The Agile Church Spirit Led Innovation In An Uncertain Age:

The Agile Church Dwight J. Zscheile, 2014-11-01 Brings theological insights together with cutting edge thinking on organizational innovation to help churches flourish in a time of profound uncertainty and spiritual opportunity In today's dynamic cultural environment churches have to be more than faithful they have to be agile That means embracing processes of trial failure and adaptation as they form Christian community with new neighbors And that means a whole new way of being church Taking one page from the Bible and another from Silicon Valley priest and scholar Dwight Zscheile brings theological insights together with cutting edge thinking on organizational innovation to help churches flourish in a time of profound uncertainty and spiritual opportunity Picking up where his bestseller People of the Way left off Zscheile answers urgent and practical questions around how churches become agile and adaptive to meet cultural change Memories, Hopes, and Conversations Mark Lau Branson, 2016-06-09 Memories Hopes and Conversations is a powerful resource that introduces readers to Appreciative Inquiry a transformational organizational change process that focuses on the strengths of a group The second edition has been revised and expanded throughout featuring important new materials on leadership and missional frameworks as well as five chapters from pastors describing the transformational experiences of their churches and neighbors using Appreciative Inquiry The book offers a dynamic overview of the Appreciative Inquiry process real stories of change in action and a wealth of practical resources for churches to pursue this journey of appreciation imagination and change The second edition includes dynamic stories of Appreciative Inquiry in practice from Christopher Gobrecht New Covenant United Methodist Church Maryland Jim S Amstutz Akron Mennonite Church Pennsylvania Jean Burch Community Bible Church California Andrew Menzies Camberwell Baptist Church Australia Michael R Wilson Chestnut Level Presbyterian Church Pennsylvania Church Planting in the Secular West Stefan Paas, 2016-11-03 An expert study of church planting in the most secular part of contemporary Europe In this book Stefan Paas offers thoughtful analysis of reasons and motives for missionary church planting in Europe and he explores successful and unsuccessful strategies in that post Christian secularized context Drawing in part on his own involvement with planting two churches in the Netherlands Paas explores confessional motives growth motives and innovation motives for church planting in Europe tracing them back to different traditions and reflecting on them from theological and empirical perspectives He presents examples from the European context and offers sound advice for improving existing missional practices Paas also draws out lessons for North America in a chapter coauthored with Darrell Guder and John Franke Finally Paas weaves together the various threads in the book with a theological defense of church planting Presenting new research as it does this critical missiological perspective will add significantly to a fuller understanding of church planting in our contemporary context Leading Lutheran Higher Education in a Secular Age Brian Beckstrom, 2020-07-15 Lutheran colleges and universities occupy a distinctive space in American higher education In an age where the dividing line between sacred and secular has become blurred Brian

Beckstrom argues that their rooted and open approach combined with adaptive theological leadership could be the best hope for faith based higher education To do so he provides an overview of Lutheran higher education its history and identity and combines surveys of students faculty and staff at Lutheran institutions with leadership theory and theological reflection Leaders at Lutheran colleges and universities will find it to be helpful in understanding their mission identity and vocation in a secular age and navigating the changing cultural environment that challenges the church and higher education alike

Leading Congregations and Nonprofits in a Connected World Hayim Herring, Terri Martinson Elton, 2016-11-02 Leading Congregations and Nonprofits in a Connected World shares emerging practices for leading and organizing congregations and nonprofits in our increasingly networked lives Drawing on studies of congregations across denominations and nonprofits with historic ties to faith communities Hayim Herring and Terri Elton share practical research based guidance for how these organizations can more deeply engage with their communities and advance their impact in a socially connected world

Theology and Ethics for the Public Church Samuel Yonas Deressa, Mary Sue Dreier, 2023-11-24 How might the Christian church effectively engage today s politically charged profit motivated world while remaining faithful to its biblical and theological roots The contributors in this book argue that public theology provides a promising pathway forward The public theology emerging from these pages has been influenced by the theological interests and commitments of Gary M Simpson Lutheran pastor and systematic theologian His approach to public theology is intersectional and global he artfully weaves together Lutheran theology and the civil society arena of Critical Social Theory These essays provide three angles of vision on faith active in twenty first century public contexts contextual ethical and theological While not mutually exclusive these distinct strands of thought engage and challenge the church to substantial reflection on the challenging and often bewildering circumstances of the twenty first century social world Some reflect on God s activity within particular global contexts others offer new perspectives on Lutheran confessional traditions still others step boldly into innovative theological assertions As the Christian church is ever forming and reforming this book urges it to grapple with the publicness of its timely and timeless mission

