Handbook of BRICS and Emerging Economies P. B. Anand, Shailaja Fennell, Flavio Comim, 2021 Ever since Jim O Neill at Goldman Sachs coined the term BRICS in 2001 there have been many different assessments of these major emerging economies with some even proclaiming that the promise of the BRICS comprising Brazil Russia India China and South Africa is over However the so called arranged marriage still seems to be working well with the club having become a formal international forum with summit declarations ministerial meetings and numerous BRICS wide fora Is this euphoria misplaced Is there a BRICS model of economic and human development Are inequalities increasing and is this the denouncement of the economic successes The Handbook of BRICS and Emerging Economies presents a comprehensive and multi faceted analysis of the BRICS countries and other emerging economies exploring their economic social environmental and governance dimensions and other challenges It brings together multi disciplinary perspectives from more than fifty authors to examine how education contributed to the emergence of BRICS how BRICS are impacting African economies and how other emerging economies including Chile Mexico Turkey and others in Africa and Central Asia compare It observes the impact of governance challenges both within individual countries and in the forum for co operation amongst them what issues related to gender and identity based violence are prevalent and what the security implications are and the role of BRICS is in contributing to peace keeping operations

The Eye of the Storm Salidor Christoffel Coetzee, 2021-03-02 A Quest for Truth This book is dedicated to the world s most vulnerable people who suffer from atrocities stemming from wars poverty addictions and foremost those who were infected by or died because of the COVID 19 coronavirus A virus that was created in and originating from China Wuhan City in the Hubei province The virus spread rapidly creating immense havoc across the globe sparing no country or human being a virus without borders with devastating effects It is time for introspection and reflection a time for a psychological and spiritual makeover time to remove idols from our midst and honour one God the God of Adam and Eve God of Abraham Sarah Hagar Ishmael and Isaac God the oneness The story of Abraham is retold in the book from a Christian biblical perspective but more so from a Muslim belief the Quran perspective a constructive attempt to align and bridge the divides between nations during these difficult testing times Through the book the author fulfils that commitment and promise made as a young boy to God to spread God's message of hope and love into the world to bridge the cultural divide to promote care for the poor and homeless Similar to the COVID 19 coronavirus God's grace love and forgiveness have no borders The world is in desperate need of spiritual cure and revival across borders It is a world in constant chaos and turmoil instigated and promulgated by politicians and business and country leaders ethical misbehaviour across the globe hearts and minds contaminated by a deadly infected cancerous disease for example lust arrogance and greed fraudulent and corrupt hearts and minds an extremism philosophy and theology in its own right The author sadly lost his wife in 2010 due to breast cancer In 2011 he was on the verge of becoming a tramp in the streets of South Africa Yes a highly qualified individual with years of experience as a financial manager in a big corporate company with 8 years high level academic accomplishments If people ask him How was it possible he will tell them it is very possible it all depends on every individual's personal circumstances God the Oneness knows every hair on your head He loves and cares about you anyway wherever and whatever you are The author lived and worked for seven years of his career as a cost engineer for a large oil and gas company in Saudi Arabia He also previously worked as financial manager for a joint venture oil and gas company in Iran Arya Sasol Polymer Company ASPC a joint venture company with 50 per cent ownership from oil and gas company National Petroleum Company NPC Iran and 50 per cent ownership from oil and gas company Sasol South Africa Both companies were represented on the ASPC board by three directors respectively He had the joy and fulfilment of visiting many countries during his short life apart from working and living in Saudi Arabia and Iran A journey always has a starting and a finishing point starting life from fertilisation to an unborn fruit in the womb of your mother until you pass on to something much bigger and better eternal life heavenly freedom and peace in the presence of God the Creator and oneness In the book Saudi Arabia and Iran are extensively discussed to provide insight to the reader The two countries are uniquely different but in many ways the same The author attempts to give the reader a glimpse of life as an expatriate worker in both countries Saudi Arabia and Iran a journey never to forget or to regret a humble faithful committed contribution to mankind in a dynamic and diverse way in a dynamic and diverse multicultural environment In some instances the author feels obliged to speak the truth and only the truth because truth matters for the sake of reflection admission repentance and necessary corrective action by business leaders politicians and governments alike to take a leaf from the author's book of life The Leadership Challenge are discussed using Nelson Mandela a previous president of South Africa as an example to explain the concept of Servant leadership Few images in history are more powerful than that of Nelson Mandela fist raised in a dignified grey suit walking after his release from 27 years of imprisonment his short walk to freedom Mandela was only 44 years old when he was given a life sentence by the apartheid regime for his leadership of the African National Congress an organisation outlawed by the South African government for its anti apartheid actions and positions After providing the reader with evidential background the last two chapters deal with the author's personal experiences in Iran and Saudi Arabia respectively two countries that are way apart from each other The two countries apart from being constantly in conflict with each other are also in conflict with other countries because of their deeply rooted differences in religion and cultures but more so because of their greed and love for oil or black gold They are ways apart and indifferent but with so much in common

