Short Answer Question 1 (continued)

Scoring Notes

Examples of responses to part (a) that would earn credit:

- The Nazi Holocaust is an example of mass violence committed by a totalitarian state.
- The genocide in Cambodia under the Khmer Rouge is an example of mass violence committed by a totalitarian state.
- The liquidation of the Ukrainian kulaks under Stalin is an example of mass violence committed by a totalitarian state.
- The “Great Terror” committed by the Soviet Union under Stalin in the late 1930s is an example of mass violence by a totalitarian state that would support the argument in the passage.
- The Chinese communist government under Mao Zedong used mass violence to force people to accept communist policies during the Great Leap Forward and the Cultural Revolution.

Examples of responses to part (b) that would earn credit:

- In the nineteenth century European states such as Britain and France violated their democratic principles by using mass violence to crush African resistance to European rule.
- British soldiers and settlers committed mass violence against indigenous populations in Australia, thereby showing that democracies do commit mass violence.
- The firebombing of Dresden during World War II challenges the author’s argument that democracies will not commit acts of mass violence because the Dresden bombing was a deliberate use of terror designed to break the will of the German population.

Examples of responses to part (c) that would earn credit:

- Rummel’s view was likely shaped by the end of the Cold War when the United States and its democratic allies had emerged victorious over totalitarian regimes such as the communist Soviet Union.
- The argument in the passage was likely shaped by the development of a liberal international order after the Second World War, which included the development of institutions such as the United Nations that advocated for peace and international cooperation.
- Ethnic cleansing perpetrated by Serbian forces in Yugoslavia in the early 1990s would likely have shaped Rummel’s arguments about the relationship between democracies and mass violence because Serbia was an authoritarian state under Slobodan Milosevic.
- Rummel’s assertion that democratic states will not engage in mass violence was likely shaped by conservative thinkers who argued after the end of the Cold War that democracy had triumphed, every state would soon adopt democracy, and war between states would end.
