Selling the Movie Ian Haydn Smith, 2018 As long as there have been movies there have been posters selling films to audiences Posters came into existence just decades before the inception of film and as movies became a universal medium of entertainment posters likewise became a ubiquitous form of advertising At first movie posters suggested a film's theme from adventure and romance to thrills and spine tingling horror Then with the ascendancy of the film star posters began to sell icons and lifestyles nowhere more so than in Hollywood But every country producing films used posters to sell their product Selling the Movie The Art of the Film Poster charts the history of the movie poster from both a creative and a commercial perspective It includes sections focusing on poster artists the development of styles the influence of politics and ideology and how commerce played a role in the film poster's development The book is richly illustrated with poster art from many countries and all eras of filmmaking From creating the brand of Charlie Chaplin's tramp and marketing the elusive mystique of Greta Garbo to the history of the blockbuster the changing nature of graphic design by the decade and the role of the poster in the digital age Selling the Movie is an entertaining and enthralling journey through cinema art and the business of attracting audiences to the box office Film by Design Gary D. Rhodes, Robert Singer, 2024-09-16 Contributions by Vlad Dima Laura Hatry Alicia Kozma Lynette Kuliyeve Madhuja Mukherjee Frank Percaccio Gary D Rhodes Courtney Ruffner Grieneisen Marlisa Santos Michael L Shuman and Robert Singer Movie posters regardless of their country of origin have become indelibly linked with the films they represent often assuming a status as visual encapsulations of films within collective memory Long after their initial role in promotion is complete these posters endure as iconic images etched into film history and cultural consciousness One can hardly hear mention of Steven Spielberg's landmark production Jaws for example without immediately picturing the evocative poster art of Roger Kastel Film by Design: The Art of the Movie Poster is a groundbreaking and comprehensive exploration of the international and Hollywood movie poster as a dynamic artistic and cultural formation. Drawing inspiration from such prominent genres as horror, science fiction, and noir, the twelve essays in this collection provide insightful analyses of the movie poster as a vital component of the cinematic landscape from the silent era to the contemporary period. Crucially, this anthology rejects the notion of movie posters as mere historical artifacts or advertising tools and instead examines them as integral parts of a broader aesthetic framework interwoven into their respective film narratives. Each chapter, whether focusing on controversies, close-ups, or Cuba, is accessible to scholars, students, and fans alike. Through its intervention in film studies, Film by Design reveals the movie poster to be an ever-evolving medium, firmly grounded in both theory and practice while serving as an essential and enduring element within the realm of film art.

Milo March #23 Kendell Foster Crossen, M.E. Chaber, 2021-06-04 For the first time in book form, six stories from vintage men's magazines (1952-1961) featuring Milo March, the shrewd insurance investigator and brazen secret agent created by M.E. Chaber. The Jelly Roll Heist: A series of thefts in Denver has the insurance executives biting their nails. Judging by the loss of a belly dancer's navel gem, it looks like a seducer is preying on ladies with sparkly things. Or is there a more sinister gang behind it? Hair the Color of Blood: Milo's on vacation at a swank Santa Monica hotel when he hears a scream. He rushes to save the damsel in distress, and the next thing he knows he's waking up in bed with the naked body of a red-haired corpse. The Hot Ice Blues: A new jewel robbery occurs every night while Milo sits around playing Dixieland platters with a real gone chick. Is the insurance company's star investigator really goofing off? Murder for Madame: Someone swipes a worthless box, tossing aside the costly pearl necklace that was inside. Now four people are desperate to retrieve the box, five if you count Milo, who can't resist trying to figure out why. The Red Red

Flowers Major March U S Army Reserve is sent undercover to Moscow where a captured American U 2 pilot is on trial As usual Milo has no plan but makes it up as he goes along He will have mere moments to retrieve a coded message and snatch the pilot from the Communists hands but things don t go exactly as expected The Twisted Trap Just because you re paranoid doesn t mean they re not out to get you A wealthy old policyholder claims that his sexy young wife and her psychiatrist lover have teamed up to poison him with a drug that mimics the symptoms of madness If he should die accidentally as a result of this condition his wife will get an enormous life insurance payout Having escaped from a sanatorium the old man insists that Milo must rescue him But doing so may cost Milo his own sanity