Embracing the Mixed Ecology Dwight J. Zscheile, Blair A Pogue, 2025-06-03 A guide to the diverse forms of Christian community that are needed today Throughout its history the church thrived when it embraced diverse organizational and cultural forms In this volume Dwight Zscheile and Blair Pogue argue that as American culture shifts away from voluntary association and toward individual self expression most existing congregations are bound to inherited forms of church that are not designed to connect with neighbors or form disciples Taking the Church of England s efforts over two decades to engage its deeply changed missionary context as an example the authors build on historical and contemporary precedent to argue that the renewal of the church requires a new paradigm where inherited and innovative forms of church coexist and thrive together Examining numerous innovations including fresh expressions of church megachurches microchurches church plants digital churches and more the authors show how a mixed ecology is central to church renewal A Generous Community C. Andrew Doyle, 2015-10 Bishop Andy Doyle understands that the church must change Every day he presides over parishes that are no longer vital that have not adapted to the VUCA volatile uncertain complex ambiguous world of today the world in which the church exists The church still looks to hierarchies when it needs to build networks and stays mired in arguments when it needs to find unity With the experience of a bishop and the insight of a deep learner Doyle points the way to the future with a vision for how we can learn serve and communicate with each other Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Texas and author of Unabashedly Episcopalian has the authority to call for change to hierarchical structures Practical ideas for connecting and building communities of service Metaphors for Leading – Leading by Metaphors Stefan Jung, Volker Kessler, Louise Kretzschmar, Elke Meier, 2019-06-17 Führung und Organisation sind komplexe Phänomene die oftmals durch Metaphern beschrieben werden Zunehmend interessieren sich Theorie und Praxis für ihre Verwendung Wie sehen sich Führungskräfte selbst und wie werden sie von anderen metaphorisch beschrieben Gängige Sprachbilder reichen vom Gärtner und Coach bis hin zum Macher oder Priester Alle diese Bilder sollen helfen die zugrunde liegende Sichtweise auf Führung und Organisation zu beschreiben und geben einen Einblick wie Führung von unseren metaphorischen Weltbildern beeinflusst wird Wenig Aufmerksamkeit erfuhren bisher kulturelle Unterschiede bei der Verwendung von Metaphern im Bereich Führung und Organisation Wie können wir die verborgenen Metaphern die unser Denken unterbewusst prägen an die Oberfläche bringen Wie können wir alte Metaphern der Führung in einer modernen und globalisierten Welt nutzen Der vorliegende Band dokumentiert die zentralen Ergebnisse einer interdisziplinären Konferenz zu Metaphern und Führung an der Wissenschaftler und Wissenschaftlerinnen aus Afrika Asien Europa und Nordamerika teilgenommen haben Metaphors are used increasingly in leadership theory and leadership development How do leaders view themselves and how are they seen by others in terms of metaphors One can find a wide range described in publications and on coaching websites They range from gardener and coach to manager or priest They all help describe the underlying view on leadership and give insight into how leadership is influenced by our metaphorical view of the world However little work has been done on describing the influence of cultural perspectives in metaphors used in the area of leadership and organisations How can we bring to the surface the hidden metaphors that shape our thinking subconsciously How can we utilise old metaphors of leadership in a new and globalised world This volume documents the central results of an interdisciplinary conference on metaphors and leadership in which scientists from Africa Asia Europe and North America took part Participating in God's Mission Craig Van Gelder, Dwight Zscheile, 2018-01-11 Explores how the church has engaged and should engage the American context What might faithful and meaningful Christian witness look like within our changing contemporary American context After analyzing contemporary challenges and developing a missiological approach for the US church Craig Van Gelder and Dwight Zscheile reflect on the long complex and contested history of Christian mission in America Five distinct historical periods from the beginning of the colonial era to the dawn of the third millennium are reviewed and critiqued They then bring the story forward to the present day discussing current realities confronting the church discerning possibilities of where and how the Spirit of God might be at work today and imagining what participating in the triune God's mission may look like in an uncertain tomorrow

Servant Leadership, Social Entrepreneurship and the Will to Serve Luk Bouckaert, Steven C. van den Heuvel, 2019-11-28 This book brings together a number of important essays on the intersection of servant leadership and social entrepreneurship examining them through a shared focus on the will to serve This combination bears out the insight that inspiring social and economic leaders are able to transform a conflictual human settlement into a collaborative and caring human community The book seeks to answer the question of whether we can induce from their way of doing things a model of civic entrepreneurship and leadership that can inspire people in profit non profit and public organizations It also examines the extent to which the will to serve is compatible with the will to maximize profit or the will to gain economic political or religious power Furthermore it asks how far different spiritual traditions create different models and examples of servant leadership and social entrepreneurship This book will be of interest to researchers working in the fields of business ethics business spirituality and corporate social responsibility

