4 Disciplines of Execution Sean Covey, Chris McChesney, Jim Huling, 2012-04-26

The Four Disciplines of Execution is about a simple proven formula for reaching the goals you want to reach as a business or individual. In Covey's experience, the thing that most undermines the ability to execute goals is what he calls the Whirlwind: those urgent tasks that must be done simply to keep an organization alive. As Covey shows, the only way to execute new important goals is to separate those goals from the Whirlwind. The Four Disciplines allow leaders to create a strategy that requires a change in behaviour since only by ensuring that everyone on the team understands the goal, knows what to do to reach it, and knows whether progress is being made will a leader produce consistent breakthrough results while sustaining the urgent work of the Whirlwind.

The Four Disciplines of Execution are:

- 1 Focus on the Wildly Important
- 2 Act on the Lead Measures
- 3 Keep a Compelling Scoreboard
- 4 Create a Cadence of Accountability

For more than a decade, Franklin Covey has been studying what it takes to achieve important goals, and in this book, they share success stories from a wide range of companies that have implemented the Four Disciplines to result in greater profits, increased market share, and improved customer satisfaction. This way of thinking is essential to any company that wants to not only weather but thrive in this economy.

PeopleMatter Now More Than Ever

THE SERVICE INDUSTRY, including restaurants, convenience stores, and other retail companies, has seen a tremendous amount of change in recent years, and not all for the better. These businesses are facing some major challenges from slim margins and high turnover rates to ever-changing workforce management issues influenced by politics, generational trends, and the new post-downturn economy. PeopleMatter puts forth the simple yet powerful idea that the key to overcoming these challenges lies with your people. You can't accomplish any of your goals without them, and if you can better understand who they are, what they want, and how to engage and motivate them, you can unlock a world of potential that will make a positive difference in more ways than one. The payoff can be huge, not just in terms of bettering your bottom line but also in the lives of everyone involved, including you. Your people are the most valuable asset you've got, and helping them find real meaning and purpose in their lives is both good for business and good for them. Plus, being able to do that for someone else is a pretty powerful and inspiring thing.