Entrepreneurship in Central and Eastern Europe Tõnis Mets, Arnis Sauka, Danica Purg, 2018-03-14 The process of the transition to a market oriented economy for countries from Central and Eastern Europe CEE and the Commonwealth of Independent States CIS started some 25 years ago A new technology base triggered the fast growth of new investments into intangible assets by global economic leaders at the beginning of the 1990s providing the basis for a move towards a knowledge economy During the past 25 years entrepreneurs in CEE and the CIS have reshaped traditional industries and created new industries combining innovative ideas with traditional competencies Yet we still do not know very much about how and why companies led by entrepreneurs develop how they expand globally and what the role of new knowledge and innovation is in the internationalization process Understanding the pathways of entrepreneurial development especially growth through internationalization is important for the overall development of countries in transition and beyond Entrepreneurship in Central and Eastern Europe Development through Internationalization provides an overview of entrepreneurship in a range of important emerging markets This book aims to fill the gap in the literature by providing up to date data and case based evidence With coverage of a range of national firms from countries including Belarus Estonia Hungary Poland Latvia Lithuania Serbia Slovakia Slovenia and Ukraine this book will be vital supplementary reading around international entrepreneurship and essential reading for those studying the business environment in this vital emerging market improve overall efficiency in the arrangement of project finance and governance and how to increase the return provided by investment in infrastructure. Special focus is given to proposed improvements to the port cities of Indonesia in the areas of major infrastructure project governance policies, engagement, operation and processes. By rigorously investigating the economic, transport, finance and policy aspects of infrastructure investment, this book will be a valuable resource for policy makers and government officials in Indonesia and Australia. Infrastructure investment organisations and companies involved in exporting services between Indonesia and Australia. This book will also be of interest to researchers and students of infrastructure planning and financing, setting a solid foundation for subsequent investigations of financing options for large scale infrastructure developments.

The Global Competitiveness Report 2002-2003 Peter Cornelius, 2003-03-27. The annual Global Competitiveness Report is widely recognized as the world's leading cross country comparison of data and information relating to economic competitiveness and growth. Over the years, the Report has become the most authoritative and comprehensive assessment of the comparative strengths and weaknesses of national economies throughout the world. The World Economic Forum continues its tradition of excellence with The Global Competitiveness Report 2002-2003, which provides the most updated and recent data, rankings and analysis of 75 industrialized and emerging economies and the latest thinking and research from prominent academics and international institution leaders on global competitiveness. This year's report begins by presenting the widely quoted global competitive index that really comprises two indices: one for growth and one for productivity. It then provides global and regional analyses with examinations of the competitive landscapes of Africa, Asia, Central and Eastern Europe and Latin America. Essays on a wide range of special topics follow, including national innovative capacity, governance, foreign direct investment and trade performance. The Report concludes with detailed country profiles, data presentation and an exhaustive survey of senior business executives that touches on business conditions, infrastructure, the character of the regulatory regime, the quality of government, organized labor, corruption and tax evasion. The Global Competitiveness Report 2002-2003 provides essential information for business leaders, government decision makers and for academics to examine the critical challenges facing a multitude of the world's economies.

Beyond Borders, Beyond Banking Heather A. Clark, 2020-04-29. This book examines the experiences and good practices of ACLEDA Bank Cambodia. Applicable to banks and microfinance institutions around the globe, it includes materials for classroom instruction on organizational development, financial sector development, the role of government and investors in supporting the financial market and the benefits to customers. Following on the previous publication When There Was No Money, which tells the ACLEDA story by tracing its history and various stages of organizational development in the financial sector as it evolved in Cambodia from 1991 to 2004, this book examines the 2nd decade in the bank's history, including its expansion to Lao PDR and Myanmar and the launch of subsidiaries such as ACLEDA Securities and the ACLEDA Institute of Business. Adopting a documentary approach, the book presents case studies supported by current economic and financial literature as well as stories from a wide range of interviews with the board management staff customers competitors and regulators Given its scope the book offers a valuable resource for financial institutions investors researchers and students interested in financial inclusion financial sector development good governance of financial institutions microfinance aid effectiveness post conflict organizational development and Cambodia
