Pageant World History Gerald Leinwand,1990 Dear students I want to share a dream with you I dreamed that a young person of 14 whom I was going to be teaching would become president of the United States during the first half of the twenty first century As a teacher I was struck by this immense responsibility What should I teach my student about the world as preparation for this awesome task How could my world history class help this person to mature into an intelligent and humane president and leader of the free world

Mississippi's Black Cotton John Obee,MacArthur Cotton,2025-05 The literature of the civil rights movement is replete with stories about the major actors in the movement including for example Martin Luther King but there is little focus on the MacArthur Cottons of the era the young Black men and women who at great risk to their physical and mental health chose to become involved in the movement when so many others chose not to Without these young Black people there would have been no movement and what was accomplished with the Civil Rights Acts of the 1960s would never have happened This was particularly true in Mississippi the most repressive of all fifty states and one that had sponsored state terrorism to ensure that white supremacy reigned supreme Despite having no real reason to believe that change could happen MacArthur Cotton and those like him believed that they had to act In MacArthur s case his actions were in the tradition of his activist family and he relates his involvement with many of the important figures in the Mississippi movement such as Medgar Evers and Fannie Lou Hamer Importantly he also honors others like him who are largely unknown to history such as the Greenes and McGees in Greenwood who were waging their own war against their oppressive state While having been imprisoned many times and having lived in a constant state of terror Cotton persisted as a foot soldier in a war and as with all veterans of wars was left with emotional and psychological scars Despite the toll that it took on him as a person however he remains a committed activist to this day

Teaching History with Big Ideas S. G. Grant,Jill M. Gradwell,2010-07-16 In the case studies that make up the bulk of this book middle and high school history teachers describe the decisions and plans and the problems and possibilities they encountered as they ratcheted up their instruction through the use of big ideas Framing a teaching unit around a question such as Why don t we know anything about Africa offers both teacher and students opportunities to explore historical actors ideas and events in ways both rich and engaging Such an approach exemplifies the construct of ambitious teaching whereby teachers demonstrate their ability to marry their deep knowledge of subject matter students and the school context in ways that fundamentally challenge the claim that history is boring agencies Emily 2 Jeremy Wells,Emily Wells,2014-08-08 What would you do to bring hope to your dying son or daughter afflicted with leukemia Would you permit your son or daughter to experience life while facing their expected death Emily was twelve when diagnosed with leukemia She met seventeen year old Jeremy who would become her anchor to give her strength when she was weak to give her hope when she felt all was lost and to give her unqualified love and support to hold onto when she was lost frightened or simply unable to do for herself Emily wanted to experience life before she faced her own death Emilys mother reluctantly allowed her to secretly marry Jeremy before God and in her presence since underage marriage was forbidden by society Emilys story was told in the book titled Emily Emily brought hope to young cancer patients who simply want to experience life before facing their probable death This book chronicles Emily and Jeremys fight to change the rules and allow qualifying sick children to marry and experience life before facing death Emily states Is that really so much to ask Child Welfare says Yes it is Underage girls can marry if they are pregnant but underage sick and dying children should never be permitted to marry unless the cancer patient gets pregnant See who prevails in this battle to bring life and dignity to young cancer patients who just want to live even if living is but a moment in time Opening Up Education for
