History 101, Modern World History, 1986 The World's History Howard Spodek, 2001 A true exploration of world history this text presents world history through an analysis of eight chronological turning points seen through the prisms of eight different themes origins cities empires religion trade migrations revolutions and technology Focusing throughout on three major questions What do we know How do we know it What difference does it make it helps readers make sense of the immensity of human historical experience the most significant activities accomplishments and failures throughout the world from earliest times to the present Volumes I and II cover the following turning points human origins and human cultures 5 million B C E 10 000 B C E The first cities 10 000 B C E 1000 C E Empire and Imperialism 2300 B C E 1100 C E the rise of world religions 600 B C E 1500 C E world trade 1100 1776 C E migration 1500 1750 social change 1688 1914 and exploding technologies 1914 1900s For individuals interested in a comprehensive yet manageable presentation of world history

World History: Connections to Today Elisabeth Gaynor Ellis, Pearson/Prentice Hall, 2003-12 The World's History Since 1100 Howard Spodek, 2000 For introductory level courses in World History A true exploration of world history this text presents world history through an analysis of eight chronological turning points seen through the prisms of eight different themes origins cities empires religion trade migrations revolutions and technology Focusing throughout on three major questions What do we know How do we know it What difference does it make it helps students make sense of the immensity of human historical experience the most significant activities accomplishments and failures throughout the world from earliest times to the present Rich in primary sources both written and visual and in data and interpretation it addresses how historians form debate and revise our historical understanding of the world shows the value of other disciplines in understanding history and helps students begin to assess their own place in the ongoing history of the world The Heritage of World Civilizations Albert M. Craig, William A. Graham, Steven Ozment, Donald Kagan, Frank M. Turner, 2002-07 For undergraduate level World Civilization or World History courses This comprehensive accessible survey of world history has been extensively revised to provide an even more global and comparative perspective on the events and processes that have shaped our increasingly interdependent world Written by leading scholars in their respective fields Heritage of World Civilizations 6 e combines unusually strong and thorough coverage of the unique heritage of Asian African Islamic Western and American civilizations while highlighting the role of the world's great religious and philosophical traditions Ancient Civilizations of the World Denny Rose & Rowan Allen, 2018-05-08 About 5 000 years ago the first urban societies developed laying the foundations for the first civilizations Nearly all civilizations share the same few features they have abundant food surpluses contained cities political bureaucracies armies defined religious and social hierarchies and long distance trading Ancient Egyptian culture flourished between c 5500 BCE with the rise of technology as evidenced in the glass work of faience and 30 BCE with the death of Cleopatra VII the last Ptolemaic ruler of Egypt It is famous today for the great monuments which celebrated the triumphs of the rulers and honored the gods of the land The culture is often misunderstood as having been obsessed with death but had this been so it is unlikely it would have made the significant impression it did on other ancient cultures such as Greece and Rome Neolithic means a new stone age even though agriculture was the crowning achievement of the period Civilizations started out small Agriculture at first tended to tie only small groups together These groups also all settled along rivers important as a reliable and predictable source of water As time passed families usually worked the same plot of land over successive generations leading to the concept of ownership Ancient mortars and grinding tools unearthed in a large mound in the Zagros Mountains of Iran reveal that people were grinding wheat and barley about 11 000 years ago Grass pea wild wheat wild barley and lentils were found throughout the site including some of the earliest known samples This was much further east than most sites known for early agriculture This book furnishes with utmost facility to all classes of readers the needed information on ancient civilization The unusual variety of the subject makes this a work of endless fascination