Walking the Way of Love Courtney Cowart, 2020-09-17 The presiding bishop's advisors lay out a step by step way to nurture a profound friendship with God in Christ Walking the Way of Love is organized according to seven practices Turn Learn Pray Worship Bless Go and Rest and three ways of being We Seek Love We Seek Freedom and We Seek Abundant Life The wisdom in this book allows people to move from the first tentative stages of wanting an experiential relationship with Jesus to having a real relationship that grows deeper every year The seven simple practices spelled out in this book by highly experienced teachers and practitioners will enhance the reader's spiritual growth and open up love freedom and abundant life The stories and wisdom of these advisors will be helpful not just to seekers of faith but also supportive to faith leaders who are guiding others in their development across the church Proceeds support The Way of Love Scholarship Fund

Tempered Resilience Tod Bolsinger, 2020-11-10 What type of leadership is needed in a moment that demands adaptive change Exploring the qualities of adaptive leadership within churches and nonprofit organizations Tod Bolsinger deftly examines both the external challenges we face and the internal resistance that holds us back showing how leaders can become both stronger and more flexible of stories from Scripture provides wonderful examples of people encountering the mystery of God. We read these stories over and over and know how they turn out year after year. The one perspective we might miss however is that the characters in Scripture never knew how their story would turn out when they were living the unknown fear joy surprise and drama of the moment. They faced the same uncertainty worry distraction and wonder that we face in light of life events that leave us breathless for hope and help. We often fail to grasp how divine participation in the human story is actually what God's story is all about. Our stories are God's story. Personal narratives then and now seem to be the ways in which God works best as Scripture is transformed from static story to a conversation that informs our own modern dilemmas and uncertainties. Today's reader can engage with ancient and familiar tales through the lens of pondering where God might be at work in our own lives as well. As today's Church is in an unsettling transition today's spiritual seekers and those who have grown disenfranchised from or disillusioned with traditional spiritual approaches will find a fresh perspective that opens their own story to the overwhelming constancy of God's grace and love.

The Last Pastor Gail Cafferata, 2020-01-18 Gail Cafferata was heartbroken when the church she pastored voted to close its doors. It may have been the right decision but it led to a million questions in her mind about her call leadership and future. She began to think that other pastors who close churches perhaps go through this same experience. This led her to conduct a sociological study of over 130 pastors in five historically established denominations Episcopal Lutheran United Methodist Presbyterian and United Church of Christ who were called to serve churches that closed. This book tells the results of that study which consisted of many interviews and the hard won lessons learned by these courageous pastors.

What Is Jesus Doing? Edwin Chr. van Driel, 2020-01-21 How do we understand Jesus present activity in a challenging post Christian context. Leading thinkers in pastoral theology homiletics liturgical theology and missiology consider how to recognize the divine presence and join in what God is already doing in all areas of church ministry. With deep theological reflection personal stories and practical suggestions this is a compelling interdisciplinary conversation.

God's People Made New Rachael J. Powell, 2022 God's People Made New reveals the role of God's Word in forming a congregation. Through the voices of congregants biblical texts theological reflection and tools for studying the Bible Rachael J. Powell inspires congregations to enter into the power of Scripture.

GPS: Finding Direction on Your Faith and Life Journey John Strommen, 2024-07-31 What's the point of it all. In the postmodern world the meaning and direction of human existence is increasingly a question mark with few satisfying answers forthcoming. People of faith are not immune to such questions as they struggle to meaningfully connect their faith to their daily lives. In GPS Finding Direction on Your Faith and Life Journey Strommen makes the case that much of this existential struggle is born of an anthropocentric worldview that has banished God to the margins leaving humans with the futile task of playing God as they attempt to create their own meaning purpose and identity. Drawing on core Christian understandings through a Lutheran lens the author asserts that life giving meaning and purpose are gifts given by God alone who frees people from their self justifying ways to take an inventory of their many gifts and participate in a new creation where love of neighbor is the social currency It is the core theme of this book that God is in fact present deeply invested and at work in the everyday world calling everyone daily to partner with God to co create a more trustworthy loving and hopeful world Biblical Cross-Cultural Leadership

Suzana Dobrić Veiss,Elizabeth K. Hunt,Joshua D. Henson,2024-07-01 This volume centers on leadership through the lenses of cross cultural dynamics and Biblical principles Each chapter examines a distinct instance from a New Testament text offering diverse Biblical applications The text places an emphasis on understanding cultural awareness and cultural sensitivity offering insights on integrating Biblical values into leadership approaches Addressing a void in demonstrating the alignment of cross cultural leadership with Biblical principles this work makes a valuable contribution to the realms of cross cultural studies and organizational leadership
