league pitcher a loveable rogue with a wicked screwball. In Art's later years Kevin phoned him almost every night to talk baseball. They called those nightly conversations the Dad Report. In time Kevin came to see that these conversations were about much more than the game. That's what this book is about the way fathers and sons talk baseball as a way of talking about everything courage fear fun family morality mortality and how it's not whether you win or lose that counts it's how you share the game.

Baseball, I Gave You All the Best Years of My Life Richard Grossinger, Lisa Conrad, 1992. This book includes Donald Hall Jack Kerouac Robert Kelly Bill Lee Paul Metcalf Anne Waldman Tom Clark and Bernadette Mayer. The quality of the work in this anthology varies widely but the sheer unlikeliness of a volume of neo beat baseball poetry and new age inflected essays cannot help but inspire generosity. The photography is remarkable and the photo essays of baseball stars of the 1950s and 1960s have this awe inspiring sense of the mundane about them.

Stormer's Pass Benjamin Laskin, 2003-11. Stormer's Pass. In a world where integrity and courage are on the retreat you can't wait for a hero. You can only become one. The sleepy mountain town of Pinecrest is jolted from its slumbers by two of its most unlikely citizens gifted high school athlete Max Stormer and Aidos an extraordinary teenager who has been living for years unobserved on the outskirts of town. Aidos sacrifices her anonymity to befriend the troubled Max Stormer awakening him to potential he never knew he possessed and to a courage and heroism far greater than he ever needed to show on any playing field. Be he anarchist or hero outlaw or savior being a champion was never harder as Max finds himself captain of something much bigger than a football team. Stormer's Pass is the gripping adventure of two people's uncommon faith in each other in their friends and in the magic of courage.
