The Age Of Doubt:

The Age of Doubt Kyongni Pak,2022-09-15 The Age of Doubt collects some of Pak Kyongni s most famous works including her 1955 debut and other stories featuring characters that would appear in her 21 volume epic Toji Many of Pak s stories reflect her own turbulent experiences during the period following the Korean war and the various South Korean dictatorships throughout the twentieth century The Age of Doubt Christopher Lane,2011-01-01 The Victorian era was the first great Age of Doubt and a critical moment in the history of Western ideas Leading nineteenth century intellectuals battled the Church and struggled to absorb radical scientific discoveries that upended everything the Bible had taught them about the world In The Age of Doubt distinguished scholar Christopher Lane tells the fascinating story of a society under strain as virtually all aspects of life changed abruptly In deft portraits of scientific literary and intellectual icons who challenged the prevailing religious orthodoxy from Robert Chambers and Anne Bronte to Charles Darwin and Thomas H Huxley Lane demonstrates how they and other Victorians succeeded in turning doubt from a religious sin into an ethical necessity The dramatic adjustment of Victorian society has echoes today as technology science and religion grapple with moral issues that seemed unimaginable even a decade ago Yet the Victorians crisis of faith generated a far more searching engagement with religious belief than the new atheism that has evolved today More profoundly than any generation before them the Victorians came to view doubt as inseparable from belief thought and debate as well as a much needed antidote to fanaticism and unbridled certainty By contrast a look at today s extremes from the biblical literalists behind the Creation Museum to the dogmatic rigidity of Richard Dawkins s atheism highlights our modern day inability to embrace doubt

Rome in the Age of Enlightenment Hanns Gross, 2004-04-22 This is the only scholarly work in the English language on the city of Rome in the Age of the Enlightenment and the only book in any language to treat this fascinating city in all its multifarious aspects Professor Gross combines extensive archival research with the latest findings of other scholars to produce a uniquely rounded portrait of the papal capital elegantly illustrated with contemporary engravings by Piranesi and others The book is divided into two sections in the first of which Professor Gross discusses the material and institutional structures of the city including its demography economy food supply and judicial systems The second section considers aspects of intellectual cultural and artistic life Professor Gross contends not only that ancien regime Rome witnessed a decline in Counter Reformation fervour but that this decay resulted in a marked dissonance in the political social and cultural life of the city

This two part six volume edition illustrates the depth and reach of this influence by publishing pamphlets dealing with the major political issues of these decades European Kinship in the Age of Biotechnology Jeanette Edwards, Carles Salazar, 2009-03-01 Interest in the study of kinship a key area of anthropological enquiry has recently reemerged Dubbed the new kinship this interest was stimulated by the new genetics and revived interest in kinship and family patterns This volume investigates the impact of biotechnology on contemporary understandings of kinship of family and belonging in a variety of European settings and reveals similarities and differences in how kinship is conceived What constitutes kinship for different publics How significant are biogenetic links What does family resemblance tell us Why is genetically modified food an issue Are genes and blood interchangeable It has been argued that the recent prominence of genetic science and genetic technologies has resulted in a geneticization of social life the ethnographic examples presented here do show shifts occurring in notions of nature and of what is natural But they also illustrate the complexity of contemporary kinship thinking in Europe and the continued interconnectedness of biological and sociological understandings of relatedness and the relationship between nature and nurture Immortality and the Body in the Age of Milton John Rumrich, Stephen M. Fallon, 2018-03-01 Seventeenth century England teemed with speculation on body and its relation to soul Descartes dualist certainty was countered by materialisms whether mechanist or vitalist The most important and distinctive literary reflection of this ferment is John Milton s vitalist or animist materialism which underwrites the cosmic worlds of Paradise Lost In a time of philosophical upheaval and innovation Milton and an unusual collection of fascinating and diverse contemporary writers including John Donne Margaret Cavendish John Bunyan and Hester Pulter addressed the potency of the body now viewed not as a drag on the immaterial soul or a site of embarrassment but as an occasion for heroic striving and a vehicle of transcendence This collection addresses embodiment in relation to the immortal longings of early modern writers variously abetted by the new science print culture and the Copernican upheaval of the heavens Civil Justice in the Age of Human Rights Mr Joseph M Jacob, 2013-01-28 The end of the last century witnessed two major events in the field of civil justice the Civil Procedure Rules CPR came into force and the Human Rights Act HRA gave effect to the European Convention on Human Rights This volume assesses the effect of the Act and attempts to reconcile the expediency and efficiency essential to modern civil justice with the need for recognition of human dignity and equality inherent to human rights The book is primarily concerned with the effects of the HRA on civil procedure and in particular the effects on the CPR It examines the view that the new civil procedure regime could be susceptible to HRA challenges More specifically the work discusses whether there are differences between the CPR and the ECHR ideas of what constitutes a fair trial or just decision and between their views of proportionality The study notes the differences between common and civil law and discusses whether there is any coming together with other European systems This book will be a valuable resource for academics and researchers as well as lawyers and judges with an interest in the practical implications of the HRA Judaism and

Christianity in the Age of Constantine Jacob Neusner, 2008-09-15 With the conversion of Constantine in 312 Christianity began a period of political and cultural dominance that it would enjoy until the twentieth century Jacob Neusner contradicts the prevailing view that following Christianity's ascendancy Judaism continued to evolve in isolation He argues that because of the political need to defend its claims to religious authenticity Judaism was forced to review itself in the context of a triumphant Christianity The definition of issues long discussed in Judaism the meaning of history the coming of the Messiah and the political identity of Israel became of immediate and urgent concern to both parties What emerged was a polemical dialogue between Christian and Jewish teachers that was unprecedented In a close analysis of texts by the Christian theologians Eusebius Aphrahat and Chrysostom on one hand and of the central Jewish works the Talmud of the Land of Israel the Genesis Rabbah and the Leviticus Rabbah on the other Neusner finds that both religious groups turned to the same corpus of Hebrew scripture to examine the same fundamental issues Eusebius and Genesis Rabbah both address the issue of history Chrysostom and the Talmud the issue of the Messiah and Aphrahat and Leviticus Rabbah the issue of Israel As Neusner demonstrates the conclusions drawn shaped the dialogue between the two religions for the rest of their shared history in the West
